James Hervey, D. D. Mrs. Flanagan was born in Wheeling, February 23, 1832, and died in 1907. Her mother's maiden name was Jane McKinley. Rev. James Hervey was pastor of Forks Presbyterian Church for forty-seven years, and was greatly beloved by thousands who heard him preach the word during the almost half century of his pastorate. The number of persons baptized, married and buried under the pastorates of both Dr. Flanagan and Dr. Hervey was very large.

ERNST This is a German family, first represented in America by Marcus John Ernst, a native of Germany, who emigrated alone, when eighteen years of age, locating at Moundsville, Marshall county, Virginia. He was forty-five years old at the date of his death in 1871. He was a baker by trade and lived most of his life at Moundsville, coming to Clarksburg in 1865. He worked for the union army as a baker, during the civil war in this country, at Buckhannon, Upshur county, Virginia. He married Fannie Hine, a native German woman, an orphan when she came unaccompanied to this country and located at Moundsville. She died in 1894, aged sixty-four years. Children: Charles M., of whom further; William H., of Salt Lake City, Utah, where he is engaged in the transfer business; Philip, died aged forty-six years; Mrs. Nettie Lambricht, died aged thirty-six years.

(II) Charles Marcus, son of Marcus J. and Fannie (Hine) Ernst, was born at Moundsville, Marshall county, West Virginia, November 7, 1858. He came to Clarksburg with his parents, when but five years of age, and was there educated at the public schools. He assisted his mother with the bakery and confectionery business, in a building formerly located where the Waldo Hotel now stands, continuing until he was twenty-two years of age. He then established a confectionery store on his own account on Third street, Clarksburg, and conducted it for five years. He has had charge of the Donahue & Johnson boot and shoe and hat store, located at 328 Main street, for over twenty-five years. Politically Mr. Ernst is a Republican. He is a member of the city council, being elected to such position in 1902, and holding it ever since by reëlection. He belongs to the Elks order at Clarksburg, and the Knights of Pythias fraternity; and is a member and clerk of the Woodmen of the World. He is a member of the Lutheran church.

Charles M. Ernst married, at Hamilton, Ohio, February 16, 1893, Katherine Small Rittweger, born in Oxford, Ohio, November 16, 1870, daughter of W. A. Rittweger, who was born about 1843, and lived retired at Oxford, Ohio, where he formerly conducted a barber shop. His wife was Mary Long, who is still living at the age of sixty-three years. Mr. and Mrs. Ernst have an adopted son, Phillip Charles, now nineteen years of age, who is the son of Mrs. Nettie Lambricht, Mr. Ernst's sister.

JACOBS Many years ago this was known as a pioneer name in Maryland where at least three generations of the family had resided. Later the family was well known and quite numerous in Pennsylvania and West Virginia.

(I) John Jacobs, of English origin, was born in Maryland and lived to an advanced age. He had a son, Daniel B., of whom further.

(II) Daniel B., son of John Jacobs was born in Maryland, and like his father lived to be an old and successful agriculturalist in that state. He married and had children, among whom was William.

(III) William, son of Daniel B. Jacobs and wife, was a native of Greene county, Pennsylvania, born August 18, 1835, died September 28, 1908. He followed farming the greater part of his life and also handled real estate at Waynesburg. Politically he was a Democrat, and in his church faith was of the Methodist Protestant denomination. He married Hester Jane Loar, born in Greene county, Pennsylvania, November 25, 1836, died March 21, 1910. John Loar, the father-in-law of William Jacobs, was by occupation a farmer. But two children born to Mr. and Mrs. Jacobs are now living: Daniel Warren, of whom further; and Anna Belle, now Mrs. Robert R. Hadley, of Waynesburg, Pennsylvania.

(IV) Daniel Warren, son of William and Hester Jane (Loar) Jacobs, was born in Rich Hill township, Greene county, Pennsylvania, March 16, 1860. He attended the local common schools and then entered Waynesburg College, Pennsylvania. He taught school for a time, and was then deputy treasurer of the county, under his father for three years. He then engaged in the business of general merchandising at Harvey's postoffice, Graysville, Pennsylvania, owning a large store which he conducted for ten years. After this he went to Clarksburg,

Dear June,
The Jacobs family I'm researching in Monongalia Co. W.VA is as follows:

Emma Marcella ROBE b. 1851 dau of Moses ROBE and Arah LANHAM married Lindsay JACOBS.

Children (all born in Monongalia County):
1) Frank Jacobs b. 1870
2) Iris Jacobs b. 1872
3) Myrtle Jacobs b. 1876
4) Fay Jacobs b. 1879
(these are from the 1880 Census of Monongalia Co., W.VA)
5) Raney Jacobs b. Oct 1889
6) Anleley B. Jacobs b. Jun 1893
7) Wilsley Jacobs b. Jul 1896
(these are from the 1900 Census of Monongalia Co., sheet 20. The names of these last three daughters were very hard to read and I'm not sure I have

June,
Have no known links to Scioto Co. but have short attention span so decided to play around with your folks!
Here's a hogpog of info
If you get any dates for your folks let me know. Found it kind of funny that the majority of Utts in Ohio were in Scioto Co. I have the 2 Ohio Marriage CD's: #2 IL< IN< KY< OH< TN 1720-1926 and #236 OH 1851-1900.
Good luck.

John^{2} Jacobs (William^{1}), fourth child of William and Ann (Peake) Jacobs, was born 13 September 1765[1] in Virginia[2]. He married Elender, born 1 November 1772.

William Jacobs was shown as paying tax for himself and his sons, Francis and John, on the 1787 Prince William County Tax List[3]. The record shows John paying taxes from 1792 through 1801, except for the year 1795.[4]

In the Occoquan Baptist Church minutes of the congregation, 1794-1843, there are two entries mentioning John. On Saturday, 19 May 1794, an entry read, "Brother Obed Calvert is appointed to speak to Brother John Jacobs respecting his nonattendance at church meetings." The second entry of Saturday, 27 September 1794 says "John Jacobs is hereby excluded from us for irregular conduct and disorderly walk."[5]

John Jacobs is believed to have gone to the Mississippi Territory. His son, John, Jr. was thought to be born there[6], and his son, Silas, is to have served in that area during the War of 1812.

There is a possibility that John and his family were later in Shelby County, Kentucky near his brother Samuel. This needs farther research.

John and his family came to Adams/Brown County, Ohio, after the 1820 census. He appears in the 1830 Adams County, Monroe Township census living beside his son Francis[7]. He married Cynthia (Lucas) Robbins, widow of James Vincent Robbins, 26 July 1838, in Franklin Township, Brown County, Ohio[8]. She was born in Virginia ca 1795[9], the daughter of Robinson and Mary (Prickett) Lucas[10].

John and Cynthia were living next door to John, Jr. and his family in the 1850 Brown County, Franklin Township census[11]. John would have been eighty-five years old at the time. He died before the 1860 census, and both John and Cynthia are buried near Arnheim, Brown County, Ohio[12].

John Jacobs owned a Bible[13] that was passed down through the family to John Jacobs, Jr., Benjamin Miller Jacobs, Marcus Lafayette Jacobs, Marcus L. Jacobs, Jr. and the owner today, 1999, Marcus L. Jacobs III. It had been the tradition to pass the Bible down to the youngest male of each generation. The family tradition has been by word of mouth that "the Bible was carried in the War of 1812, and was thrown in a river during an Indian attack to keep it from falling into their hands when it looked as if the men were going to lose the battle and become unable to escape."

It is this Bible that matches the birthdate of son Silas to John Jacobs' son Silas' birthdate in the William Jacobs Bible that helps tie the relationship of these families together.

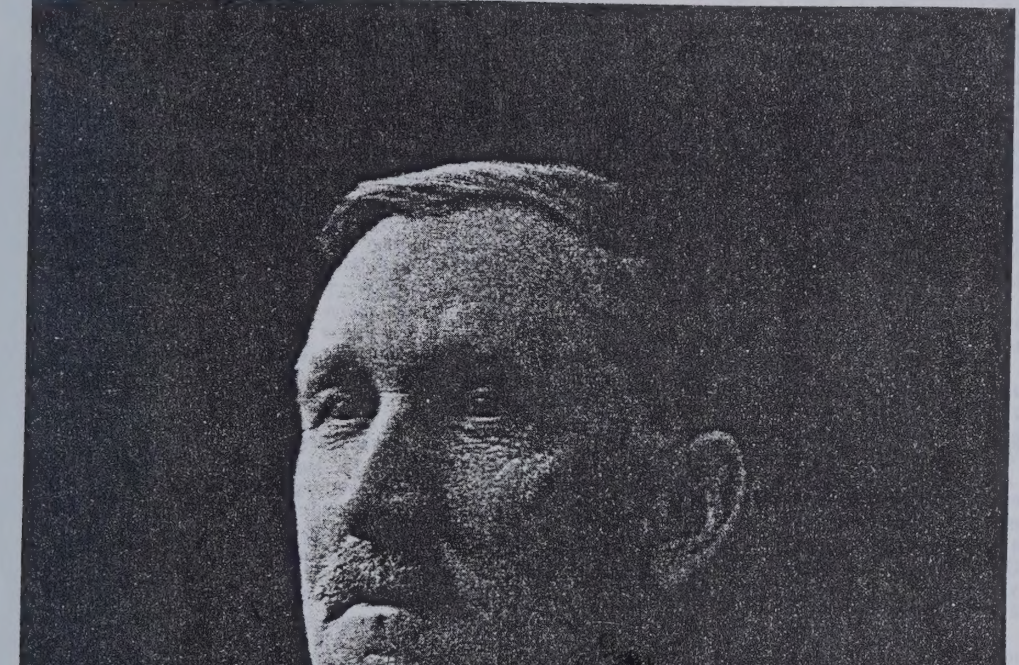
Margaret,

I thought you might like to have this email address. It is for the new LDS Library link that has just come on line. I emailed it to June to check out and bookmark. Pass this on to others so they will have it. They say if enough people show an interest they will keep it on line and add to it.

Mary Ann

Misc.



J. M. Jacobs.

Mrs. Kirkpatrick, she being now a member of the class of 1923 in the Wheeling High School.

John A. Moore is a native son of the City of Wheeling and has become an influential figure in the industrial and commercial life of this metropolitan District of West Virginia, where he is secretary, treasurer and general manager of the Warwood Tool Company. The modern manufacturing plant is established in the suburb of Warwood.

Mr. Moore is a scion of one of the sterling pioneer families of Wheeling, in which city his father, James B. Moore, was born in the year 1838 and died in 1907. William Moore, great-grandfather of the subject of this review, was born in the north of Ireland, came to the United States in the early part of the nineteenth century, resided for a time in Western Pennsylvania, and thereafter became a pioneer settler in Tuscarawas County, Ohio, where he passed the remainder of his life. His wife, whose maiden name was Martha Purviance, likewise was born in the north of Ireland, and she was a resident of Wheeling, West Virginia, at the time her death, her remains being interred in a cemetery here.

John Moore, grandfather of him whose name initiates this review, was born in Greene County, Pennsylvania, in 1810, and died at Wheeling, West Virginia (then Virginia), in 1860. He came to Wheeling about the year 1827, learned the plumbing trade, and owned the leading plumbing shop of the town in the early days. He established the first waterworks of Wheeling, and continued as superintendent of the same a number of years. In the '30s and '40s he served as steamboat inspector, and later he became the owner of a machine shop, to the conducting of which he gave his attention until his death. He married Sarah Irwin, who was born at Wheeling, and they reared a family of two sons and three daughters, of whom only one is living in 1921—Elizabeth Irwin, who is the widow of Rev. J. R. Moore and who resides at Morgantown, Monongalia County. Rev. J. R. Moore a clergyman of the Presbyterian Church, attained distinction in educational work in West Virginia. As a young man he was a member of the faculty of Linsly Institute at Wheeling, and later conducted the Monongalia Academy at Morgantown, from which was eventually developed the University of West Virginia.

Mrs. Sarah (Irwin) Moore, paternal grandmother of the subject of this sketch, was a daughter of William Irwin, who settled at Wheeling when the future metropolis and capital of West Virginia had only thirty houses. He was born in what is now Harrison County, this state, and was one of the incorporators of the village of Wheeling, besides which he served as a member of the Virginia House of Burgesses, as representative of Ohio County, in what is now West Virginia. He was prominent and influential in connection with business, civic and political affairs in this section of Virginia in the pioneer days. He reared a large family of children, and many of his descendants still reside in Wheeling and vicinity. His wife, whose maiden name was Elizabeth Snodgrass, was a daughter of John Snodgrass, who came to Ohio County in the pioneer days and settled in the Short Creek District, where he reclaimed and developed a farm. He came to this county from the vicinity of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. His daughter Elizabeth was born on this old homestead on Short Creek, and both she and her husband were residents of Wheeling at the time of their deaths.

James B. Moore, who passed his entire life in Wheeling, was a skilled mechanical draftsman and was actively associated with business activities in his native city for many years. He was a republican, and he and his wife were zealous members of the Presbyterian Church. He served as a member of the State Militia in the period of the Civil war, but was not called to the front. He married Louisa S. Craig, who was born in Westmoreland County, Pennsylvania, in 1840, and whose death occurred at Wheeling in 1910. Of the children John A., of this review, is the elder, and the younger son, J. Craig Moore, is in the employ of the Warwood Tool Company, of which his brother is general manager.

In the public schools of Wheeling John A. Moore continued his studies until he was seventeen years old, and he then entered the employ of J. A. Holliday & Son, lumber dealers, with whom he remained until 1893. He then became associated with the Warwood Tool Company in the position of bookkeeper, and he has continued his connection with this concern to the present time, in the meanwhile having become its secretary, treasurer and general manager. The plant and officers of the company are situated at the foot of Nineteenth Street in Warwood, and here are manufactured picks, mattocks, hoes, wedges sledges, crowbars, drills and other tools used in coal mines. The concern is the largest of its kind in the state, its products are sold in all sections of the Union, and for fully a quarter of a century its foreign trade has been of appreciable volume. The officers of the company are as here designated: B. W. Peterson, president; and John A. Moore, secretary, treasurer and general manager.

Mr. Moore is staunchly aligned in the ranks of the republican party, and he is a communicant of the Protestant Episcopal Church. He is a past master of Wheeling Lodge No. 5, Ancient Free and Accepted Masons, and is affiliated also with Wheeling Chapter No. 1, Royal Arch Masons; Cyrene Commandery No. 7, Knights Templars, of which he is a past commander; West Virginia Consistory No. 1, Ancient Accepted Scottish Rite, in which he has received the thirty-second degree; and Osiris Temple of the Mystic Shrine. He also holds membership in Welcome Lodge Ancient Order of United Workmen, the Fort Henry Club and the Wheeling Chamber of Commerce. He is treasurer and general manager of the Warwood Water & Light Company. In the World war period he was a loyal and vigorous supporter of patriotic agencies, was chairman of the tool industry committee for war production and devoted much of his time and energy to the perfecting of this important part of war service. Mr. Moore's name remains on the roster of eligible bachelors in his native city.

John Marshall Jacobs has shown much initiative and administrative ability in connection with business enterprises of important order, and is one of the most loyal and progressive citizens of Fairmont, judicial center of Marion County. He was born near Pleasant Valley in Clinton District, Monongalia County, West Virginia, July 16, 1860, and is a son of Jacob and Mary (Steele) Jacobs, the former of whom was born near the Summers Church in Clinton District, Monongalia County, January 18, 1828, and the latter of whom was born in the same district, August 2, 1834, a daughter of John and Nancy (Miller) Steele. Mrs. Jacobs still survives her honored husband and resides in the home of her son Charles, a few miles distant from the place of her birth, her entire life having been passed in Clinton District and she being now one of its most venerable native citizens, at the age of eighty-eight years.

Jacob Jacobs, a son of Elijah and Mary Jacobs, was reared under the conditions marking the pioneer period in the history of Monongalia County, and he was a representative of farm enterprise in that county at the outbreak of the Civil war. He served as a soldier of the Union from August, 1862 until the close of the war, his honorable discharge having been received at Wheeling, West Virginia, July 3, 1865. He took part in many engagements, including the battles of Cloyd Mountain, Lynchburg, Carter's Farm, Fisher's Hill and Cedar Creek, and all of the battles of General Sheridan's army in the historic Shenandoah Valley campaign. He was well advanced in years at the time of his death.

John M. Jacobs gained his early education in the public schools of his native county, and among his instructors were E. Trickett and M. H. Steele, who were among the first graduates of the State Normal School at Fairmont, and also Dr. Fleming Howell, A. L. Purinton and W. E. Joliffe, of the University of West Virginia. Mr. Jacobs has often maintained that through the effective teaching of these able instructors and splendid men he may well claim to be a graduate, by their proxy, of both of the institutions mentioned. From 1879 to 1884 Mr. Jacobs was a successful teacher in the public schools of Monongalia County. In the latter year he engaged in the mercantile business at Little Falls, that county, as junior member of the firm of Hutchinson & Jacobs. He there continued as a prosperous merchant, besides being postmaster and railroad station agent, until 1895, in which year he removed with his family to Fairmont, where he became manager of the Fairmont Planing Mill Company. He is now president of the Fairmont Mold & Foundry Company, of which his son Melville is treasurer. He is also manager of the Jacobs-Hutchinson Hardware Company, of which his son Melville is assistant manager and his daughter Jessie is bookkeeper; he is treasurer of the Stevenson Company; and is a director of the National Bank of Fairmont. He is an active and valued member of the Fairmont Chamber of Commerce, of which he has served as president, and was director of each the Fairmont Hotel Company, the Fairmont Business Men's Association and the local Young Men's Christian Association, besides which he was vice president of the Cook Hospital and of the Greater Fairmont Investment Company. He was a member of the building committee of the Young Men's Christian Association and also of the First Methodist Episcopal Church, in connection with the erection of two of the finest buildings of their respective kinds in this section of the state, while few cities of the size in the entire state can claim better buildings than this church edifice and the Young Men's Christian Association Building in Fairmont. Mr. Jacobs and his family were the largest single contributors to the building fund of this church, of which all are active members. Mr. Jacobs was active in the recent Billy Sunday religious campaign in Fairmont, and is a member of the Billy Sunday Business Men's Club, which is doing good work in this part of West Virginia. In the World war period Mr. Jacobs served on the Draft Board of the City of Fairmont, and he received in this connection a selective service medal, of which he is very proud. He places high estimate also on a letter written to the Local Draft Board by President Wilson and General Crowder, in which the members of the board were specially commended for the splendid work which they did, and that without financial compensation, in behalf of the National Army which acquitted itself so admirably in the greatest of all wars. Mr. Jacobs was liberal and active also in supporting other patriotic activities and service during the war period. He is a staunch republican, and in recent campaigns has made many speeches in behalf of the party cause, principally in Marion County. He is affiliated with the Knights of Pythias and the Independent Order of Odd Fellows.

On the 14th of April, 1888, was solemnized the marriage of Mr. Jacobs and Miss Mary Alice Selby, daughter of Thomas P. and Salina E. Selby. Mr. and Mrs. Jacobs have three children, all of whom were born at Little Falls, Monongalia County. A. Melville was born January 17, 1889; Edna May was born May 21, 1891; and Jessie O. was born February 14, 1893. All three were graduated from the Fairmont High School and the State Normal School at Fairmont, and the only son graduated from the University of West Virginia as a member of the class of 1910, he having there given special study to history under the preceptorship of Professor Callahan.

Mr. Jacobs' civic loyalty and stewardship found excellent expression in his service as a member of the house of Delegates of the West Virginia Legislature in 1907 and in the special session of 1908. He did much to further effective legislation of constructive order, and was influential in the work of the various house committees to which he was assigned, including some of the most important of that body.

Lee C. Paull. As an underwriter of insurance in virtually all lines except that of life, Mr. Paull owns and controls what is undoubtedly the most important agency of its kind in his native city of Wheeling, his insurance business having been so expanded that it now extends into sixteen different states of the Union, and its general offices occupy the entire building at 1136-38-40 Chapline Street.

Mr. Paull was born at Wheeling on the 12th of May, 1889, and is a son of Alfred and Lee (Singleton) Paull, both likewise natives of Wheeling, where the former was born October 17, 1854, and the latter in June, 1856. The Paull family has been one of prominence and influence for many years in what is now the State of West Virginia. James Paull, grandfather of the subject of this sketch, was born at Wheeling, became one of the most distinguished members of the bar of Virginia, of which West Virginia was still a part, and after the forming of the new state he served many years as a judge of the West Virginia Supreme Court of Appeals,. The closing years of his life were passed at Wellsburg, Brooke County.

Alfred Paull has long been one of the leading insurance men in Wheeling, where he is now state agent for a number of the prominent fire-insurance companies of the country, with offices in the Court Theater Building. He is a republican in politics, and he and his wife are honored members of the Vance Memorial Presbyterian Church, in which he is serving as an elder. Mr. Paull is affiliated with the Masonic fraternity and is a citizen of prominence and influence in his native city, where he is vice president of the Bank of the Ohio Valley. Of the children of Alfred and Lee (Singleton) Paull the eldest is Mary I., wife of A. G. Hubbard, a retired manufacturer of Wheeling; Lyde is the wife of L. B. Kirkpatrick, a representative real-estate broker in the City of Rochester, New York; Alfred S. is associated with his father in the insurance business at Wheeling.

Lee C. Paull is indebted to the public schools and the Linsly Institute of Wheeling for his earlier education, which was continued in the Pennsylvania Military College, at Chester. After leaving the latter institution he was a student in Princeton University, New Jersey, until he had partially completed the work of his sophomore year. He left the university in 1907, and for one year thereafter was associated with his father's insurance business. He then became identified with the insurance business conducted by Maj. D. E. Stalnaker, and this alliance continued until the death of Major Stalnaker in July, 1918, when he purchased the business of the deceased and assumed full control of the same. He has since continued the enterprise with unqualified success, with a large and representative clientage.

Mr. Paull takes loyal interest in all that concerns the civic and material well being of his native city, is a republican in politics and holds membership in the Vance Memorial Presbyterian Church. He is affiliated with Wheeling Lodge No. 28, Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks, and is a member of the Fort Henry Club, of which he is a director. He is a director also of the University Club and is a member of the Wheeling Country Club. In the realm of business he is a director of the Dollar Savings & Trust Company; is vice president of the Liberty Transit Company of Wheeling; is vice president of the Camden Coal Land Company of this city; a director of the Arizona Mossback Mines Company in the State of Arizona, and a director of the McClaskey Company, incorporated, of Wheeling. He owns his attractive residence property in the beautiful Highland Park District of Wheeling, and also the building in which his insurance offices are established.

April 6, 1910, recorded the marriage of Mr. Paull and Miss Mary Glessner, daughter of the late William L. Glessner, who was one of the principals of the Whitaker-Glessner Company of Wheeling. Mrs. Paull received excellent educational advantages, including those of the Campbell-Hagerman Seminary in the City of Louisville, Kentucky. Mr. and Mrs. Paull have two children: Lee C., Jr., who was born December 10, 1911, and William Glessner, who was born January 10, 1915.

John B. Garden is the only survivor in Wheeling of the group of Wheeling business men who started the pioneer enterprise of the Wheeling Electric Company nearly forty years ago. For nearly twenty years the Wheeling Electric Company was an individual and independent organization, supplying electricity for commercial use in the Wheeling District. With the rapidly increasing use of electricity it became impossible for a company supported by local capital to keep pace with the requirements, and about that time and served, with the rank of colonel, as a member of the staffs of Governors Glasscock and Hatfield.

Mr. Carspecken married Miss May Hutson, daughter of the Rev. J. S. Hutson, a minister of the Baptist Church of Pittsburgh, and to this union there were born the following children: Harold, born in 1905; Margaret, born in 1907; Henry Louis, Jr., born in 1912; and John Frederic, born in 1915.

JAMES H. MCGREW, cashier of the Bank of the Monongahela Valley and who is recognized as one of the able bankers and progressive citizens of the City of Morgantown and of that part of the State of West Virginia, has been identified with this institution since 1891. During the more than thirty years that have passed he has not only worked his way to a substantial position with this concern, but has likewise been a prominent factor in the development of some of Morgantown's leading enterprises, and has also contributed materially to its civic progress and welfare.

Mr. McGrew was born at Morgantown, October 31, 1873, a son of William Clark and Julia E. (Willey) McGrew, and is descended from an old Scotch family which has been in America since prior to the War of the American Revolution and in West Virginia (then old Virginia) for over a century and a quarter. The American ancestors of this branch of the McGrew family came from Scotland in Colonial days and settled first in Virginia, removing thence to Pennsylvania. Patrick McGrew, son of the original immigrant, was born in Cumberland County, Pennsylvania, and in 1786 came to Preston County, now in West Virginia, settling near what is now Brandonville. His son, Col. James McGrew, was born in Preston County, where he spent practically his entire life. He commanded a regiment of Virginia Militia during the War of 1812. Colonel McGrew married Isabella Clark, the daughter of James Clark, a native of Ireland, who became an early settler of Preston County. James Clark's first wife, who bore the maiden name of Mary Ramsey, died in 1770, and he returned to Ireland, where, in 1773, he married Eleanor Kirkpatrick, and later came back to America. James Clark McGrew, son of Col. James and Isabella (Clark) McGrew, was born September 14, 1813, near Brandonville. He began his business life at Kingwood, Preston County, as clerk in a general store, afterward becoming a successful merchant and prominent and influential man of his community. He was a delegate to the Virginia State Convention in 1861, in which body he vigorously opposed the ordinance of secession, and was one of the little band of about twenty men whose opposition to secession resulted ultimately in the erection of the new State of West Virginia. He served as a member of the House of Delegates of the first Legislature of West Virginia and later was elected a member of and served in the Forty-first and Forty-second sessions of the Federal Congress, but declined a renomination. He served as a director of the West Virginia State Hospital for the Insane, and was one of the organizers and the first president of the National Bank of Kingwood, being likewise a trustee of the Ohio Wesleyan University. Mr. McGrew was an earnest Methodist and was a delegate to the Methodist Ecumenical Conference held at London, England, in 1881. In that and the following year he traveled extensively in Europe, Asia and Africa. In 1841 he married Persis Hagans, daughter of the Hon. Harrison Hagans of Brandonville, West Virginia.

Hon. William Clark McGrew, son of James Clark and Persis (Hagans) McGrew, was born at Kingwood, Preston County, April 21, 1842, and was educated in select schools and at Preston Academy. He was engaged in the mercantile business at Kingwood from 1862 to 1870, and in the latter year removed to Morgantown, where he made his home until 1919. He was for many years prominent in the affairs of that part of West Virginia, and was frequently honored by election to political positions. He served five full terms as mayor of the City of Morgantown, and in 1878 and 1882 was sent as senator from the Eleventh District to the State Legislature. He was frequently called upon to preside over the deliberations of that body, and served as a member of various important committees. In 1907 he was elected a member of the House of Delegates. He also was active in the building of the Fairmont, Morgantown & Pittsburgh Railway, of which he was vice president and for fifteen years its agent at Morgantown; and was one of the organizers of the Economy Glass Company, and served as its treasurer, vice president and president through a long term of years. In fact, Mr. McGrew was closely identified with about every phase of the civic and business advancement of Morgantown for many years, and probably no other one man did more for the development of that part of West Virginia. In 1864 he was united in marriage with Julia E. Willey, daughter of the Hon. Waitman T. and Elizabeth E. (Ray) Willey. Mr. Willey was the first man sent to the United States Senate from West Virginia. William Clark McGrew died in 1919.

James H. McGrew was educated in the Morgantown public schools and at the University of West Virginia, and in 1891 entered the Bank of the Monongahela Valley as a clerk, having been continuously identified with that institution as boy and man for more than thirty years. He was made teller in 1893 and later promoted to assistant cashier, and in 1903 was elected to his present post of cashier. Mr. McGrew is president of the Monongahela Building Company, organized for the construction of the magnificent new home of the Bank of the Monongahela Valley, which is the largest and the only "sky-scraper" business block in this section of the state. He was one of the organizers and is vice president and treasurer of the Monongalia Building and Loan Association; was one of the organizers and is president of the Sesamine Coal Company; was one of the organizers and is treasurer of the Chrisman Foundry Company; was one of the organizers and is treasurer of the Liberty Investment Company; was one of the organizers and is president of the Morgantown Machinery and Supply Company; was one of the organizers and is treasurer of the Dellslaw Coal Company; and is one of the owners of the Union Traction Company, the successor to the Smith Morgantown Traction Company.

Mr. McGrew is receiver for the Monogalia County Circuit Court. He is a member of the Chamber of Commerce, Morgantown Lodge No. 4, F. and A. M., and the Morgantown Country Club, and is an old-time member of the Old Colony Club of Everywhere.

CEPHAS JACOBS became a resident of West Virginia, as now constituted, in the year 1853, and was one of the venerable and honored citizens of Morgantown, Monongalia County, at the time of his death, on the 2d of February, 1903. He was born in Allegany County, Maryland, January 8, 1826, and was a descendant of Zachariah Jacobs, who immigrated from Wales to America in 1740, and who first made settlement in Connecticut. In 1760 he removed to New Jersey, and Colonial records show that his son Jacob Jacobs served as a captain in the Patriot Army in the War of the Revolution, in which he was with General Washington at Valley Forge. Gabriel, son of Capt. Jacob Jacobs, was born in New Jersey, July 7, 1781, and was a young man when he settled in Allegany County, Maryland, where he remained until his death, October 11, 1848. He married Margaret Jackson, who was born May 27, 1783, and died October 20, 1855. Cephas Jacobs, son of Gabriel and Margaret Jacobs, was reared on his father's farm in Allegany County, Maryland, and from that state he came to West Virginia, then a part of Virginia, in 1853, and settled in Preston County, where he engaged in farming and where he built and operated grist and saw mills and a tannery. There he continued his residence until 1869, when he removed to a farm on the west side of Monongahela River in Grant District, Monongalia County, opposite the City of Morgantown. He there continued as one of the substantial exponents of farm industry in the county until 1892, when he removed to Morgantown, in which city he passed the remainder of his life. He was one of the organizers and became president of the First National Building & Loan Association at Charleston, this state, and was a director of the Second National Bank of Morgantown. He was a stanch republican, and he served two terms as justice of the peace in Grant District and one term as a member of the city council of Morgantown. He was affiliated with Morgantown Union Lodge No. 4, Free and Accepted Masons, and he and his wife were zealous members of the First Methodist Episcopal Church at Morgantown.

April 10, 1851, recorded the marriage of Cephas Jacobs with Margaret Ann Ravenscraft, daughter of Abner and Nancy (Corbus) Ravenscraft, of Maryland, and she survived him by nearly twelve years, her death having occurred September 13, 1914.

Elmer Forrest Jacobs, son of Cephas and Margaret Ann Jacobs, was born on the home farm of his father on Bird's Creek, Preston County, this state, June 11, 1866, and was three years old at the time of the family removal to Monongalia County, where he was reared to manhood, received the discipline of the public schools and finally entered the University of West Virginia, with the intention of preparing himself for the profession of civil engineering. But upon the advice of Col. T. Moore Jackson, then at the head of the School of Engineering, West Virginia University, Mr. Jacobs decided to take up architecture, Colonel Jackson having given him special instruction along this line. He was impatient at the delay in placing himself in a position to earn a salary, and on this account left the university and entered the office of J. L. Beatty, an architect in the City of Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania. He remained five years with Mr. Beatty and gained a thorough technical and practical training in the architectural art and science. In 1893 he assumed charge of designing and construction with the Pittsburgh firm of W. A. Hoeveller & Company, and later he became superintendent of construction for the Standard Sanitary Manufacturing Company of Pittsburgh.

In the fall of 1894 Mr. Jacobs opened an office in Morgantown, where he now stands virtually at the head of his profession in this part of West Virginia, as well as being the oldest architect in point of experience and continuous practice at Morgantown. Among many important buildings designed by and erected under the supervision of Mr. Jacobs are the Madeira (formerly the Franklin) Hotel; Woodburn Hall and an addition to Science Hall, of the University of West Virginia; chapter houses of the Sigma Chi, Beta Theta Pi, Kappa Alpha, Phi Sigma Kappa, Phi Kappa Psi and Phi Kappa Sigma fraternities at the State University; Farmers and Merchants Bank; the old post office at Morgantown, which was the first fire-proof building in this section of the state and is now occupied by the Union Savings and Trust Company; the plant of the Seneca Glass Company; plant of the Union Stopper Company; Fourth Ward school building; First Methodist Protestant Church, Morgantown; First Methodist Episcopal Church, Mount Morris, Pennsylvania; and residences of George C. Baker, William Moorhead, J. H. McDermott, J. C. McVicker, Francis Heermans, J. C. Frazier, and many others of the most modern type in Morgantown and vicinity. Mr. Jacobs is a member of the American Institute of Architects, his affiliation with that organization dating from May 24, 1902.

He married Miss M. Ella Wood, daughter of the late A. C. Wood, of Morgantown, and they have two children. Virginia is the wife of Allen Davis Bowie, of Wheeling, this state, and they have one child, Mary Eleanor. David Wood Jacobs is at the time of this writing, in 1921, a student in the Morgantown High School.

John M. Gregg. One of the widely known, prominent and popular men of Monongalia County is John Morton Gregg, county clerk and president of the Bank of Morgantown. For nearly half a century he has been closely identified with the business, civic and political history of this county and city, a man of initiative and energy, and a moving force for progress and the general welfare.

John M. Gregg was born in Washington County, Pennsylvania, November 18, 1865, but has spent all but the first eleven years of his life at Morgantown, to which city he came in 1876 with his parents. He is a son of Thomas M. and Margaret M. (Cooper) Gregg, both natives of Pennsylvania. Thomas M. Gregg was born in Washington County in 1836, and became a farmer there and afterward in Monongalia County, but later became a merchant. He married Margaret M. Cooper, who died June 1, 1911. They had children as follows: Oscar C.; Charles T., who is deceased; Ira L.; Mary E., who married Taylor N. Dawson; Jesse W.; Ross P.; Bessie, who married R. A. Wilbourne; and John M.

John M. Gregg acquired his education in the public schools of Pennsylvania and West Virginia, attending the university also in the latter state. He early took an interest in public affairs and so won the attention and confidence of those in authority that in 1888 he was appointed deputy clerk of the Circuit Court by Col. R. E. Fast, and served four years. In 1889 he was elected city auditor of Morgantown, and filled that office with entire efficiency. In [illegible] he was a candidate for the republican nomination for Circuit Court clerk, but was defeated by Hon. William E. Glasscock, later governor of West Virginia. Mr. Gregg served as deputy for Mr. Glasscock for two and a half years, when he resigned to become bookkeeper for the Morgantown [illegible] Improvement Company, which later became the Union Utilities Company. On January 1, 1898, while still with the above company, he was appointed secretary of the West Virginia State Geological Survey, which position he resigned January 1, 1903, in order to assume the duties of county clerk, to which office he had been elected in the previous fall. In 1908 he was re-elected county clerk, and has served continuously since his first election. He is very popular in this office because of his sterling integrity, his complete efficiency and his never failing courtesy.

Mr. Gregg has been a very loyal citizen of Morgantown and has given encouragement to many substantial local enterprises. He was one of the organizers of the Bank of Morgantown, an amply financed and carefully managed financial institution, and served as a member of its board of directors until 1919, in which year he was elected president, and so continues.

In 1889 Mr. Gregg married Miss Elizabeth M. Berkshire, a daughter of Nicholas W. and Virginia (Morgan) Berkshire, and they have two daughters and one son: Lucile C., John Morton, Jr., and Margaret. John M. Gregg, Jr., married Miss Stella Duncan, daughter of George H. Duncan of Clarksburg, West Virginia.

Mr. Gregg and his family are members of the First Methodist Episcopal Church at Morgantown, and they take a prominent part in church affairs and also in the city's pleasant social life. As a public man Mr. Gregg is often called upon to serve on benevolent boards and civic commissions, and fraternally is identified with such representative organizations as the Masons, the Odd Fellows, the Knights of Pythias and the Junior Order United American Mechanics, warm personal friendship often entering into these relations.

French D. Walton has effected a crystallization of his former years of newspaper experience by establishing in the City of Wheeling an important business enterprise, which he conducts under the title of the Wheeling Publicity Bureau. He was born in this city, October 23, 1875, and is a son of John and Allie (Ebbert) Walton. The latter died when French D. was but six weeks old. John Walton was born at Woodsfield, Ohio, in 1842, was reared and educated in the old Buckeye State and represented the same as a gallant soldier of the Union in the Civil war, shortly after the close of which he came to Wheeling, West Virginia, where eventually he became a leading member of the bar of Ohio County and where during the last fifteen years of his life he held the office of chief deputy of the Circuit Court for this county. He was a stanch democrat, was an earnest member of the Methodist Episcopal Church and was long and actively affiliated with the Masonic fraternity. He was one of the honored and well-known citizens of Wheeling at the time of his death in 1898.

At the inception of the Civil war John Walton enlisted in the Twenty-fifth Ohio Volunteer Infantry, and his active service covered virtually the entire period of the war, save for the intervals when he was incapacitated by wounds. His regiment took part in the various engagements of the Army of the Potomac, he was twice wounded, and as a result of the severe wounds he received at the battle of Gettysburg he suffered the loss of a part of his left foot. He vitalized his interests in his old comrades by his affiliation with the Grand Army of the Republic. Of his three county, this State; John B., and two that died in infancy.

On November 14, 1847, he married, as his second wife, Mariam Amos. (For family history see the sketch of her brother, Rev. Stephen Amos, of Marion county.) To the latter union have been born: Idna, who died February 15, 1856, at the age of six years; Ezra; George died May 8, 1854; Francis A. died April 2, 1854; Wesley died October 13, 1856; Mary at home; Emery, who resides on a part of the old home farm, a farmer by avocation, and William, who died March 22, 1881.

Ezra Shuman was educated in the subscription schools of his district; was reared on a farm, and has always followed farming as a means of securing a livelihood. He owns one hundred and thirty acres, a part of the old homestead, and located in the oil belt of the county. In addition to this, he is the owner of thirteen valuable building lots in the Arnett addition of Fairmont. Politically, Mr. Shuman is a republican, with strong inclination towards the Prohibition party.

CEPHAS JACOBS, director in the Second National Bank of Morgantown, president of the First National Building and Loan Association of Charleston, West Virginia, and a highly respected citizen of his county, was born January 8, 1826, in Allegany county, Maryland, and is a son of Gabriel and Margaret (Jackson) Jacobs.

Gabriel Jacobs was born in the State of New Jersey, on July 7, 1781, and when a young man emigrated to Allegany county, Maryland, where he died October 11, 1848. His union with Margaret Jackson, who was born May 27, 1783, and died October 20, 1855, resulted in the birth of twelve children, one of whom died in infancy.

Cephas Jacobs obtained such education as the common schools of his day, with their limited advantages and inadequate means, afforded. He was reared on a farm, and when striking out into the world on his own account, took naturally to farming. He followed this pursuit in the county of his nativity until 1853, when he removed to Preston county, this State, where he remained engaged in the same avocation until 1869, the date upon which he came to Monongalia county. He purchased a farm on the west side of the Monongahela river, opposite Morgantown, and was actively and successfully engaged in agricultural pursuits until 1891.

In July, 1892, he removed to Morgantown and now lives in comparative retirement in his handsomely built and tastefully arranged new home, on Foundry street, where he is enjoying the well-earned fruits of an industrious and active life.

He was one of the organizers and is the president of the First National Building and Loan Association of Charleston, this State, and is also a director in the Second National Bank of Morgantown.

In his political following, Mr. Jacobs is a republican, and being well known by the people of his district as a man of broad judgment, and of conscientious instincts, was elected for two terms by his party to the office of justice of the peace, in Grant district. He is a member of Morgan Lodge, No. 4, Free and Accepted Masons, and of the official Board of the Methodist Episcopal church.

On April 10, 1851, Mr. Jacobs and Margaret Ann Ravenscraft, daughter of Abner and Nancy (Corbus) Ravenscraft, of Hampshire county, West Virginia, were united in marriage. To this union have been born the following children: Thomas Perry, born January 27, 1852, married Miss Eugenia Alice Baush, and now resides in New Martinsville, Wetzel county, West Virginia. He graduated from the University of West Virginia in the class of 1874, studied law with the Hon. George C. Sturgiss, of Morgantown, was admitted to the bar in 1875, and for a short time practiced in partnership with Mr. Sturgiss, but removed to his present place of residence, where he successfully practiced his profession until he was elected to the office of Judge of the Circuit Court, in 1890. William L., born December 16, 1854, married September 13, 1877, Miss Nora Belle Koontz. He is a painter by trade, and now resides in Indianapolis, Indiana. James G. was born July 21, 1858, and died November 21, 1858. Margaret A. B. was born September 20, 1860, and on December 25, 1883, became the wife of Rev. Geo. M. Kelly, who was educated in the West Virginia University and in Drew Theological Seminary, and is now a minister of the Methodist Episcopal church situated at Smithfield, Pa. Elmer F. was born June 11, 1866. On March 7, 1895, he married Ella Wood, and now resides with his parents, and is an architect by profession.

ELIHU H. RIDGEWAY, Justice of the Peace in Union district, and a representative farmer of the same, is a son of Joel and Garusha (Dawson) Ridgeway and was born in Union district, Monongalia county, West Virginia, February 14, 1824. The Ridgeway family, of which Elihu H. is a descendant, is of Scotch-Irish origin. His great-grandfather, Lot, was one of the brothers who came to this country prior to the war of the Revolution. He purchased a large tract of land in the vicinity of Smithfield, Fayette county, Pennsylvania, and made a two-third payment on it and when prepared to make the final one-third payment continental money became almost worthless, and he was unable to pay for the land, and thus lost it all. He then removed to Greene county, where he remained a few years and then came to what is now Union district, where he purchased several hundred acres of land and became a pioneer settler and farmer in that section. He married a Miss Ellison, and one of his sons was Joel Ridgeway, the grandfather of Elihu H. He settled in Union district, and as a necessity pursued the arts of husbandry. His death occurred in 1802, and was occasioned by being accidentally shot while hunting bear in the Cheat mountains. Joel, grandfather, married a Miss Horton, and two children were the issue of their union: Elihu and Joel. Elihu moved to the State of Indiana, where he died. Joel, father, was born October 11, 1800, and died July 7, 1859. Farming was his avocation, owning three hundred acres in Union district. He also dealt rather extensively in coal in Morgantown, supplying the local custom. He married a Miss Dawson, a daughter of John Dawson of this county. Twelve children were the progeny of this marital union: Eliza, deceased, was the wife of Joseph Weaver of this county; Sylvester, deceased; Dorcas, wife of Joseph L. Hill, of Union district; George D.; Susan, widow of Oliver McShane, of Pittsburg, Pennsylvania; Joel, a farmer of Allamakee county, Iowa; William, a farmer on a part of the old homestead; Elihu H.; Elizabeth, wife of David Beard; Mary, married Francis Costello; James and Leroy, both deceased.

Mr. Ridgeway has followed farming as his life vocation on a part of the original homestead uated nature as becomes perception of theories enigmatically complex, I am more than averse to attaching any part of credulity to these traditions. Yet they are legends of which Kentucky and Mason county might well be proud and in that sense are they here delineated.

In the latter part of the Twelfth Century Prince Madoc of Wales sailed westward with a number of his followers in ten ships and were never heard of again. So much of this legend is well founded in history. From here, however, it becomes mythological. The Welsh Colony reached the Gulf of Mexico, sailed across its placid waters and entered the Mississippi River. Continuing up the Father of Waters, the Colony lost itself in the interior of North America and here established themselves as a race of highly intelligent, industrious peoples. Even this part of the tradition has been well authenticated by more than one report of Indians found in the United States in early days who spoke Welsh.[1] Another verification was added when six skeletons were found in 1799 near Jeffersonville, each of which had a breast plate of brass, each with the Welsh coat-of-arms, the Mermaid and Harp with a Latin inscription.[2] The voluminous work of the American Bureau of Ethnology has established beyond doubt that there were American Indians in very early days who were familiar with the Welsh language, so even this second part of the tradition cannot be dismissed easily.

The concluding part of the tradition has to do with the "White Indians" mentioned so many times in studies of prehistoric man in Kentucky. This race is supposed to have inhabitated the country in question until they were at last destroyed by their enemies, presumably the Indian of the type we know.

The Welsh, or white tribe of Indians, contend believers in the tradition,[3] moved with their ships up the Ohio River from the Mississippi and settled throughout the Ohio Valley regions.[4] Here with an intelligence far greater than that of the savage Indian, they cultivated their fields, establishing a thriving community life. In due course of time they were beset by their enemies who had been provoked to warfare because of the trespassing nature of the Welsh. In such overwhelming hordes did the red Indians, thought to have been the Iroquois tribes, descend upon the white Indians that it was necessary for them to build fortifications for their defense. These they did build, and many are the ruins attributed to this industry.

On a farm owned by Samuel Henderson, two miles north of Mayslick, Mason county, there were in August, 1827, distinct traces of ancient fortifications. The principal fort contained about one acre of ground; the others were not more than half so large. The walls of these entrenchments were quite plain; as were the marks of trenches or subterranean passages leading to Lee's Creek, three hundred yards distant—apparently tunneled to provide a supply of water, secure from danger to a blockading enemy. On about one hundred acres of land around, the soil to a depth of one to three feet was mixed with shells, flints, potter's ware, and bones of various description—among the latter several entire human skeletons, besides fragments of others, lying without regularity as if they had fallen in battle and had been hastily and carelessly buried. The potter's ware, in shape somewhat resembling articles now in common use, was made of muscle shells and stones, pulverized and thoroughly mixed; the vessels were carved on the outside, and remarkably strong, notwithstanding the exposure to the elements for centuries. All is conjecture as to the age of these fortifications—the trees in the several forts and upon the walls being quite as large as in the surrounding forests.[1]

A council chamber of the aborigines was plainly visible as late as 1823 on the east side of a farm owned by Samuel Frazee, one and one-half miles northeast of Germantown, Mason county. It was sunk or excavated about eight feet beneath the surrounding surface. Around the sides of this large room were recesses in the walls, forming seats for the council. Here the chieftains of a hundred battles held their councils of war. Mounds and fortifications surrounded, but not immediately, this council chamber. Stone axes, trinkets, and implements were found in and around these ancient works. But the Indian had no knowledge

Emphraim Frazee + 2nd wife
Emphraim removed from Elizabithtowne, New Jersey in 1760 to Westmorland Co., Pa (Frazee Gen. p. 222).
He died in 1776. Frances Hamilton in ther Frazee genealogy*(p. 342) writes "The [Ephraim] Frazee family was living in Western, Pa. at the time of the father's death, then later moved to Sandy Glades on the Big Kanahwa, Va. Their locality I am told is now in Pa. --- after several ---- trips to Ky., he [Samuel Frazee] returned to the Big Kanahwa and married Rebeca Jacobs. pg. 353 says " Sandy Glades, now in Pa. then claimed by Virginia". Dr. Lewis Jacob Frazee (p. 494) says that after the Battle of Point Pleasant, when peace had been established, Samuel Frazee with members of his father's family, under his charge, "moved to the Big Kanahwa"
It may be that the Jacobs family lived ~~sty~~ the Point Pleasant
(Big Kanahwa) area, but the Frazee family definately

Letter from Ralph L. Schroeder, Referring to Donald J. Barton, Long Beach, CA 1968, he said "I suspect that Samuel Frazee + Rebecca Jacobs the Pennsylvaniatheir Marriage took place near the Pennsylvania-Virginia border (now W. Va). at any rate Rebecca (1769-1837) died in Mason Co., Ky. as did her husband.
I only know that Rebecca had one brother and one sister, no doubt she had other brothers, also. I have noted that there was a Jacobs family that had roots in Maryland, but I have not been able to tie Rebecca in with them."
Owen Hawley said that american poet Nicholas Vachel Lindsay (1879-1931) whose mother was Esther Catharine Frazee Lindsay (1848-1922) was a descendant of Samuel Frazee (1753-1849) who married 1787 Rebecca Frazee (1769-1837). (July 1999)

DESCENDANT CHART - Version 2.3

1 - Jacob JACOBS - 1051
Born - Abt 1730
Died - Abt Apr 1803 Harrison Co, (W) Va
Note - Jacob Jacobs is first known in the records from his marriage to Hannah Johnson 28 Jan 1761 in Monmouth Co. NJ. Hannah appears to be the daughter of Benjamin Johnson and Sarah (See NJ Colonial Documents, Calendar of Wills 1781-1785). His Will lists sons John, Daniel, William, and James and daughters Rachel Lemon (William), Elizabeth Cravat, Hannah Jacobs, Rebeckah Cole, and Lydia Thomson. The Will was proved March 23, 1784.
We believe that this is our Jacob because the Gifford's and Harbert's are in Monmouth Co. NJ at that time as well. Jacob's daughter Mary, married John Gifford, and Hannah married Thomas Harbert.
Jacob is believed to have moved to Monongalia Co. W Va prior to the Revolutionary War. He was granted land on Decker's Creek, having settled there prior to the War. (See Monongalia Court Records by Melba Zinn, The Monongalia Story, and the History of Monongalia Co.) He was a member of the Forks of Cheat Baptist Church.
A family history states that the Jacob's were descendants of Nicholas Jacob of Hingham, Mass-a colonist who arrived there abou 1633 from Hingham, England. Although a number of early books have been consulted, no relationship has been established. Other Jacobs families worth pursuing include John Jacobs, an early settler of Anne Arundel Co MD, and John and Richard Jacobs of Perkeiomen Creek, Schylkill Co, PA. The latter's descendants settled in Cecil Co. MD. They are believed to be descendents of Richard Jacobs, brother of John of Hingham. Although a number of individuals have pursued Jacob's roots, nothig has been found earlier than his marriage to Hannah in NJ.
Jacob died in Harrison Co W Va in 1803 and his will lists children William, Jacob, Catherine (Bennett), Mary (Gifford), Rebecca (Frazer), Hannah (Harbert), and Sarah (Plum). He also lists his grandson, Jacob, who he raised from infancy. (This is the son of Joseph who died about 1792, presumably in Monongalia Co.)
Individuals researching this line include: Brick Brewer, 4312 Warren St NW, Washington DC 20016 (Jacob1, Joseph2, Jacob 3); Earl Balsley,1694 Green Valley Dr., Beavercreek OH45432 (Jacob1, Joseph2, Elijah3); The Jacobs Journal, Dale Jacobs (Ed), 8403 Finley Ct., Springfield, VA 22153 (Most of these are descendants of John of Hingham but they welcome all Jacobs and queries are accepted-no cost-donation requested)

Note - John Jacobs was born in Monongalia Co. (W) VA. Research from land documents revealed that his mother was Jemima Bennett,daughter of Charles Bennet(t), and his father Joseph Jacobs, the son of Jacob Jacobs. The following includes known information, then questions to be answered.

Charles Bennet(t) (ca 1730-1818) married Martha Collins(ca 1730-1815) in 1753 in Baltimore.

They moved to Berkeley Co (W) Va, then went on to Monongalia Co in 1778. The parents moved on to Madison Twp, Scioto Co OH with 7 of their 11 children ca. 1800.

The children (10 known) include: Priscilla, Anne, Catherine, Robert, Nancy, Jemima, Charles, John, Caleb, and Thomas. Those we are concerned with are JEMIMA, b. ca. 1764 who married Joseph JACOBS first, then Leonard Southworth. ROBERT, b 1759 who married CATHERINE Jacobs; and JOHN b. 1766 who married Elizabeth.

Charles Bennet(t) is listed in the 1782 census of Monongalia Co. JACOB JACOBS is also listed in that census. Jacob Jacobs died in 1803 (Harrison Co. Will 3 Mar 1803). There were 9 in the family in 1782 and his will lists 7 children (no wife). Those children include: WILLIAM and JACOB, sons; Rebecca Frazer, Mary Gifford, Sarah Plum, Caty BENNETT, and Hannah Harbart, daughters.

Now, in Scioto Co OH, JOHN JACOBS married Susannah Trexler in 1809, JACOB JACOBS married Hannah Utt in 1810; and PATCY JACOBS married Charles Monroe in 1810. These are the only Jacobs during this early period in Scioto Co. John was born in 1788 in VA. and Jacob abt 1792. (note: Jemima Bennett married Leonard Southworth after the death of Joseph JACOBS. The land records indicate he died in 1792. No marriage has been found for Jemima and Leonard.

The 1820 census shows HANNAH JACOBS living next to and in the middle of the BENNETT brothers and sisters(Scioto Co OH). JOHN was living just across the border in Jackson Co. I have not found Patcy. HANNAH had 4 children in the household, two under the age of 10.

Finally, ELIZABETH TREXLER, sister of John Jacobs wife, married CALEB C. BENNET(T), the son of JOHN and ELIZABETH BENNET(T); grandson of CHARLES BENNET(T). (in Scioto Co)

At this point, the children of Joseph and Jemima Jacobs are: John (1788-1864), Benjamin (1788-1860+), Martha (Patsy) (1790- ?), and Jacob (1792-1815/16). Elijah (1794/95-1868) appears be another child of Jemima's but his paternity is in question since he was born after the death of Joseph and is listed on land records as a witness but not as a direct heir of Joseph.

Paternity for John Jacobs was established from court records in Scioto Co, OH and Harrison Co, W VA. On 30 Oct 1816, Leonard Southworth and Jemima, John Jacobs and wife Susanna, and Charles Monroe and wife, Patcy formerly Jacobs sold 170 acres of land in Monongalia Co to Benjamin Jacobs. It was witnessed by James Fields (husband of Mary Plum, Joseph Jacob's niece); Elijah Jacobs, who's paternity is in question but is considered the son of Jemima and Joseph Jacobs even though Joseph died two years before Elijah's birth; and Caleb Bennet, Jemima's brother. The Deed was filed in Monongalia Co.

Note - Elijah Jacobs was supposedly born in Jackson Co OH in 1795. However, I believe that he was born in Monongalia Co (W) VA and moved to the Jackson/Scioto/Pike Co area as a very young child with his mother Jemima Bennett Jacobs and her new husband Leonard Southworth. Elijah's father is unknown at this time. Joseph Jacobs, Jemima's husband, died in 1792 according to court records filed in Monongalia Co about 1816 concerning a transfer of his land and a dispute with the Plum family over ownership. Jemima's brothers moved to Scioto Co OH slightly earlier than 1800, according to the History of Scioto Co OH, by Evans, 1904 and other Scioto Co publications. Elijah moved back to Monongalia Co after the War of 1812 and remained there until his death.

Note - Robert and Catherine had 11 children-only eight have been identified.
In 1814 (Pioneer Ohio Newspapers 1802-1818) Catherine Bennett writes a letter in answer to her husband, Robert Bennett, in which she says she has left him for the third time because of his adultery and abuses. She says she continues to return to him because "my heart yearned for my poor children; I raised eleven, for my husband Robert Bennett, one is not, and the rest are sorrowing my abuses intermixed with their own."
Chancery Records of Scioto Co OH-Divorce-29 Oct 1814 filed 20 May. Robert Bennett vs Katherine Bennett. Said his wife Katherine (also spelled with a C) left bed and board without provocation, was so extremely cruel with him and family that life became a burden, family insecure. She summoned, he didn't show, she to recober of him the costs $1.94.

Chancery Records Scioto Co OH 1821-1847-Catherine Bennett vs Robert Bennett 4 may 1825 filed on 5 July 1823. She says she was married 38-39 years ago to Robert in Monongalia Co, VA, since then they moved to Ohio where they have ever since lived. She has been faithful, they accumulated estate of $4000-$5000 to support them in life. had by him a large family of children. Eight years ago, Roert, without any cause, commenced an adulterous intercourse with Rebecca Devers, an unmarried woman, by whom he hath had a number of illegitimate children. She ws driven from her family and the house of Robert, denied all support, thrown upon the world in her old age. Case dropped at his costs.

Birth Place: Virginia

CHILD NOTES: Benjamin JACOBS
General(1):

CHILD NOTES: John JACOBS
General(1): John Jacobs was born in Monongalia Co. (W) VA. Research from land documents revealed that his mother was Jemima Bennett,daughter of Charles Bennet(t), and his father Joseph Jacobs, the son of Jacob Jacobs. The following includes known information, then questions to be answered.

Charles Bennet(t) (ca 1730-1818) married Martha Collins(ca 1730-1815) in 1753 in Baltimore.

They moved to Berkeley Co (W) Va, then went on to Monongalia Co in 1778. The parents moved on to Madison Twp, Scioto Co OH with 7 of their 11 children ca. 1800.

The children (10 known) include: Priscilla, Anne, Catherine, Robert, Nancy, Jemima, Charles, John, Caleb, and Thomas. Those we are concerned with are JEMIMA, b. ca. 1764 who married Joseph JACOBS first, then Leonard Southworth. ROBERT, b 1759 who married CATHERINE Jacobs; and JOHN b. 1766 who married Elizabeth.

Charles Bennet(t) is listed in the 1782 census of Monongalia Co. JACOB JACOBS is also listed in that census. Jacob Jacobs died in 1803 (Harrison Co. Will 3 Mar 1803). There were 9 in the family in 1782 and his will lists 7 children (no wife). Those children include: WILLIAM and JACOB, sons; Rebecca Frazer, Mary Gifford, Sarah Plum, Caty BENNETT, and Hannah Harbart, daughters.

Now, in Scioto Co OH, JOHN JACOBS married Susannah Trexler in 1809, JACOB JACOBS married Hannah Utt in 1810; and PATCY JACOBS married Charles Monroe in 1810. These are the only Jacobs during this early period in Scioto Co. John was born in 1788 in VA. and Jacob abt 1792.

(note: Jemima Bennett married Leonard Southworth after the death of Joseph JACOBS. The land records indicate he died in 1792. No marriage has been found for Jemima and Leonard.

Finally, ELIZABETH TREXLER, sister of John Jacobs wife, married CALEB C. BENNET(T), the son of JOHN and ELIZABETH BENNET(T); grandson of CHARLES BENNET(T). (in Scioto Co).

At this point, the children of Joseph and Jemima Jacobs are: John (1788-1864), Benjamin (1788-1860+), Martha (Patsy) (1790- ?), and Jacob (1792-1815/16). Elijah (1794/95-1868) appears be another child of Jemima's but his paternity is in question since he was born after the death of Joseph and is listed on land records as a witness but not as a direct heir of Joseph.

Paternity for John Jacobs was established from court records in Scioto Co, OH and Harrison Co, W VA. On 30 Oct 1816, Leonard Southworth and Jemima, John Jacobs and wife Susanna, and Charles Monroe and wife, Patcy formerly Jacobs sold 170 acres of land in Monongalia Co to Benjamin Jacobs. It was witnessed by James Fields (husband of Mary Plum, Joseph Jacob's niece); Elijah Jacobs, who's paternity is in question but is considered the son of Jemima and Joseph Jacobs even though Joseph died two years before Elijah's birth; and Caleb Bennet, Jemima's brother. The Deed was filed in Monongalia Co.

Caryl,

I believe that Hannah married Isaac Hagle in [West] Virginia on 11 Oct 1819. Hannah's first husband, Thomas Harbert jr., died in November 1818. At that time, three of their enine children were married and Hannah had four grandchildren. A couple of these married children had moved from northern [West] Virginia. Thomas Harbert III was living in Champaign County, Ohio. There was a major disagreement between Hannah and her children which resulted in the children filing a law suit in Chancery Court against Hannah and Isaac to divide Thomas Jr.'s estate. "Thomas Harbert departed from life sometime in 1818 in the county of Harrison intestate and left an estate of $2019.99 in slaves cattle horses, etc." [I received this citation from a West Virginia Harbert researcher and do not have the specifics at this time] This issue took years to resolve. Later Hannah moved to live with Thomas Jr. and his family in Champaign County, Ohio. She died on 12 December 1842. I have visited her grave site in Buck Creek Cemetery near Urbana, OH.

Thomas Harbert Jr. purchased 112 A of ld on Jones Run 21 Mar 1791. This ld deeded to him by hs brother Samuel for 10 lbs VA currency.

I have not found where I found the information on Jacob's heritage. What I did find in my notes is simply, "Hannah's father, Jacob Jacobs, was a descendant of the Dutch who established a presence in New York. Jacob was married to Hannah Johnson in 1761 and settled at Deckers Creek in 1776." I would like to develop firmer information on Jacob and would appreciate anything that you have.

June, The info given to you by Vern Paul on Martha (Patsy) Jacobs Monroe is consistent with info I have received from Dave Morgan nico77@juno.com

I note that he is unaware of info about William Jacobs who was a son of Jacob Jacobs the elder who died in 1803. William is listed in the will. Info I received from Madelyn Hahn suggests that the William Jacobs who moved to KY from "Sandy Glades" on the Kanawha then onto Brown Co OH is probably this William since the author of the query mentioned that he had sisters Mrs Harper of Champaign OH--whom I believe is actually Hannah Jacobs Harbert and Mrs. Frazer of Ky who would be Rebecca Jacobs Frazer. Can't prove this though I think the clues are pretty convincing.

I might also note that Jemima had another son Elijah Jacobs b. 1795 in "Jackson Co OH" (this was actually Scioto or Adams at this time). This was apparently before she married Leonard Southworth. Ellijah moved back to Monongalia Co, I believe, after serving in the War of 1812. He is listed as her son in an 1853 Scioto Co partition record.
He is not listed as an heir of Joseph Jacobs in an 1818 lawsuit but witnessed the papers.
Interesting huh?? Thats about it. If you find out anything more on the above William

I would sure like to know. Caryl

SOLVING THE PUZZLE
OF WILLIAM JACOBS (& WIFE SYBIL)
IN BROWN CO., OHIO 1802

By Madelyn L. Hahn
Los Angeles, California

Putting the puzzle together began for me by placing a query in the Clermont, Co., Ohio Genealogical Society's newsletter concerning my ancestress Delilah Jacobs who had been married to John Edwards of Brown Co., Ohio, and had moved over to Clermont Co. in the 1840's. The only person to answer that query was Margaret I. Ketron of Eaton, Ohio, who descends from Thornton Jacobs of Brown Co. who married Merribeh Howland.

Margaret and I began a correspondence and a search of the Jacobses which has uncovered more than we ever imagined. She already had done much research on the various Jacobs families in Brown Co., so soon we were branching out to Mason Co., Kentucky, where we found William Jacobs living in 1795 in the Lee's Creek area (FHL film #8140: Mason Co. Ky. Tax Records 1792-1809). William moved over to Adams/Brown Co. in 1802 and was in Byrd Township in 1803, as shown by male enumeration lists of Adams Co.

This William and his wife, Sybil, seemed to be likely parents of our Thornton and Delilah, and yet we wondered about the Sarah Jacobs with children nearby (1820 Brown Co. Census, Page 340). Sarah had been Head of Household in Mason Co. also (1810 Census, Mason Co. Ky., Page 54). Only after discovering a wonderful Bible record did we prove what we had suspected: that Sarah was indeed the parent of our Thornton and Delilah, and with more research we proved that all the Jacobses very early in Brown Co. are related – except William and Sybil. Where did they fit in? Perhaps William was recorded in the Bible as born 1770? Thus began our research.

Sybil's family, the Littles, seemed to be the place to start because we knew that Sybil had testified in court for her sister Rhoda Rilea's application for a widow's pension in 1839 (Brown Co. Court of Common Pleas, Sept. Term 1839). Rhoda Little and Richard Rilea had married 19 June 1793 at Morgantown (W.) Virginia (Monongalia Co.) and had settled in Brown Co., Ohio, where Richard Rilea died in August,1839 (Abstracts of Revolutionary War Pension Files, Virgil D. White, Page 2891). In her affidavit, Sybil said she did not attend her sister's wedding, but was living about 10 miles from where they set up housekeeping in 1793. This showed that William and Sybil were in Monongalia Co., W. Virginia; however, we thought they were only passing through on their way to Kentucky and Ohio. Further research turned up some Little/Littell families in Monongalia Co. and a William Jacobs on tax records who was there from 1793 to 1796 (FHL Film # 464,965: Monongalia Co. West Virginia Misc. Records, Item II, Land Taxes).

We had learned of a Jacob Jacobs of Monongalia Co. (W.) Virginia being researched by Caryl Simpson of Pekin, Illinois. Caryl's chart showed a son, William, with sisters, Rebecca Frazer and Hannah Harbert. This seemed similar to a query placed in 1966 by a Ralph Schroeder in the "Ohio Records & Pioneer Families" (Vol. 7, Pg. 95) asking about a "Wm. Jacobs of Brown Co. Ohio, ca. 1800; came from Sandy Glades – had sisters Rebecca Frazee (Mason Co. Ky.) and Mrs. Harper (Urbana, O. area)". For a long time we had thought this query was about a William Jacobs born ca. 1800 until one day we saw that it could mean a William Jacobs of, or living in, Brown Co. ca. 1800. Suddenly there was the possibility that William of Brown Co. could be the son of Jacob Jacobs of Monongalia Co., W. Virginia. Maybe William and Sybil actually lived there and were not just passing through.

Pieces of the puzzle were coming together. A Harbert researcher told us that Jacob Jacobs' daughter, Hannah Harbert, had indeed moved to near Urbana (Champaign Co., Ohio) and had died there ca. 1842.

Margaret tried to contact Ralph Schroeder who had placed the 1966 query, but was told that no such person lived in his town, Marietta, Ohio. With more effort and persistence she found someone who had some of the deceased Mr. Schroeder's papers and they sent them to us. In a letter written in 1967 in reply to a response to his query, Mr. Schroeder gave the source for his information about William Jacobs and his sisters as Frances Frazee Hamilton's book, Ancestral Lines of the Doniphan, Frazee, and Hamilton Families (Greenfield, Ind.: Wm. Mitchell Printing Co., 1928).

Our next step was to find that book. My "computer savvy" daughter knew that all of the holdings of the Los Angeles Public Library system were available online. When asked to look for the book she found that it was in the Genealogical Dept. of the main library downtown. What we found in the book was an account written in 1886 by a Dr. Lewis Frazee about his grandparents, Samuel Frazee and Rebecca Jacobs Frazee. The following are some statements of Dr. Frazee:

> On pages 351-353: "Samuel … came in the early days from New Jersey to Virginia, thence to Kentucky in 1778. He returned to Sandy Glades, now in Pennsylvania, then claimed by Virginia, and married Miss Rebecca Jacobs."

> On page 502: "My grandmother, Rebecca Jacobs Frazee … died in 1837, at the age of about sixty-eight. … I remember to have seen one of her brothers, Uncle William Jacobs, who lived at the time in Brown County, Ohio, a neighbor to Uncle Thomas S. Doniphan. I remember to have seen one of her sisters also, Mrs. Harper, from in or near Urbana, Ohio. She and her daughter, Anna, visited my grandmother some time before her death."

A look at the 1830 Brown Co. Census index verified that a Thomas S. Doniphan was a neighbor of William Jacobs, both listed on Page 406 in Byrd Twp.

At this point, we knew we had solved the puzzle – that William Jacobs surely was the son of Jacob and Hannah (Johnson) Jacobs of Monongalia Co., (W.) Virginia. Jacob Jacobs, we knew, had settled on Deckers Creek (now near Morgantown) in 1776 or earlier (FHL Film # 843,818: Monongalia Co., W. Va. Land Surveys, 1781-1861, Book II, Pg. 232). Jacob and his wife Hannah became members of the Forks of Cheat Baptist Church by baptism: she in 1781 and he on 3 Jan. 1782. In 1802, Hannah Jacobs was given a letter of dismission from the church to any other church of like faith (FHL Film # 163,902: Misc. Records of Monongalia Co., and Forks of Cheat Baptist Church Minute Book No. 1, Pgs. 4, 22, 23). Perhaps they left the church and moved to Harrison Co. where their daughter, Hannah Harbert, lived at the time. Jacob made his Will there dated 3 Mar. 1803 in which he mentions his son William and daughters Rebecca Frazer and Hannah Harbert, among others (FHL Film # 163,721: Abstracts of Harrison Co., W. Va., Wills, Book I, Pgs. 160, 357).

East of where the Jacobses lived was the Sandy Glades area which has not been located exactly, but was in the extreme north-east corner of W. Virginia (then Monongalia Co., now Preston Co.), or perhaps just across the border in the area of Pennsylvania that was then part of Monongalia Co. The Big Sandy Creek and the Little Sandy flow through that area and join the Cheat River. The father of Samuel Frazee, Ephraim, lived at a placed called Sandy Creek Glades with his "numerous off-spring … living near him". Land records show that he owned land on Sandy Creek in 1775 (The Monongalia Story II, the Pioneers by Earl L. Core, Pgs. 47 & 48).

Now that we have put enough pieces of the puzzle together to verify that William and Sybil are not of our Jacobs family lines, Margaret Ketron and I will leave further research to those who descend from their children:

James Thomas Jacobs who married Isabelle Feely
Rebecca Jacobs who married William Higbee
Joseph Jacobs who married Elizabeth Butt
Ephraim Jacobs who married Elizabeth Reeves
Levi Jacobs who married Mary L. Beaty
Eliza Jane Jacobs who married John T. Reeves
William J. Jacobs who married Zoa Wilkes and possibly others, including Hannah Jacobs who married Alexander Feely tract of land in A on Brush Cr, bounded by George Hains' tract, William Downing's tract, Hibb's tract, about 100 acres. Signed - Nath^{l} Massie, Susan Massie. Wit - Joseph Taylor. Susan relinquished her right of dower; the deed was acknowledged by both Massies in Ross County. Recorded Jan 19, 1808.

Page 191. Jan 2, 1808 from William Crawford and Marthew, his wife, of A, to Stephen Bolden of A, for $300, all that tract of 150 acres of land in A on Hills fork of Eagle Cr, it being a part of a tract of 2800 acres granted to Nathaniel Massie by a patent from the US, and a part of said tract conveyed to said William Crawford from Nathaniel Massie by deed dated May 16, 1801, and bounded by William Crawford's survey, the original line of the old survey. Signed - William Crawford, Marthew (+ her mark) Crawford. Wit - John R Connell, Jas Curry. Recorded Jan 20, 1808.

Page 192. Jan 20, 1808 from Darby Sullivan of A, to Jesse Eastburn of A, for $210, a tract of 66 acres of land in A on Seder Run, bounded by John Philips, being part of a tract entered in the name of Leven Powell. Also, Darby Sullivan grants Jesse Eastburn 1 brown horse 8 years old 14.5 hands high, 1 sorrel horse 8 years old 15 hands high, 1 dark gray horse 5 years old about 15 hands high, 1 old black horse, 2 brindled cows, 1 brown and white Muley heifer, 1 white heifer, 1 black and white bull, 1 cupboard and furniture, 2 feather beds and furniture or bedding, 2 bedsteads & cords, 1 table, 1 pot, 1 Dutch oven and lead [lid?], 1 spider & lead, 1 flat pan, 1 wagon, 4 pair of gears and 1 chain. If Sullivan pays Eastburn $210 by Apr 1, 1809 with interest, then this indenture becomes void. Signed - Darby (Darby his mark) Sulvan. Wit - David Deanips. Recorded Jan 20, 1808.

Page 193. Jan 23, 1808 from John Hill of A, to John Wood of A, for $40, 1 cupboard with the furniture therein, 1 dining table, 1 small table with a drawer in it, 2 chests, 6 chairs, 2 feather bed bedding and furniture, 1 bedstead and cord, 1 tea chest, 1 umbrella, 1 pot, 1 Dutch oven, and 1 skillet, all the shoemaker tools & lasts now belonging to me. If Hill pays Wood $40 by Jan 23, 1810 with interest, then this indenture becomes void. Signed - John Hill. Wit - Joseph Darlinton, N Terril, David Kindel. Recorded Jan 23, 1808.

Page 194. Oct 7, 1807 from Nathaniel Massie and Susan, his wife, of Ross County, to John Lodwick of A, for 52 £ 10 shillings KY money, all that tract of about 300 acres of land in A on the east fork of Eagle Cr, bounded by Aaron Moore's tract of 200 acres, McGatte's tract, being part of a tract of 2800 acres entered and surveyed in the name of said Massie and granted to him by a patent from the US. Signed - Nath: Massie, Susan Massie. Wit - Joseph Tiffin. The deed was acknowledged by both Massies in Scioto Twp, Ross County. Recorded Jan 25, 1808.

Page 195. Aug 22, 1807 from Leonard Cole and Nancy, his wife, of A, to Henry Sidwell of Mason County. Kentucky, for $138, all that tract of 44 acres of land on Eagle Cr in A, and bounded by James Baird's survey, David Waldron, the same being part of a survey made in the name of Hickman and Holliday, #671. Signed - Leonard Cole, Nancy Cole. Wit - James Scott, James Cole. Nancy relinquished her right of dower. Recorded Feb 3, 1808.

Page 196. Nov 24, 1807 from Nathaniel Massie and Susan, his wife, of Ross County, to John McIntire of A, for $350, all that tract of land in A on the west fork of Brush Cr, bounded by James Montgomery's tract, about 200 acres, being part of a tract entered in the name of John Harvie. Signed - Nath Massie, Susan Massie. Wit - Joseph Taylor. The deed was acknowledged by both Massies in Ross County. Susan relinquished her dower right. Recorded Feb 4, 1808.

* Page 197. Adams County, Huntington Twp. I, Nathan Ellis, a JP for A, certify that, as per the testimony of Joseph Stewart, William Jacobs, & Asael Brookover, taken and subscribed before me, Jeney, a black woman, together with her 3 children, David, Tempy, and Jacob, formerly belonging to the heirs of John Matchlor, is to all intents and purposes, free from and after the time they were held as slaves by John Guttridge in Ohio. Signed Aug 8, 1807 - Nathan Ellis. Recorded Feb 11, 1808.

Page 198. Oct 17, 1807 from Nathaniel Fox of Stafford County, Virginia by Enock Mason, his attorney in fact, to David Tharp, now of A. Thomas Vowles and John Massey, former agents for Nathaniel Fox, by their deed dated Jun 12, 1806, conveyed to the said David Tharp a certain tract of land in A containing 157.5 acres. Vowles and Massey failed to have the power of attorney under which they did the same, recorded. This indenture also witnesses that the said Nathaniel Fox by Enock Mason, his attorney in fact, for $236.25 to Vowls and Massey in hand paid, which is hereby acknowledged, grants to David Tharp, all that tract of land as described in the conveyance from Vowles and Massey to the said Tharp. Signed - Enock Mason. Wit - Nathan Edwards, Thomas Hatfield. The deed was acknowledged by Enock Mason in A. Recorded Feb 15, 1808.

Page 199. I, Isaac Shepherd of A, appoint Jacob Shepherd of A, to be my true and lawful attorney, to sell all my part of the salt works on the west fork of Eagle Cr in A. Signed Feb 4, 1808 - Isaac Shepherd. Wit - none. Recorded Feb 16, 1808.

Dear Linda,

I just returned from a wonderful trip to Ohio from my home outside Portland, Oregon, and found a book at the Brown county OH Genealogical Society which you had compiled about their cemeteries. I was particularly interested in the Jacobs Family Cemetery, and even more interested after reading your note that you are related to most of the persons buried there.

I am descended through Missouri Elizabeth Feely, her parents John Jackson Feely and Martha Daugherty, and John's parents, Alexander Feely and Hannah Jacobs. And this is where you come in. I was able to find a lot of information on Alexander's siblings, and was amazed at how they intermarried with the Jacobs family. It does seem easier to track the Jacobs, even though the name is more common, than the Feely's. So many of the Feely family were daughters and when married, the name changes. I also find a number of the people in this family in Brown county, seem to die at a young age. I've been assured it is likely cholera rather than a genetic thing, but it is worrisome in trying to locate records.

No! LHW

I located Hester Feely marrying a man named David Nickison in Clermont county, and see that you have their daughter No Elizabeth in the Jacobs cemetery. She is the Elizabeth J ane (Nickison) Warner. Her brother William and wife, Leticia Parker, likely also died young (aft 1853) and left two of their sons with family members. But I have not found graves for them. I also have not found gravesites for John Jackson and Martha (Daugherty) Feely. They also died in the mid-1850's. I have a small piece of paper which was handed down to me, and it says that it was copied from Grandma Jacobs' Bible. It lists Grandma as Elizabeth and her husband as William Jacobs. It notes all the daughters and dates of birth and of John and Martha Feely and gives the dates of death of them as well. But I had a difficult time tracking down "Grandma Jacobs" because instead of Elizabeth, she is apparently known as Sybil. But it does explain all the daughters with the name Elizabeth.

I'm happy to share any information I have Linda, and would like to correspond one way or the other with you. I did get your address from the really nice people at the Brown county society after seeing the cemetery book.

Sincerely,

Eileen Chamberlin

Letter in Brown county, Ohio Gen Soc files from Bruce Earnheart, 1075 S. Jefferson St., #205, Arlington VA 22204, dated 8 May 1992:
(last paragraph) I also descend from the following known Brown County residents. Any assistance you can provide with regard to their families and forbears would, likewise, be greatly appreciated: John W. Jacobs and Hannah Hawk; William Jacobs and Zoa Wilks; William Jacobs and Sybil Little; John Wilks and Elizabeth Linn; Abraham Hawk and Nancy Dixon; William Dixon and Griselda Ann Bell; John Hawk and Susannah Krebs. Other note states: "It is said William came from Sandy Glades on Kanawha, W Va."

From Brown county OH newsletter, article written by Madelyn L Hahn of Los Angeles, CA:
Margaret (Ketron) had already done much research on the various Jacobs families in Brown county, so soon we were branching out to Mason county, Kentucky, where we found William Jacobs living in 1795 in the Lee's Creek area (FHL film #8140: Mason county Kentucky Tax Records 1792-1809). William moved over to Adams/Brown county in 1802 and was in Byrd Township in 1803, as shown by male enumeration lists of Adams county. (Cont'd) Sybil's family, the Littles, seemed to be the place to start because we knew that Sybil had testified in court for her sister Rhoda Rilea's application for a widow's pension in 1839 (Brown county Court of Common Pleas, Sept Term 1839). Rhoda Little and Richard Rilea had married 19 June 1793 at Morgantown, (W.) Virginia (Monongalia county) and had settled in Brown county, Ohio where Richard Rilea died in August, 1839 ("Abstracts of Revolutionary War Pension Files", Virgil D. White, pg 2891). In her affidavit, Sybil said she did not attend her sister's wedding, but was living about 10 miles from wherevthey set up housekeeping in 1793. This showed that William and Sybil were in Monongalia county, West Virginia; however, we thought they were only passing through on their way to Kentucky and Ohio. Further research turned up some Little/Littell families in Monongalia county and a William Jacobs on tax records who was there from 1793 to 1796 (FHL film #464,965: Monongalia county, West Virginia Misc. Records, Item II, Land taxes). We had learned of a Jacob Jacobs of Monongalia county, West Virginia, being researched by Caryl Simpson of Pekin, Illinois. Caryl's chart showed a son, William, with sisters Rebecca Frazer and Hannah Harbert. This seemed similar to a query placed in 1966 by a Ralph Schroeder in the "Ohio Records & Pioneer Families" (Vol. 7, pg 95) asking about a "Wm. Jacobs of Brown county, Ohio, ca 1800; came from Sandy Glades -- had sisters Rebecca Frazee (Mason county, Kentucky) and Mrs. Harper (Urbana, Ohio area)". For a long time we had thought this query was about a William Jacobs BORN ca. 1800 until one day we saw that it could mean a William Jacobs of, or living in, Brown county ca. 1800. Suddenly there was the possibility that William of Brown county could be the son of Jacob Jacobs of Monongalia county, West Virginia. Maybe William and Sybil actually lived there and were not just passing through. Pieces of the puzzle were coming together. A Harbert researcher certify that, as per the testimony of Joseph Stewart, William Jacobs, & Asael Brookover, taken and subscribed before me, Jeney, a black woman, together with her 3 children, David, Tempy, and Jacob, formerly belonging to the heirs of John Matchlor, is to all intents and purposes, free from and after the time they were held as slaves by John Guttridge in Ohio. Signed Aug 8, 1807 -- Nathan Ellis. Recorded Feb 11, 1808.

(last paragraph) I also descend from the following known Brown County residents. Any assistance you can provide with regard to their families and forbears would, likewise, be greatly appreciated: John W. Jacobs and Hannah Hawk; William Jacobs and Zoa Wilks; William Jacobs and Sybil Little; John Wilks and Elizabeth Linn; Abraham Hawk and Nancy Dixon; William Dixon and Griselda Ann Bell; John Hawk and Susannah Krebs. Other note states: "It is said William came from Sandy Glades on Kanawha, W Va."

From Brown county OH newsletter, article written by Madelyn L Hahn of Los Angeles, CA:
Margaret (Ketron) had already done much research on the various Jacobs families in Brown county, so soon we were branching out to Mason county, Kentucky, where we found William Jacobs living in 1795 in the Lee's Creek area (FHL film #8140: Mason county Kentucky Tax Records 1792-1809). William moved over to Adams/Brown county in 1802 and was in Byrd Township in 1803, as shown by male enumeration lists of Adams county. (Cont'd) Sybil's family, the Littles, seemed to be the place to start because we knew that Sybil had testified in court for her sister Rhoda Rilea's application for a widow's pension in 1839 (Brown county Court of Common Pleas, Sept Term 1839). Rhoda Little and Richard Rilea had married 19 June 1793 at Morgantown, (W.) Virginia (Monongalia county) and had settled in Brown county, Ohio where Richard Rilea died in August, 1839 ("Abstracts of Revolutionary War Pension Files", Virgil D. White, pg 2891). In her affidavit, Sybil said she did not attend her sister's wedding, but was living about 10 miles from wherevthey set up housekeeping in 1793. This showed that William and Sybil were in Monongalia county, West Virginia; however, we thought they were only passing through on their way to Kentucky and Ohio. Further research turned up some Little/Littell families in Monongalia county and a William Jacobs on tax records who was there from 1793 to 1796 (FHL film #464,965: Monongalia county, West Virginia Misc. Records, Item II, Land taxes). We had learned of a Jacob Jacobs of Monongalia county, West Virginia, being researched by Caryl Simpson of Pekin, Illinois. Caryl's chart showed a son, William, with sisters Rebecca Frazer and Hannah Harbert. This seemed similar to a query placed in 1966 by a Ralph Schroeder in the "Ohio Records & Pioneer Families" (Vol. 7, pg 95) asking about a "Wm. Jacobs of Brown county, Ohio, ca 1800; came from Sandy Glades -- had sisters Rebecca Frazee (Mason county, Kentucky) and Mrs. Harper (Urbana, Ohio area)". For a long time we had thought this query was about a William Jacobs BORN ca. 1800 until one day we saw that it could mean a William Jacobs of, or living in, Brown county ca. 1800. Suddenly there was the possibility that William of Brown county could be the son of Jacob Jacobs of Monongalia county, West Virginia. Maybe William and Sybil actually lived there and were not just passing through. Pieces of the puzzle were coming together. A Harbert researcher told us that Jacob Jacobs' daughter, Hannah Harbert, had indeed moved to near Urbana (Champaign county, Ohio) and had died there in 1842. Margaret tried to contact Ralph Schroeder who had placed the 1966 query, but was told that no such person lived in his town, Marietta, Ohio. With more effort and persistence she found someone who had some of the deceased Mr. Schroeder's papers and they sent them to us. In a letter in 1967 in reply to a response to his query, Mr. Schroeder gave the source for his information about William Jacobs and his sisters as Frances Frazee Hamilton's book, "Ancestral Lines of the Doniphan, Frazee and Hamilton Families" (Greenfield, Ind.: Wm Mitchell Printing Co., 1928). Our next step was to find that book. My "computer savvy" daughter knew that all of the holdings of the Los Angeles Public Library system were available online. When asked to look for the book she found that it was in the Genealogical Dept of the main library downtown. What we found in the book was an account written in 1886 by a Dr. Lewis Frazee about his grandparents, Samuel Frazee and Rebecca Jacobs Frazee. The following are some statements of Dr. Frazee: On pages 351-353: "Samuel....came in the early days from New Jersey to Virginia, thence to Kentucky in 1778. He returned to Sandy Glades, now in Pennsylvania, then claimed by Virginia, and married Miss Rebecca Jacobs." On page 502: "My grandmother, Rebecca Jacobs Frazee... died in 1837, at the age of about sixty-eight.... I remember to have seen one of her brothers, Uncle William Jacobs, who lived at the time in Brown county, Ohio, a neighbor to Uncle Thomas S. Doniphan. I remember to have seen one of her sisters also, Mrs. Harper, from in or near Urbana, Ohio. She and her daughter, Anna, visited my grandmother some time before her death." A look at the 1830 Brown county census index verified that a Thomas S. Doniphan was a neighbor of William Jacobs, both listed on Page 406 in Byrd Township. At this point, we knew we had solved the puzzle---- that William Jacobs surely was the son of Jacob and Hannah (Johnson) Jacobs of Monongalia county, West Virginia. Jacob Jacobs, we knew, had settled on Deckers Creek (now near Morgantown) in 1776 or earlier (FHL film # 843,818: Monongalia county, West Virginia Land Surveys, 1781-1861, Book II, pg 232). Jacob and his wife Hannah became members of the Forks of Cheat Baptist Church by baptism: she in 1781 and he on 3 Jan 1782. In 1802, Hannah Jacobs was given a letter of dismission from the church to any other church of like faith (FHL film #163,902: Misc records of Monongalia county, and Forks of Cheat Baptist Church Minute Book No. 1, pgs 4, 22, 23). Perhaps they left the church and moved to Harrison county, where their daughter, Hannah Harbert, lived at the time. Jacob made his Will there dated 3 Mar 1803 in which he mentions his son William and daughters Rebecca Frazer and Hannah Harbert, among others (FHL film # 163,721: Abstracts of Harrison county, West Virginia Wills, book 1, pgs 160, 357). East of where the Jacobses lived was the Sandy Glades area which has not been located exactly, but was in the extreme north-east corner of W. Virginia (then Monongalia county, now Preston county), or perhaps just across the border in the area of Pennsylvania that was then part of Monongalia county. The Big Sandy Creek and the Little Sandy flow through that area and join the Cheat River.

She married (3) UNNAMED HALLIDAY Abt. 1840.

Notes for ALEXANDER FEELY:
Letter from Brown county OH Genealogical Society, lady searching for me finds a marriage of Alexander Feeley to Hannah Jacobs in 1805 in Adams county. Small scrap of paper from box of things from Hooper family papers says these dates (birth and death for John, Martha Feeley and children) are from Grandma Jacobs Bible. Sarah Feeley, who married Joseph Merrill, writes to Libby Feeley Hooper and tells her she wishes she had help taking care of grandma, that it is hard for her. In the 1870 census, there is a lady named Hannah Holliday born 1792 in Virginia living with Joseph and Sarah Merrill and their children in Rising Sun, Ohio co, IN. So far I cannot locate her in the 1860 census.

Child of HANNAH JACOBS and ALEXANDER FEELY is:

Notes for EPHRAIM JACOBS:
"Links and Clues" - "Jacobs' among early settlers", article from local newspaper about letters submitted to Brown co OH Gen Soc:
Submitted by the Brown County Genealogical Society, P. O. Box 83, Georgetown Ohio.
My greatgrandfather, Ephraim Jacobs, was born in 1802 in Kentucky. It is believed that Ephraim's parents were William and Sybil Jacobs of Virginia who, in 1830, were livng adjacent to Ephraim in Brown County Ohio. Other Jacobs living in Brown county who may have been brothers to Ephraim were Levi, Thornton & William. Levi Jacobs was a postmaster and married M. L. Beatty. William Jacobs b. 23 June 1799, married 27 September 1821 Zoa Wilks and had children: John W., Matilda, and Zoa. Sybil (?) Jacobs died in Adams County, Indiana, in 1853. In the 1850 census she is residing in the home of John T. Reeves and his wife Elizabeth. Could Elizabeth have been a Jacobs and are there any local descendants of John T. and Elizabeth Reeves? Ephraim Jacobs was married on the 7th of October 1824 in Brown county, Ohio to Elizabeth Reeves, and in 1839 moved to Adams county, Indiana where Ephraim lived the remainder of his life. Children of Ephraim and Elizabeth (Reeves) Jacobs were: 1) William b. 1826 Brown co, Ohio, married Elizabeth Shafer, a widow; 2) Levi, b. 1828, died 1852 unmarried; 3) Matilda b. 1830, married 1860 Phillip Martz; 4) Rachel b. 1834 married Jacob Schull; 5) Zoa b. 1836 married John H. Clawson; 6) John W., born 1839 Adams co, Ind., married Marinda (?); 7) Letha L., born 1841/2 married 1852, Dow Wilson Clark. These are my grandparents. Elizabeth Reeves may have been the daughter of William Reeves, Revolutionary soldier, born in Prince William county, Virginia, lived in Kentucky for 22 years and came to Scott or Washington township, Brown county, Ohio. I would like to establish proof of parentage for Ephraim Jacobs and for Elizabeth Reeves. I will gladly exchange information with anyone researching these families. Submitted by Everette R. Clark, 309 West Keetoowah, Green Country, Tahlequah, Oklahoma 74464. Betty Bacus, 396 East Madison, Elmhurst, Illinois visited our county courthouse this month to do some research and spoke briefly with me while there. Her ancestor is Eli Reeves, whom, I believe she said, married Nancy Ranking, daughter of Rev. Daniel Rankin, and his wife Sarah Redmon. Eli Reeves had a son, John, and the family migrated to Rush and Hancock counties, Ind., and then to Mercer county, Missouri. Betty is fortunate in that she resides near enough to the Newberry Library in Chicago to avail herself of the marvelous genealogy materials which they hold. Perhaps she could be of assistance to those of you who have Illinois ancestral problems. Submitted by Pat Donaldson, Georgetown, Ohio.

My third great grandmother, Eliza Jane Jacobs, daughter of William and Sybil (Little) Jacobs of Virginia, was born Nov. 20, 1810 in Brown county (?). She married on Oct 1, 1829, in Brown county (oath given by Levi Jacobs, probably her brother), John T. Reeves, born Aug. 2, 1811, in Brown county(?). The parents of John T. Reeves are unknown, but his father was born in Virginia and his mother in Germany. About 1851, John and Eliza (Jacobs) Reeves moved to Wabash county, Indiana, and remained there until their deaths. Eliza died July 4, 1888 at age 77 yrs, 7 mos, 14 days, and John died Mar. 23, 1891, at age 80. They are both buried in the Mississinewa Cemetery (Mt. Vernon section), Wabash county, Ind. The Mt. Vernon Cemetery was moved into the new Mississinewa Cemetery when a dam was built where the Mt. Vernon Cemetery used to be. John T. Reeves served in the Mexican and Civil Wars. 15. MELINDA[4] JACOBS (JAMES THOMAS[3], WILLIAM[2], JACOB[1]) was born August 31, 1816 in Adams co OH, and died Aft. 1883. She married HENRY KIMBALL October 29, 1840 in Brown co OH, son of BENJAMIN KIMBALL and MARTHA WARDLOW. He was born January 7, 1818 in Scott twp, Brown co OH, and died Aft. 1883.

Notes for HENRY KIMBALL:
From: "The History of Brown county, Ohio", Beers, 1883, pg 248-9-50:
Henry Kimball, farmer, P. O. New Hope, was born in Scott Township, Brown Co., Ohio, January 7, 1818, and is consequently sixty-four years of age. He comes of good old Puritan and Virginia stock, his father having been a native of Massachusetts Bay, whose ancestors came over in the Mayflower in quest of religious liberty, and his mother of the proud old Dominion, whose progenitors helped to colonize on the banks of the James River. His father, Maj. Benjamin Kimball, who was born in Hopkinton, N.H., August 31, 1778, was the son of Abraham Kimball, born April 18, 1742, and Phoebe Kimball, born May 8, 1740, and tenth in a family of eleven children, namely John, born December 7, 1761; Aaron, born April 18, 1763; Smith, born January 9, 1765, Job, born January 19, 1767; Abigail, born May 4, 1768; Phoeba, born January 20, 1770; Abraham, born March 16, 1772; Isaac, born March 9, 1774; Jacob, born February 26, 1776; Benjamin, born August 31, 1778; and Sallie, born August 20, 1780. Maj. Kimball was twice married, the first time to Polly Kimball, March 22, 1797, who bore him five sons and four daughters --- Phoeba, born February 24, 1800; Jasper M., born April 27, 1802; Sallie, born May 13, 1804; Benjamin, Jr., born July 23, 1806; Timothy, born July 27, 1808; Hazen, born April 13, 1810; Mary, born November 25, 181; Eleanor, born February 28, 1814, and Hazen. who was born January 12, 1798, and died May 21, 1799; and the second time to Mrs. Martha Zumatt, relict of Col. Henry Zumatt, who gave him one child --the subject of our sketch. September 16, 1801, Maj. Kimball with his family in a primitive jolt wagon drawn by oxen, left Hopkinton to make his way overland to Wheeling, Va., where he contemplated making his home, and reached his destination November 16, 1801, after being en route sixty days. Some years later, he removed to Clermont County, Ohio. His wife died at Neville, Clermont Co., Ohio, August 13, 1815. March 6, 1816, he was united in marriage to Mrs. Martha Zumatt. Martha Zumatt was born near Rockbridge, Va., October 19, 1776, and was the duaghter of Robert Wardlow and Jannette (Downing) Wardlow. Her parents emigrated in an early day to the untamed wilds of Kentucky, where she met and married Col. Zumatt.

Zumatt moved to Ohio, and settled on the east bank of White Oak in the year 1801, purchasing and living till his death, which occurred in 1814, on the site which is now the home of Mr. Kimball. Martha Wardlow had six brothers — Samuel, William, James, John, Joseph and Hugh, and one sister, Janette. Mr. Kimball has made the ancestral roof-tree his home for a period of more than sixty years. October 29, 1840, he was married to Melinda Jacobs, daughter of James Jacobs and Isabella (Feely) Jacobs. Melinda belonged to a family of seven children, five of whom are living -- Sarah, Elizabeth, William, Alfred, Melinda, James, Jr., Levi, Mary C., and Andrew J. By this union Mr. Kimball has been blessed with a family of seven children, five of whom are living -- A. J. Kimball, born November 16, 1841; W. F. Kimball, born July 20, 1843; T. H. Kimball, born January 15, 1847; Martha I. Kimball, born May 15, 1851, and Mary J. Kimball, born September 21, 1853; and two deceased, F. M. Kimball, born April 15, 1845, and died September 27, 1848, and Samuel McCall Kimball, born June 1, 1849, and died December 21, 1850. Mr. Kimball, has been a farmer all his life owning a splendid farm, one of the most fertile and productive in Southern Ohio. There are 247 acres, 150 of which was bought in 1801, by Col. Zumatt, for $375, and could not now be bought for less than $40,000. There are seventy-five acres of first bottom, a rich and exhaustless treasure of productiveness. There is a large apple orchard of 415 trees on ten acres of land, having a western hill-side exposure, capable of producing a thousand bushels annually. A few years since he turned his attention to tobacco culture. For seven years he has had under cultivation an average of eight acres a year, with an average yield of 1,000 pounds per acre, and has received for the entire product $8,700, which is $155.25 for each acre's yield, and this too, in the face of the fact of a partial failure one year, in consequence of scarcity of plants, whereby the crop brought only $700. Samples of the crop raised by Mr. Kimball in 1875, and sold to Robert Young, of Higginsport, were awarded the premium for excellence at the Centennial Exposition of 1876. In 1878, he received $760.50 for the tobacco that grew on three and a half acres, an average of $217.29 per acre. The crop of 1880 was sold to Sheriff Hoebling at 21 cents per pound, and brought $1,900. The farm is equally productive of wheat and corn, the largest average yields of both being annually harvested. At sixty-four, Mr. Kimball is a hearty, good-looking gentleman, his abundant hair and beard silvered by the touch of time, to be sure, but his step as elastic as in youth. He promises to live many years to bless an affectionate country-side, with his benevolent acts and kindly, sunny disposition. His good wife lives to cheer his home and brighten his fireside with her smile, while two unmarried children -- a son and a daughter -- linger at home to share and lighten their cares and responsibilities. Among the old family records in the hands of Mr. Kimball, yellow with age, are found the military commissions of Maj. Kimball; one to which the great seal of the State was affixed at Chillicothe, May 22, 1805, and signed by Gov. Edward Tiffin, clothed Maj. Kimball with the honor and authority of a Captain of a rifle company. Another, defaced and much mutilated, is dated in the year 1806. The third and last, as a family heirloom, has enough interest to entitle it to preservation: In the Name and By the Authority of the State of Ohio, Samuel Huntington, Governor and Commander in Chief of the said State, To Benjamin Kimball, Esq., Greeting: It being certified to me that you are duly elected Major of the First Battalion, Second Regiment, First Brigade and fourth Division of Militia in this State. Now know you, that by virtue of the powers vested in me by the Constitution and Laws of said State; and reposing special trust and confidence in your courage, activity, fidelity and good conduct, I do by these presents, commission you as Major of said Battalion, hereby authorizing and requiring you to discharge all and singular, the duties and services appertaining to your said office agreeably to law, and such instructions as you shall from time to time receive from your superior officers. In testimony whereof, I have hereunto set my name, and caused the great seal of the State of Ohio to be affixed, at Chillicothe, the sixth day of September, in the year of our Lord, One Thousand Eight Hundred and Ten, and in the thirty-fifth year of the Independence of the United States of America. (signed) Samuel Huntington By his Excellency's Command, John McLean, Secretary of State (Seal)

Dear Sister Received your kind and most welcome letter and was glad to here from you. but sorrow to here that you had been sick. I think that climate does not agree with you I wish you would move to Keokuk I think your husband could make as much money here as where you are I am glad you sent Mattie's pictures she is pretty. If you have any more to spare send one to Clara's she has a fine album Her husbands brother sent it from Chicago to her for a new year present. It cost 12 dollars Scott wants George to send his picture. I suppose he has got his groth now how large is he does Mr. Hooper make brick yet are you coming over next faul to see us I would be so glad to see you it seemes like a life time since you were here and your little girl she some help to you now I suppose. I was quite surprised when I first heard Sarah had moved to Kansas. they was their about a year before I knew it I would love to see her but it is 500 miles from here. there is a great many going to Kansas from here this spring to take up land. Van and and Will and John. two of Williams boys went out there last spring and took up 160 acres a piece John and Van paid for their claim and came home they came the 20th of January it cost them 200 and 2 dollars a peice after they had staid six months and improved their land some. Will is out there yet. I hope that Georges foot was not hurt seriously and is well by this time. this leaves us all well I was glad and quite surprised to here from Ohio in your letter. I dreamed that Uncle Jackson was dead two or three years ago. and I thought it must be so he must be very old to teach. Clara was maried the 24the of Nov and left the 25th so have not seen her since she lives in Eagle Grove Iowa write co Fred went up to Ellas last faul and went to see Clara as she came home. He said she was fixed nice in their hous and as happy as could be. her husbands name is A T Dunlap. Ella was at home last summer 4 or 5 weeks she was sick then and is poorly yet. Fannie is a good girl and Fred and they mabe embraced religion they joined the Baptist Church and the Holiness Band it is such a comfort to me to have then Christians and they are so strict to Mary our baby is 8 yrs old next Jan she is tall but slim and not very stout Scott is my tall boy he is 6 feet 1 or 2 inches and rather wild. Otto and Arthur there is not mutch difference in their size. Crist is the same only he is some grey and his health is not very good. and him and I both wear glasses so you see we are not young anymore. Where does Mrs. Bouton and George Hooper live and Mrs Fairchild and the girls has Central improved very much. Amanda's name is now Mattie Andres. Saids(?) name is William Alen is married to. write soon the children and Crist joine me in love to you all.

Obit from the Register-Call Weekly, Central City, Oct 5, 1895, page 5:
In Denver, Colorado, Monday morning, Sept. 30, 1895, Elizabeth, wife of Thomas Hooper of this city, in the 50th year of her age. Sheriff Hooper was summoned to Denver Sunday, owing to the illness of his wife, who had been an invalid for a number of years, having met with a relapse. Her body was embalmed in Denver and brought here Tuesday on the morning passenger train, and was taken to the residence of Mr. George Boughton, on East High Street. The funeral occurred from St. James M. E. Church Wednesday afternoon, Rev. Linn, the pastor, officiating. The obsequies were well attended. Interment was made in the Odd Fellow's cemetery alongside her two sons and the late Dr. Hooper, father of her husband. Deceased was married to her husband in 1866, shortly after the close of the War of the Rebellion. Two sons, Thomas, Jr. and George, preceded her to the grave some years ago. She leaves a sorrowing husband and daughter to mourn the loss of a kind wife and mother, who have the sincere condolence of a large circle of friends in their bereavement.

Obit from Observer newspaper, 5 Oct 1895, Colorado:
Death of Sarah Hooper
On Monday forenoon a message was received in this city announcing the death in Denver of Mrs. Sarah Hooper, from heart trouble. She had been an invalid for ten years, but had been in apparently good health for some days previous to her death. The body was brought to this city on Tuesday forenoon and taken to the home of Geo. Boughton, a relative. Sheriff Hooper and Mrs. Boughton had gone to Denver Sunday afternoon, being informed of the low condition of Mrs. Hooper. The funeral occurred on Wednesday afternoon from the Methodist Church, the services being conducted by the pastor, Rev. Linn. The Pioneers Association had charge of the funeral, turning out in full, and many of the members of the I.O.O.F. Lodge turned out, Mr. Hooper being a member of that order. There was a very large number of friends out to pay their respects to the last sad rites to one who was held in very high esteem by all who knew her. Interment took place in the I.O.O.F. burying ground, by the side of two sons and Grandfather Hooper. Other than the immediate family there were in attendance the following relatives: Joe. Hooper and wife, Fred Annis and wife and Grant LeRoy and wife of Idaho Springs; Richard, Frank and Mary Phillips of Fall River, Colo.; Mrs. Emily J. Phillips, of Leadville, sister of Sheriff Hooper; and Geo. Boughton and wife of this city. Deceased was nearly 50 years of age, and was married to Thomas Hooper in 1865, the only living offspring being Miss Mattie Hooper, aged 17. Deceased had a wide circle of friends, and her work in the Baptist church, of which she was a strong member, will be greatly missed. The deepest sympathy is extended to the bereaved husband and daughter.

One by one -- earth's ties are broken   As we see our love decay,
And the hopes, so fondly cherished   Brighten but to pass away.
One by one our hopes grow brighter   As we near the shining shore,
For we know across the river   Wait our loved ones gone before.

Notes for THOMAS HOOPER:
Bio on Thomas Hooper in Biographical material of Central City, pg 457:
Mr. Hooper, one of Central City's early pioneers, is of English descent and was born in the town of Hay, Wales, May 23, 1844. His father, Thomas Hooper, a physician, came to America in 1845, and located in New York City, where he practiced his profession five years. In 1850, he removed to Cincinnati, Ohio, where he engaged in the wholesale drug business and the practice of medicine until 1855. He subsequently practiced medicine five years in Nebraska City, Neb., whither he removed. In 1860, during the Pike's Pak excitement, he crossed the plains to Colorado, and located in Central City. His son, Thomas spent his early life in attending school. On their arrival at Central City, he engaged with his father in the drug business eighteen months, and subsequently in the grocery business with his brother- in-law, J. K. Rutledge. In February 1863, he enlisted in the 3d Colo. V. I., which was afterward consolidated with the Second and formed the 2d Colo. V. C. He served in Missouri and Arkansas until near the close of the rebellion, and was then sent out on the plains against the Indians, where he served until November, 1865. He was then mustered out of the service, and went to Nebraska City, Neb., where he spent the winter. He was married to Miss Missouri E. Feeley, May 3, 1866. He then returned to Central City, and engaged with his father in the manufacture of brick, and has, since the death of his father the following fall, successfully carried on that business. In the spring of 1868, he was elected City Treasurer, the duties of which office he honorably discharged one term.

Daily Register Call, Central City, Gilpin co, Colorado, Tuesday, 27 May 1873, pg 3:
A terrible accident occurred last night. Ellery Valentine, a smart, active and industrious boy in the employ of J. Collier, photographer, whose business he was learning, had been sent up to Mr. Hooper's house, near the brick yard, in Spring Gulch. By the side of the brick yard road is a shaft about eighty feet deep, and free from water. As he was passing this shaft some object attracted his attention, when he turned round, and with his back to the shaft without observing that it was there, he inadvertently stepped backward into it. About half way down he struck on a board, which broke his fall and probably saved his life. His left leg is broken a few inches above the knee, and he has severe scratches and bruises about the face, but it is believed he had suffered no internal injuries. He fell into the shaft at about half-past five, but was not able to make anyone hear his cries till about half past seven, when a little girl hearing him, ran for help, and a large crowd of citizens went to the rescue. Messrs. Jo. Hafer and Dave Evans descended into the mine and aided in getting him out. He was quite talkative when we saw him. He is under charge of Drs. Adudell and Bowker. The family are in very straightened circumstances. Only a few days ago his younger brother had a leg amputated, and he was a great help to his mother in supporting the family. Will not some of our good people see that they do not suffer for care or otherwise?

Notes from Scott Webb of Central City, CO who used to live (and restored) the old Hooper homestead: I have been reading through all the material you have sent and am starting to get a picture of Tom Hooper's and Omar Frank's life in Central City. Although personal information is scarce, it is safe to assume that the Brick Yark did quite well after Central City burned in 1872. City council decreed that all new construction downtown be of Brick or Stone. As a man with virtually no competition Tom was in an excellent position to prosper. We think he did and as a result built this house starting in 1874 and finishing in 1875. I assume that after Libby lost young Tom in 1876, things started to go downhill. I note she seemed to be unable to spend much time in her new house, especially in winter. Also, as her health declined so did the fortunes of the brickyard. Tom mentions the shortage of money more and more. This prompts him to seek work of opportunity either as an independent hauler or city/county employee. Along about 1890 Tom started to sub-divide his land. Originally the "Hooper Ranch" was about 30 acres in Spring Gulch. By the turn of the century Tom had sold much of this land for housing and mining claims. We think about 1890 the house was remodeled to serve as a boarding house. The seven boarders reported in the 1900 census most likely stayed in one form or another until Omar came along. There really is not much about Omar in the local records (or if there is, I didn't find it!) His letters back to his folks in Denver were a refreshing insight. At the risk of being a pest..... do you know what Omar's occupation was when he was here and after he left? I assume it was related but??? (ejc- he worked an assay office) Do you have any letter from the period 1872 to 1876 that comment on the house, Tom's brick windfall in 1872-3, Libby's misfortunes, etc. From Omar's letters I am assuming that the family left here for Sunset ID about 1912-3. It also appears that Mattie returned to Denver shortly thereafter. Did Mattie remain behind until Omar was able to locate work in environments less harsh than found in mining communities? Tragic similarities to Tom's life! Questions end! As an insight to changes here; Tom mentions in one of his 1877 letters he was "sinking a well." I think that well is the same as the cistern that remains next to the N/W corner of the house. I doubt it has seen ground water since the late 80's. Most water was lost to mine drainage in Spring Gulch and the surrounding mines. (My personal guess is that Spring Gulch was dry by 1880-85.) The house however, was built so that all rain water flowed towards the center and was then ducted into the cistern (well). It was held here for use later. The cistern is constructed of brick. Tidbits. In Georgetown CO an O. F. Chamberlin paid for a cemetery lot and funeral in 1884. We visited the site, I do not think it was ever used. In the IOOF Cemetery, have found the grave and markers for Dr. Tom's brother George. It is a cement monument. Removed from here is a simple stone marker for young Tom. If the newspaper clipping is correct Tom/Libby's George and Libby herself are buried here. There are no markers. (During the bad times here graves were often marked with wooden markers which did not last.) This spring we'll look again for signs of Libby's and George's grave. About you and Gene coming here to see the Hooper house; anytime!! We would love to show you around. The caveat is; provided we don't sell the place first! Regards, Scott PS...The end of the brickyard has been attributed locally to any of the following: 1) Hooper brick was a soft sand brick of poor quality. When the railroad arrived in 1878, better brick was available from Denver. 2) Toms' source of raw materials literally dried up as the mine tunnels increasingly drained off surface waters, 3) the local economy started to decline right in 1875, declining to about nothing in 1915. The gold was too deep, the rock too hard, and the price too low, to be profitable. Hence no construction, the population declined.

Re: Heaton, Records, Young & Evans

Dear Linda,

At last I have found a few minutes to send some new information--which I found after writing to you on Aug. 27, 1982.

Enclosed you will find: a sheet on Spencer & Elizabeth (Ellrod) Records' family. This will answer your question concerning the parents of James Records who married 23 Oct 1820 Brown Co., Ohio Elizabeth Heaton. This info. was taken from W. Marshall Sellman's book-on the Winchester Sesquicentennial 1815-1965. Mr. Sellman gave me permission to copy his book, as this book is no longer available.

Also enclosed is a new sheet on Samuel Wm. Young & Mary Heaton's family. I had neglected to send you some additional info. which you will find on the back of this family sheet.

Thank you for looking up the census info. on Thomas or James Evans. I had copied the numbers correctly from the census, but incorrectly typed-on the census pages--please correct your copy. I also believe this is my Thomas Evans and I feel that his first name is Thomas, as that's how it appears on his War of 1812 Bounty Land Records. I have found a few other Evans who were born in Maryland and I wonder if they are related to my Thomas? Wish I knew what part of Maryland my Thomas was from. Also where he died in Iowa.

Also, in Mr. Sellman's book on Winchester, Ohio the following Taylor info. is listed.

Pg. 2 - Reuben Taylor original land patent, Survey #1721, 28 Mar 1792.
Francis Taylor original land patent, Survey #2043 - no dates
(I would imagine that both were VA. Rev. War Vets.)--DvS
(Neither of these people ever settled on the above land)

Page 3 - A deed on record at the Adams Co., O. Courthouse, W. Union shows that Reuben Taylor and his wife Rebecca of Jefferson Co., Ky., on 13 Feb 1809, sold to Joseph Darlington, of Adams Co., Ohio. 600 acres of land in Survey 1721.

Page 37 - John Meredith Darlinton, son of Gen. Joseph & Sarah (Wilson) Darlinton, married 27 Jan 1818 Mary Baird and settled near Winchester on the tract in Survey 1721 his father had purchased in 1809 from *Francis Taylor's Executors.

*Note the name of Francis is used here, but on Page 3 it's Reuben, I (Doris) don't know what's correct. Probably should read Reuben.

Page 47 - James Kendall (son of James & Ann (Lucas) Kendall)came to Adams Co., Ohio in Oct. 1803 and settled two miles north of Winchester on a tract in Survey 2043, purchased from Francis Taylor's executors.

Samuel Evans voted in 1815, Eagle Twp., Adams Co., Ohio

Samuel Evans, b. ca1775 Md., d. 3 Mar 1864 Adams Co., Ohio - Age. 89yrs., Buried: Winchester, Ohio (War 1812 Abraham Shepherd's Co.) came to Ohio in 1811. Samuel married Harriet Wilson b. ca1790 VA. Their son, Dr. Sylvanus P. Evans, a dentist in Winchester, Ohio, was b. 23 Mar 1823 Jackson Twp., Brown Co., Ohio. (Samuel & Harriet, plus their children are in the 1850 Census Brown Co., Ohio #590 #592 Jackson Twp--DvS).

Thanks for offering your Evans Marriage information and when you have time, I would truly appreciate a copy!

Your 85 pages of Taylor information sounds very interesting! I believe a Simon Taylor, Will dated 10 May 1784 Hampshire Co., Va. and probated Mar 1786 Hampshire Co., Va., names: wife: Mary, Children: John Taylor, James Taylor, Simon Taylor, Rebecah (Taylor) See, Elizabeth Hite Dudley & Mary Ann Taylor.
Executors: Robert Parker, John Taylor (son of Simon Taylor, Sr.)
Wit: Absalom Hammond, Austin Smith Reeves, Simon Fields, Henry Carter & Simon Taylor (son of Geo. Taylor); is a part of my Simon Fields family as well as the Reeves. I would like to review your copies next summer.

Will you please send me a copy of your family sheet on Abraham Evans & Mary Ann Ellis and their parents if you have the information. I have collected loads of Evans information, but I find it very hard to determine who belongs to who!

College has proven to be a full time job and I almost feel guilty when I take some time for genealogy.

I hope to get a letter off to Mrs. Frances Norman within the next few days. I am sending her a copy of Spencer Records' family sheet and my Samuel Wm. Young's family sheet, also a copy of my Smith Family information.

I also found a lot of Francis Taylor info. in the History of Mason Co.,Ky Vol. 1, by Clift, but I do not believe this Francis is the one named in Sellman's - Winchester Sesq. The Francis Taylor of Mason Co., Ky. was the son of Major Ignatius Taylor of Hagerstown, Md., by his 1st wife. Francis came from that town to Ky. in his early manhood and was a very successful lawyer. Page 131 (earliest date in Ky. was 1792 for Francis).

Fondly,

Doris

WINCHESTER, OHIO (PIONEER HISTORY) - Sesquicentennial 1815-1965 - Adams Co.,Ohio,
By: W. M. Sellman, Copyright 1965. Page 49 & 50.

SPENCER RECORDS, the noted pioneer scout & Indian fighter, was born in Sussex Co., Delaware, December 11, 1762, the eldest of the twelve children of Josiah and Susanna (Tulley) Records. When he was four years old his parents moved to the wilds of western Pennsylvania, where the family was constantly exposed to Indian attacks. During the Revolution, Josiah Records served in the militia protecting the frontier.

In Nov. 1783, Spencer Records embarked on the Monongahela in a flat boat and made his way to Limestone (now Maysville), Kentucky. A year later the rest of the family came, and settled near the new town of Washington, Mason County. During the next fifteen years, Spencer Records was a prominent scout, Indian fighter, and surveyor on the Kentucky-Ohio frontier. In May 1789, he was commissioned Captain of Militia by the Governor of Virginia. He participated in many punitive expeditions against the Indians north of the Ohio River, in what is now Adams, Brown, Highland, Pike, and Ross Counties. On April 15, 1790, he married in Mason Co., Ky., Elizabeth Ellrod, daughter of John T. and Mary Ellrod, and a sister of the Rev. Thomas Ellrod, pioneer Baptist preacher. Spencer and Elizabeth (Ellrod) Records were lifelong members of the Baptist Church.

In March, 1801 Spencer Records moved from Kentucky to what is now Pike Co., Ohio, where he lived for four years. In 1805 he again moved with his family to Eagle Twp., Adams Co. (now Brown Co.) where he built a grist mill on the West Fork of Brush Creek, between Winchester and Fincastle. The millstones or "burrs" were made by him of stone he obtained in the Sunfish hills of Pike County, Ohio.

In 1821, Records sold his lands in Ohio and emigrated to Bartholemew County, Indiana, settling six miles north of Columbus. After 1836 he and his wife retired from the farm and lived with their son-in-law, Tunis Quick. They both died in the 1850's.

Spencer and Elizabeth (Ellrod) Records were the parents of thirteen children: Josiah (m. Mary Alexander), John N. (m. Rachel Bailey), James (m.Elizabeth Heaton Hannah (m. John Wilson), Laban (m. first Hannah Bradley & 2nd Ann Barnet), William (m. Elsie Harvey), Mary (m. James Brish), Susanna (m. Tunis Quick), Matilda (m. Josiah Hendrixson), Rachel (m. Milton J. Nelson), Elizabeth, Lucinda (m. James Barnet), and Lucy.

Spencer Records mill, later known as the McCormick Mill, was about one-fourth of a mile west of the Adams County line. Josiah Records, son of Spencer, lived here. Spencer Records' land was in the southeast corner of the intersections of the present State Routes 62 & 32. He owned 269 acres here in Survey 2060. Page 70 of above book.

the father died in 1855, at the age of seventy-five, but the mother still lives at the advanced age of seventy-two. In early life Mr. King was a hatter, but, as that was not a profitable business, he afterward engaged in farming. In politics he was formerly a Whig, but joined the Republican party after its organization. Mrs. King is a member of the Christian Church, but Mr. King was a Universalist. Arius King was born December 18, 1834, in Franklin County, Ohio, and during his youth received a common-school education. When nineteen he drove cattle to California, where he resided two years, but at the end of that time joined his parents in Iowa. In 1857 he was married to Nancy Hellier, a native of Morgan County, Ohio, and by her had four children: Vance A., John M., Frank and Eliza J. (wife of George Camden). When starting out in life for himself Mr. King had a capital of but $3, but now, after twenty-two years' residence in Schuyler County, is the owner of 180 acres of land adjoining Glenwood, under a good state of cultivation. In politics he is a Republican. He is an Odd Fellow, belonging to Glenwood Lodge, No. 233, and to Glenn Encampment.

Bennett Kratzer, ex-judge of Schuyler County, was born in Brown County, Ohio, in 1828, and is a son of Samuel and Elizabeth (Still) Kratzer. The former was of German descent, and born in Ohio, in 1806. He was a farmer by occupation, and was married in Brown County, where he spent the remainder of his life, his death occurring in 1883. He was twice married, his second wife being Mahala (Malott) Kratzer, who survives. The mother of our subject died in 1840, and was the mother of five children, of whom Bennett was the eldest. When sixteen years of age he began life for himself as an apprentice to a blacksmith, working three years for his board and clothes, and receiving three months' schooling. He then worked as a journeyman a year, after which he bought out his teacher, and began business on his own responsibility. In the fall of 1855 he came to Schuyler County, Mo., and a year later purchased 160 acres of land, where he now resides, and, in connection with farming, built a blacksmith shop, and worked at his trade many years. He now owns 288 acres of land in the county, and ranks as one of its highly respected and substantial farmer citizens. October 29, 1848, he married Miss Mary Heaton, daughter of James and Elizabeth Heaton, a native of Brown County, Ohio, where she was born in 1831. To this union seven children were born, viz.: Alonzo, Melissa (wife of Anderson York, of Davis County, Iowa), Leila F. (wife of Albert York), James D. (physician at Lancaster), Theresa (wife of Noah Butts), Charley F. (physician of Savannah, Iowa) and May. In politics he has long been a Democrat, and cast his first presidential vote for Franklin Pierce, in 1852. He served as justice of the peace in 1865, and in 1880 was elected county judge, and served two years with great efficiency. Himself, wife and six children are members of the Christian Church.

Dr. James D. Kratzer was born in Brown County, Ohio, in 1855, and is a son of Judge Bennett and Mary (Heaton) Kratzer. [See sketch of Bennett Kratzer, Fabius Township.] Our subject received his early education at the home schools, and the State Normal at Kirksville. In 1880 he began to study medicine under Dr. D. N. Dooley, at Savannah, Iowa, and March 3, 1886, graduated as an M. D. from the College of Physicians and Surgeons, Keokuk, Iowa. He then went to Lancaster, and began the practice of his chosen profession, in which he has met with marked success, having a large practice, and being highly esteemed by the community. In 1875 he married Miss Jane Enlow, who was born in Schuyler County, Mo., in 1859. This lady died September 14, 1879, and in December, 1882, Mr. Kratzer was united in marriage to Miss Mattie, daughter of Dr. D. N. Dooley. Mrs. Kratzer was born in Davis County, Iowa, in 1866, and is a worthy and consistent member of the Christian Church, as is also her husband. In politics the Doctor is a Democrat, and cast his first presidential vote for S. J. Tilden, in 1876.

Thomas Pleasant Leedom, farmer and stock raiser, is a native of Lancaster, Mo., and was born October 28, 1853. He is a son of Asa and Susan (Woodson) Leedom. The father was born in Ohio, in 1882, is a tailor by trade, but now resides upon a farm. He is of English descent, and came to Schuyler County, in 1845, with his father, Thomas Leedom, a native of Ohio, who is now eighty-seven years old, and one of the oldest living settlers of Schuyler County. Asa was married in that county, and at the age of sixteen learned his trade, at which he worked twenty-five years in Lancaster. In 1877 he settled upon the place where he now lives, which consists of eighty acres of land. His wife is of English descent, and was born in Kentucky, near Harrisburg, in 1825. She is the mother of eight children: James L., Thomas P., William A., John M. (M. D.), Alonze, Loretta (wife of C. L. Hounsom), Willard G. and Amos. Our subject attended school in Lancaster, at the State Normal at Kirksville, and in 1874 took the commercial course at the Business College in Keokuk, Iowa, of which institution he is a graduate. He was then appointed deputy county collector by W. A. Coffey, and, upon the death of the latter, in September, 1878, was appointed to fill his unexpired term. In 1879 he was appointed deputy collector for this time of the year, is of an excellent color and growing very fast. In some places tassels are out. With good weather there will be another big crop.

—A well known horsem[illegible] predicts that within two or three years the raising of horses will become nearly if not quite as profitable business as it was some years ago. The price of horses must go up soon and farmers who have well bred two and three-year-old colts will shortly be able to sell them at profitable prices.

—Has anyone noticed that there are no butterflies any more? Years ago on a quiet, sunny afternoon, a garden would be full of them in all colors and sizes. Lately, only occasionally a little white one may be seen, but never any large, handsome ones like you pinned on the wall when you were children. What has become of them?

—"Did you observe," said the merchant to a customer, "the handsome new advertisement I have had painted on Mr. Dobb's barn." "No," replied the customer, "but if you will send the barn around to my house I will try to read the announcement. I read the papers and haven't time to go around from place to place to read the bill boards." And there are others.

—W. E. Farris received a telegram Monday announcing the sad news of the death of his son-in-law, S. N. Carman, at Las Animas, Col. Mr. Carman was formerly a resident of Independence township, this county, but has been living in Colorado for several years, where he has been running a general merchandise store. He has many friends in this county who will regret to learn of his death.

Obituary.

Died, on July 20, 1897, at his residence in Lancaster, Mo., Judge Bennett Kratzer. Judge Kratzer was in his 69th year, having been born at Mt. Oreb, Brown county Ohio, 13th of September, 1828. He removed to Lancaster, Mo., in 1855. He was elected to be judge of the county court for the northern district of Schuyler county, Missouri, in 1894, and re-elected in 1896. He leaves a wife and seven children, Dr. J. D. Kratzer, Dr. Chas. Kratzer, Alonzo Kratzer, Mrs. Anderson York, Mrs. Albert York, Mrs. Noah Butt and Mrs. Clint Bradbury.

The community and county realize an almost irreparable loss in this very estimable citizen. He was a consistent member of the Christian church for over thirty years. The interment took place in the Darby cemetery on July 21, amidst a large concourse of sorrowing relatives and friends.

Well could he say with Paul, 2 Tim. 4-8: "Henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, shall give me at that day; and not to me only, but unto all them also that love his appearing." He will surely be in that company so vividly described by 2d Esdras, 2: 42-47.

Obituary.

Samuel Gipson Wardlow was born Nov. 6, 1831, in Brown county, Ohio. Died April 17, 1911, in Schuyler county, Missouri, aged 79 years, 5 months and 11 days. He was married in Brown county, Ohio, May 23, 1852, to Louisa M. Heaton. They moved to Schuyler county in 1856. To this union were born four children—2 sons and 2 daughters. Two of these children—Bennett and Amanda J. Israel—survive their father and were present when he died. He became a Christian under the preaching of Bro. Amos Buchanan in 1889 and united with the Christian church at Darby. His aged widow still survives him.

Bro. Wardlow has not lived in vain. He not only has been happy in the service of his master, but his Godly life has comforted and strengthened others. "We sorrow not as those who have no hope, for he rests from his labors and his works do follow him."

Mr. Wardlow was one of a family ten children, 7 boys and 3 girls, three of whom survive him, two brothers—one in Gklahoma and one in North Dakota, and a sister in Ohio.

good work in center while Cap't. Slavin had an easy time "ringin' 'em up".

The boys' game with Moulton was an easy victory for L. H. S. by a 64 to 11 score.

Tuesday the boys played Cincinnati and won by a score of 26 to 20. The game was fast and at the end of the first ten minutes Cincy was leading by 8 to 2. The Indians came back hard and the half ended with L. H. S. holding a 16 to 10 score. Locker and Shepherd starred for Lancaster. The Indians missed Beeler from their line-up. The undefeated Cincinnati girls' team and Boys' team play here Nov. 16.

UNEQUAL LOSSES

Frederick was sitting on the curb, crying, when Billy came along and asked him what was the matter.

"Oh, I feel so bad 'cause Major's dead—my nice old collie!" sobbed Frederick.

"Shucks"! said Billy. "My grandmother's been dead a week and you don't catch me crying".

Frederick gave his eyes and nose a swipe with his hand and looking up at Billy, sobbed despairingly:

"Yes, but you didn't raise your grandmother from a pup".

AND IT DID

"Your daughter", said Mrs. Oldcastle, after being conducted through the newly furnished wing of the magnificent palace occupied by the new-rich Bullingtons, "has such a splendid vocabulary". "Do you think so"? her hostess replied. "Josiah wanted to get her one of them escritories, but I made up my mind right at the start that a vocubulary would look better in a room furnished like hers".

A REAL AUTHORITY

Little Nelly told little Anita what she terms "only a little fib".

Anita—"A fib is the same as a story and a story is the same as a lie".

Nelly—"No, it's not".

Anita—"Yes, it is, because my father said so, and my father is a professor at the university".

Nelly—"I don't care if he is. My father is an editor, and he knows more about lying than your father".

HEATON

Louisa Marian Heaton was born in Brown county, Ohio, March 1, 1836, and departed this life Oct. 29, 1920, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Elmore Israel, aged 84 years, 7 months and 27 days. She was married to Samuel G. Wardlow, May 28, 1852 and to this union four children were born, two sons and two daughters; Bennett; Susan, Jane and Alonzo. Susan and Alonzo preceeded her in death, and her husband preceeded her in April 1911.

She leaves one son, Bennett and one daughter, Mrs. Jane Israel, with whom she made her home, also ten grandchildren, twenty-six great-grandchildren, three great-great-grandchildren and two brohers, J. J. Heaton of Lancaster, and John Heaton of Downing. She united with the Christian church at Darby, Jan. 1889, during the ministry of Amos Buchanan and has since lived a faithful Christian life.

Funeral services were held at the Darby church on Saturday morning, Oct. 30, at eleven o'clock, conducted by Rev. G. W. Kitchen, and the body tenderly laid to rest by the side of her husband in the cemetery near by.

CARD OF THANKS

We sincerely desire to thank our friends and neighbors who so faithfully assisted us in the care of our dear mother during her illness.

BENNETT WARDLOW

Bennett Wardlow was born March 25. 1853 in Brown county. Ohio, near Georgetown. Departed this life from St. Joseph's hospital at Centerville, Iowa, July 10. 1935, age 82.

He came with his father to Schuyler county in 1856 and has lived here all his life, spending the early part of his life on a farm in the northeast part of the county. He was elected sheriff in 1904 then coming to Lancaster to make his home. On leaving the sheriff's office he returned to the farm for three years, at the end of that time he was appointed post master, serving eight and one-half years, retiring in 1923.

He has been an active member of the Christian church most of his life, and at one time a member of the Masonic Lodge.

He was married to Nancy Jane McVey, Dec. 14, 1873. To this union nine children were born, Irilla, Lura, Samuel, Jim, Everett, Orlando, Edna, Clyde and also his wife preceeding him in death. One son, Paul, survives at Bloomfield, Iowa. He also leaves thirteen grandchildren, four great grandchildren and a host of other relatives and friends.

Funeral services were conducted at the Christian church in Lancaster by Rev. P. M. Lind. Burial in I.O.O.F. cemetery.

*Died June 13th, little Edna daughter of Nancy and Bennett Wardlow, aged 2 years 4 months and 19 days.

Your beloved Edna has passed away
From this time world to endless day.
How sadly you will miss her face
Since she has passed from your embrace.

Fold the little hands like snow flakes
On the pulseless marble breast.
Strew the couch with purest blossoms,
She has found eternal rest.

Our little Edna that was so dear
We never more can see her here
With tender hearts we laid her down,
But heaven smiled and gave a crown.

Then cease fond hearts to grieve and sigh,
Know well your loving Savior is nigh.
He will our griefs our burdens bear,
Then cast on him our ever care.

And when life's sorrows are all over,
On ange's wings to heaven we'll soar.
There meet our loved ones again,
And with King Jesus ever reign.

—Jacob Klien, living northeast of this place at the residence of his brother, Peter Klien, attempted to take his own life last Friday, by cutting his throat with a razor. He was successful in cutting the outer arteries but bid not reach the jugular vein Dr. Coffey was summoned at once and dressed the wound. He is very weak from loss of blood, and the wound may yet prove fatal, as Mr. Klien is about 84 years of age and too old and feeble to stand this drain on his sysjoin in the exultation and part to the uttermost in the ensuing contest. This is the spirit in which we meet our brethern and this is the spirit we expect to be reciprocated. In no other way can the harmony and dignity of the state be fostered and preserved by the convention."

BOIES IS NAMED.

When Iowa was called J. F. Duncombe nominated Horace Boies. The first ballot stood as follows. Cleveland 616½, Boise 103, Hill 112, Morrison 5, Campbell 2, Carlisle 15, Gorman 36½, Whitney 1, Russell 1, Stevenson 16, Pattison 3.

UNDER THE NEW RULE.

Under the new apportionment of votes accorded the territories it takes 607 votes to nominate instead of 599 under the old arrangement. It will take 607 to nominate the vice-president.

E. A. Stevenson, of Illinois, was nominated for Vice-President. Hurrah for Cleveland and Stevenson!

—Monday of this week the bids for refunding bonds were opened by the county court. Five broker firms had sent in bids. After opening and comparing the bids it was found that L. A. Coquard, of St. Louis, was the highest and best bidder, and his proposition was accepted by the court. He proposed to take from $175,000 to $200,000 refunding bonds at the rate of $1,107.66 cash for each bond of $1,000 and agreed to pay $75 toward defraying the expenses of having the bonds registered. The bonds are to be dated May 12th, 1892, and he also agreed to donate the county the interest accruing on the bonds from May 12th to the date of the delivery which will be about July 1st. The next highest bid was made by the Donaldson Bond and Stock Co., their offer being $1,011.88 and interest to date of delivery on each $1,000 bond. The Coquard bid amounts to a fraction over two per cent. premium, and in view of the fact that the county had been fighting its old bonded debt for over twenty years we think the bonds commanded a good price. Some of the firms bidding on the bonds, if not all of them, had representatives present, and at one

Mrs. M. Stout of Seymore, Ia., returned home Saturday after visiting R. Powers and family.

Vinita.

Died, on April, 19, 1903, Alonzo Wardlow. Deceased was buried on Monday, 20, and the funeral was astended by an unusually large audience, of sorrowing relatives and neighbors, who realize that a good man had died. Rev. Hollowell of Queen City conducted the obsequies, at the Darby church and cemetery.

Sam Botts of near Downing had the misfortune to completely mash the bones in his little fingers, one day the past week by getting it caught in the cog-wheel of a wire stretcher. Dr. Chas. Kratzer dressed the wounded phalange and it's doing well.

Chas. Jackson had a fine mare and colt to die one day the past week, but Chas. is a hustler and will get there just the same.

D. Jones will soon contract for a fall and winter school, and then go on a visit to Kansas City, to see his children who live there. He came to this county in March 1893, and since that time has taught 24 terms of school within sight of where he is boarding now, having educated more young teachers in that time than any other two teachers who have taught in Schuyler county during that time.

Tivis Maize has contracted, so we are told, for his home school to be taught next fall and winter. This is in honor to any young man, to be employed in his home school.—New Zion.

Little Everett Brook split his great toe open on Sunday, 19 and is aiming to make it pay for itself.

Thos. Gatts fell in a well about 18 feet deep but is not seriously hurt.

Sterling Cleeton of Colorado is visiting his uncle, Moses Cleeton, near Jacksonville.

A. J. Gatts has rented the Minor Norman farm. Look out for elbow room, Jack.

Edgar Heaton has returned from Keokuk.

Mr. Alonzo Wardlow departed this life Sunday evening at three p. m., April, 19, he was a good citizen and loved by all who knew him. He was a member of the Christian church and led an upright life. A mother, father, wife and three children and one brother and a host of other relatives and friends mourn the irreparable loss. After the funeral he was laid to rest in the Darby cemetery to wait the coming of the Lord. May God comfort the loved ones left and help all of us whose privilege it was to know him to imitate his noble uprightness is our prayer.

Why Not in Lancaster?

An enthusiastic meeting of ladies was held Saturday afternoon at the court house in Macon, for the purpose of organizing an association with the object to undertake a general work of making Macon a cleaner, healthier and more attractive city. Many prominent church workers and society ladies are connected with the association, which will be known as the civic improvement league of Macon.

FEAR AND SCHNOEBELEN VOWS SAID

Miss Jeanne Schnoebelen, daughter of Mrms Fred Schnoebelen, walked with her father down the candlelighted aisle to the altar of the church Mary Immaculate, Thursday afternoon at 4 p.m., where she became the bride of P.F.C. Ernest Green Fear, United States Army. White chrysanthemums, palms and lemon foliage on the altar provided a background for the ceremony.

The double ring ceremony was performed by the brides brother, Rev. Paul Schnoebelen of Denver, Colorado.

The former Miss Schnoebelen, whose family home is at 1605 K Ave. N. E., Cedar Rapids, Iowa, wore a gown of white duchess satin, encrusted with seed pearls around the wide neck line. The voluminous skirt lengthened to a long train and the slim sleeves were buttoned at the wrists. The brides finger tip length veil was held in place by a small cloche of lace and satin. A bertha necklace of seeded pearls was her only jewelry, a gift from the groom. Her shower bouquet was composed of gardenias and lillies of the valley combined with trailing ivy.

Mrs, Robert Sharp, twin sister of the bridegroom, in an apple red strapless frock of nylon net over taffetta served as honor maid. Mrs. Everett Frimneel, sister of the bride, was matron of honor wearing a gold satin frock. Garlands of white baby mums adorned their heads. They held crescent boquets of white baby mums with gold colored ornaments and gold streamers.

P.F.C. Fear, son of Mrs. Mabel Fear, Lancaster, Mo., was attended by Robert L. Sharp of St. Louis, Mo., and Clayton Schnoebelen of Cedar Rapids, Iowa, brother of the bride.

Chas Leo Jeffries and Otis York of Lancaster, Mo., and Mr. Everett Frimneel of Cedar Rapids were ushers.

Immediately following the marriage service the guests attended a reception at the home of the bride's parents. The table was centered with a four-tiered wedding cake topped with a minature bride and groom. This

WARNER

1. Per the 1870 U.S. Census, Elijah and Lucinda (Devore) Warner were living at Cherry Grove, Schuyler Co., Missouri with their three (3) youngest sons, including John Porter Warner who was 21 years old.
2. Apparently Elijah and Lucinda Warner moved with their family from Higginsport, Ohio to Schuyler Co., Missouri during the Civil War (early 1860's), since the 1860 U.S. Census shows them living in Higginsport and their daughter, Amanda Jane Warner, was married to William Wallace Stratton in 1864 in Schuyler Co., Missouri.
3. John Porter Warner married Nancy Heaton on January 22, 1871 in Schuyler Co., Missouri.
4. Apparenty John and Nancy Warner moved, accompnied by his parents Elijah and Lucinda, to Elk City Kansas in 1871, since their first son, Charles, was born in 1872 in Kansas.
5. Nancy Warner had a total of three sons during the 1870's while living in Kansas. Nancy Warner died in November, 1879 of tuberculosis.

ELIJAH S. WARNER

Elijah S. Warner, born in Kentucky in September, 1809 to Susannah Warner (b. 1775), came to Ohio with his parents in the 1820's. In 1830, he began a career in teaching in Union Township of Brown Co. Shortly thereafter, on October 27, 1831, he married Lucinda Kirkpatrick (b. 1809). They settled near Higginsport, Ohio and Elijah continued teaching. He and Lucinda were to become proud parents of ten children, Elizabeth (b. 1837), Albert (b. 1839), Elijah S., Jr. (b. 1840), Amanda Jane (b. 2/23/1842), Phillip and Frederick - twins (b. 1844), Butler (b. 1846), Thomas J. (b. 1847), John Porter (b. 6/1848), and George (b. 1852). In addition to teaching to provide for his family during this period, Elijah also served as a Justice of the Peace for Lewis Township.

Elijah continued teaching until 1853 at which time he turned his efforts to farming to provide for his large family. With the lure of more and better LAND and with the encouragement of former Brown Co. residences, James ~~R.~~ J. and Elizabeth (Jacobs) Heaton, Sr., Elijah and Lucinda decided to move west during the early 1860's and join the Heatons in Schuyler Co., Missouri. It was there that their son, John Porter Warner, came to know Nancy Heaton (b. 1854 - Brown Co.), the youngest daughter of James and Elizabeth Heaton, Sr. John and Nancy were married at Lancaster, Missouri on January 22, 1871.

An aging Elijah and Lucinda moved in with John and Nancy where again the call to move west was heard. Both Elijah and Lucinda accompanied John and Nancy on their early 1870's journey from Missouri to Elk City, Kansas. While John took up the plow again, Elijah returned to the classroom, such as it was, to teach. After arriving in Kansas, John and Nancy began their family and had three sons, Charles (b. 18~~4~~72), William M. (b. 8/10/1874), and Everett (b. 12/1877). However, John and Nancy's marriage came to a sudden end with the death of Nancy in November, 1879 from tuberculosis. Soon after the death of both Elijah and Lucinda in the early 1880's, John again married. In the late 1880's and acompanied by his new wife, Frances, and now four sons, he moved south to Hutchins, Texas. John Porter Warner passed away on July 5, 1929 and was layed to rest in the Hutchins Cemetary. Compiled by J. Richard Warner, the great-great grandson of Elijah S. Warner.

Notes

Pauline Edwards (Mary Polly) was the daughter of George Edwards who owned a woolen mill in Georgetown,Ohio. We understand the town was named after him. Also according to conversation with their son, my father John E. Jacobs, he understood that George Edwards was a member of an Edwards family who emigrated from England and purchased land in New York City where Trinity Church and a part of Wall Street in located. This land was leased to Trinity church and the city for 99 years and then was re-leased for another 99 tears. The last lease was about to expire in 1925 and search was made for heirs to the estate but nothing developed as far as we know.

IN MEMORIAM.

Died, at her residence in Stockton, Mo, February 20, 1880, Mrs. Rosa Jacobs, wife of Orange A. Jacobs, aged 19 years and 27 days.

Deceased was born in Clermont co., O. and was married to Mr. Jacobs in September, 1878, and with her husband moved to this county April last.

It is unnecessary for us to attempt to pronounce any enconiums upon her life or character. All who knew her loved and respected her. Though here less than a year she made many friends and no enemies. In the midst of a useful life and with the bloom of youth still upon her, she was snatched away, and a once happy home is now left lonely and destitute of that which made it the one bright spot in the horizon of the young husband's existence. Our tears and sympathy can avail nothing now, but we tender the bereaved husband our sincere sympathy.—Stockton Stalwart.

So young, so dearly cherished,
When life seemed all before thee,
Th' unwelcome messenger of death
Has thrown his mantle o'er thee.

And it is hard to part with thee
Who gave our life its gladness;
For where the greatest joy has been
Thou hast left nought but sadness.

HER HUSBAND.

IN MEMORIAM.

Of Mrs. Francis A. Jacobs who died in Missouri, April 26, 1880, Aged 39 years 5 months and 8 days.

Calmly and peacefully she passed away,
With her friends and loved ones around her
Watching and longing for a farewell word,
Ere she passed to her home over yonder

But still she slept on in peaceful repose,
Her trials and sufferings all o'er;
Till God in his mercy called her home,
To be free from all pain ever more.

But, oh, what sorrowful hearts were there,
When we knew that her spirit had flown;
We shall never again know a mother's love,
Now that our loved one is gone.

Gone where the holy and purified dwell
To praise God on that beautiful shore;
To join her friends and loved ones there
Who in the past have gone on before.

And she'll look for us there when our work

VALUABLE REAL ESTATE FOR SALE.

I desire to sell at fair and low prices and on easy terms, the following real estate:

156 acres known as the "Tucker Farm" situated 3 miles east of Georgetown, on Straight creek, and on two Turnpikes. On it are three dwelling houses, two barns, orchard, &c. This is a No. 1 tobacco farm; few better in Brown county.

50 acres 2 miles west of Georgetown. Good house, outbuildings, a No. 1 orchard, some tobacco land, but most of the land requires rest and clovering; will be sold at a bargain.

65½ acres near Whiteoak Valley, 4½ miles north of Georgetown. On this tract is a new house, tobacco barn and good orchard. The soil is well adapted to tobacco, wheat and corn raising. A bargain can be had in this tract.

56 acres in Scott township, known as the Pizzini land, well timbered, but no improvements. Will be sold very low.

130 acres of good farming land, well improved, in Scott township. Will be sold to the right man at a low figure.

55 acres of good farming and pasture land, south of and almost adjoining the Corporation of Georgetown. No buildings. Will be sold at a low figure.

47 acres, my homestead, 1½ miles south of Georgetown. Soil first-class, and well adapted to grass and grain, with some good tobacco land. Location not excelled. Improvements first-class. Cheap at $100.00 per acre.

26¼ acres adjoining homestead. The quality of the soil, and the location, make this a very desirable tract of land; worth $50 per

FAMILY HISTORY

JACOBS - WARDLOW

Prepared in the BiCentennial Year 1976

This is a record of all known ancestors and relatives of LeRoy and Bernice Jacobs. Including our children, Grandchildren and Great Grandchildren, covering eight generations.

I realize some of the dates, names and other references may be inaccurate because the information has been taken from so many different papers, records and oral versions that have been gathered over the years that this record covers. However, I believe it to be as complete as most Historical Records are.

THE JACOBS/DENNIS FAMILY

GEN.3. 6. John E. Jacobs (1843-1931) married Rhoda Dennis (1847-1923) in the year of 1864. They had eight children. Four boys, four girls. John E. Jacobs served in the Civil War as a member of the "Ohio Squirrel Hunters" a regiment formed much like the present day "Ohio National Guard". Hearing that Cincinnati was menaced by General Kirby Smith's Confederates, the Squirrel Hunters were mobilized in 1862 and marched to help defend the city. They marched to Camp Dennison on the Little Miami River, near Cincinnati and while there they received word that the Confederate invasion had run out of steam near Lexington, Kentucky. Although John E. Jacobs served only a few months, he received discharge papers signed by Governor David Todd of Ohio, dated September, 1862. and accompanied by a "Certificate of Service". The discharge papers read,"Cincinnati was menaced by the enemies of our Union, David Todd, Governor of Ohio, called on the Minute Men of the state and the 'Squirrel Hunters' came by the thousands to the rescue. You, John E. Jacobs, were one of them and this is your honorable discharge."
After John and Rhoda were married they moved to a farm owned by his grandfather, John J. Jacobs in Atchinson County, Missouri, where my father, Charles F. Jacobs, was born.in 1867. They later moved back to Ohio and bought a farm in the "west fork" neighborhood between Arnheim and Georgetown, in Brown County, Ohio where they spent the remainder of their lives.

Klein, in Ripley, Ohio, at the advanced age of 88 years, 5 months and 15 days. He was one of a family of 6 children, four sons and two daughters, one brother only surviving, Henry Jacobs, of Bethel, Ohio. He was one of the descendents of a pioneer family that in the early history of Brown county settled in the northern part of Franklin township between Arnheim and Sardinia, many of whose descendents played an important part in the development of Brown county, both in reducing the virgin forests to tillable soil and in administering offices of trust and honor within the gift of the people. With the exception of two years spent in Missouri, Mr. Jacobs spent his entire life in and around Georgetown, Ohio. His was a life of industry and peace, doing good and not evil throughout the long journey of his earthly pilgrimage. On the 25th day of May, in the year of 1865, he was united in marriage with Miss Rhoda Dennis, to which union were born four sons and four daughters: Icelina Rhoten, Charles Jacobs, William Jacobs, Ida Klein, Mary R. Groppenbacher, Maude Berry, Cash Jacobs and Henry Jacobs. His wife and two daughters, Mrs. Icelina Rhoten and Mrs. Mary R. Groppenbacher, preceded him in death. In early life he became a member of the Christian Union church at West Fork Chapel and continued his membership there until he exchanged this mortal life for the one immortal.

He leaves mourning his departure six children: Charles Jacobs, William Jacobs, Mrs. Ida Klein, Mrs. Maude Berry, Cash Jacobs and Henry Jacobs, also one brother, Henry Jacobs, Bethel, Ohio; forty-one grandchildren, forty-seven great grandchildren, and four great-great grandchildren, besides a host of other relatives and friends.

"We may not know the reason why
Dark clouds so often veil the sky;
Or why our seas are smooth or rough,
Our God knows why, and that's enough."

Card Of Thanks

We wish to express our sincere appreciation of the kindly assistance and the many expressions and tokens of sympathy from our many friends and neighbors during the illness and in our great bereavement by the death of our beloved Father, John E. Jacobs.

John E. (1843-1931) married Rhoda Dennis (1847-1923) in 1864 and had eight children 4 boys and 4 girls. John E. Jacobs served during the Cival War as a member of the "Ohio Squirrel Hunter" a regiment formed much like our "Ohio National Guard" today. Hearing that Cincinnati was menaced by General Kirby Smith's confederates, the Squirrel Hunters were organized in 1862 to march to help defend the city. They marched to Camp Dennison, on the Little Miami River, near Cincinnati and while they received no word that the confederate invasion had run out of steam near Lexington, Kentucky. Although he served only a few months, he received discharge papers signed by the Governor David Tod of Ohio, dated September 1862 and accompanied by a certificate of service. The discharge papers read:
"Cincinnati was menaced by the enemies of our union, David Tod Governor of Ohio, called upon the minute men of the state and the "Squirrel Hunters". Came by the thousands to the rescue. You John E. Jacobs, were one of them and this is your honorable discharge."

JAMES WINFIELD JACKSON AND MARY CATHERINE MONTGOMERY-Mary Catherine Montgomery was born in Decatur, Brown County, OH, May 24, 1854 to Samuel Montgomery (1829-1899) and Margaret A. Ebrite (1831-1881). She was the granddaughter of Boone Montgomery and Mary Ann Foster, the great-granddaughter of David Montgomery and Sarah Boone, and the great-great-granddaughter of Samuel Boone and Sarah Day. Samuel Boone was an older brother of the famous Daniel Boone.

James Winfield Jackson; Mary Catherine Montgomery

On Oct. 28, 1874, Mary Catherine Montgomery was married in Brown County by Rev. J.L. Gregg to James Winfield Jackson, born May 4, 1849 to Samuel G. Jackson (1821-1889) and Catherine Beauford Kirker (1827-1912). James Winfield had served during the Civil War with Co. I, 141st Regt. Ohio Infantry Volunteers. To this union seven children were born: Esther Floy Jackson (1875-1944), Fred Earl Jackson (1876-1966), Omar Montgomery Jackson (1880-1957), William Kirker Jackson (1882-1945) who was named for his great-great-grandfather Thomas Kirker who served as Governor of the state of Ohio from March 4, 1807 until Dec. 8, 1808, Ella Zoe Jackson (1889-1955), Harry Glenmore Jackson (1894-1987) and Merle Kathleen Jackson (1898-1960).

In 1913 the entire family moved to Exeter, Tulare County, CA, and for many years served in that community as farmers, carpenters, barbers, brick-makers and homemakers.

James Winfield Jackson died Nov. 6, 1924, and Mary Catherine Montgomery Jackson, his wife of 50 years, died Aug. 30, 1927. They are buried beside each other in the Exeter District Cemetery, and over the years have been surrounded by all of their children, grandchildren, great-grandchildren, and other descendants. Submitted by Dorothy Jackson.

The parents of Charles Freborn Jacobs were John Jacobs and Rhoda (Dennis) Jacobs and a brother of Cash, Henry and William and his sisters were: Ida (Klein), Maud (Berry), Ica Alina (Carberry) and Mayme (Gropenbacher). Submitted by Kenneth Ellis. (over)

JENKINS-William Jenkins, Sr. was born in Pennsylvania July 3, 1770, and died in Brown County, OH Aug. 12, 1856. His wife Hannah Jury was born in Pennsylvania in 1778 and died Dec. 17, 1830, in Brown County, OH.

William owned land in Frederick County, VA, which had once been owned by Lord Fairfax, the original patentee. This land was sold to Jesse Taylor in 1819; after which they evidently lived in Pennsylvania for a time before moving to a large farm in Huntington Township, Brown County, OH around 1822. All their 10 children were born in Virginia except the youngest child, Hannah, who was born in Ohio. When his wife, Hannah, died in 1830 he grubbed out bushes on his property for a burial place for her. Later he gave additional land to create the Hickory Ridge Cemetery. He, his wife, and eight of his children were buried there.

Besides farming, William and Hannah operated a hotel on Hickory Ridge. Their children were: John (1808-1882), Ann Paul (1809-?), Mary (1810-1868), Sarah Hall (1811-1835), Abraham (1811-1835), Eliza Jane Donaldson (1813-1892), Silas (1815-1835), William Jr. (1818-1899), Matilda Chain (1820-1851), and Hannah (1823-1865).

Sometime prior to the making of his will, William had given plots of land to each of his then-living children except for Mary and Hannah who were unmarried and living at home. Some of these plots were in Brown County and some on Suck Run in Adams County. In his will he gave 50 acres of land to a grandson, John Hall, and 50 acres to his wife's brother, Abner Jury, for his lifetime after which it was to pass back to Mary and Hannah. The remainder of his land, around 200 acres, was willed to Mary and Hannah, along with all personal property. Later Mary and Hannah donated land adjacent to the cemetery on which the Hickory Ridge Church was built.

Two of his four sons died in early manhood. His oldest son, John, and wife Winifred had three sons and six daughters. There are no known descendants with the name Jenkins from this line.

William Jr. was married to Olivine Redmon (1822-1860) in 1842. Their children were: Martha Jane Bowman (1845-1915), Minerva A. (1847-1849), Lucinda (1849-1912), William M. (1851-1909), Emma Belle Brumley (1852-1913). Maurice Lane (1854-1942), Henry Lee (1856-1928), Olivine Adamson (1858-1934), and Abner Jury (1860-1940).

Olivine died when Abner Jury was about two weeks old. The older girls kept house for the family until they married and left home. The youngest daughter, Olivine, quit school at age 10 to take over the housekeeping duties for her father and brothers. In 1873 William Jr. married Eliza Butts Carter (1835-1910) and they had three children: Elizabeth Jane Burbage (1874-1948), Aaron (1875-1879), and Edgar (1877-1883).

There are many descendants of William, Sr. and Hannah in Brown or Adams County or elsewhere. Besides the name Jenkins are the names Paul, Donaldson, Tumbleson, Roush, Bowman, Brumley, Bryan, Adamson, Surbage and others who descended from William and Hannah. Submitted by Dorothy Layman (a great-granddaughter of Lucinda Jenkins).

GEORGE JENNINGS-Bible records state George Jennings was born Jan. 8, 1776, in England. He came to America about 1783 as a young lad. George and his wife, Ellen, probably had six children, only two are known: Solomon, (April 24, 1804) and Elizabeth (March 25, 1814) both born Smyrna, Kent County, DE. Elizabeth was baptized Jan. 18, 1820, at St. Peters Church, Smyrna.

When George Jennings died in the spring of 1814, his Kent County probate papers prove that he was a shoemaker with a sizable inventory. The number of beds (six) leads one to realize there were more people in the household than is known.

Ellen Jennings born 1787, Delaware, married again to a Mr. Romney sometime after 1814. (See Solomon Jennings history).

Elizabeth Jennings was married in Delaware to Isaac Colgan and had one daughter Margaret Ellen (May 26, 1836) Smyrna, who married 1860 in Brown County, OH, to Joseph Kirk. Elizabeth married #2 in 1849, Brown County to Aaron Purdum and had four children; John, Sarah, Caroline and George. Elizabeth Purdum and Margaret Kirk are buried in Sardinia Cemetery. Submitted by Eugene Martin Jennings Jr.

JENNINGS-McCLARE-ROSS-Solomon Jennings, son of George, was born in Kent County, DE, April 24, 1804. He married Oct. 1, 1828, in Delaware, to Margaret McClare, daughter of Hugh and Ann McClare. They had three sons: George A., John Andrew and Martin Creedy Jennings, all three born near Smyrna, Kent County, DE.

During a 20 month period in years, 1835 and 1836, a typhoid fever epidemic was rampant. This may be the cause of the death of Margaret (McClare) Jennings, Isaac Cologan (husband of Solomon's sister Elizabeth) and others of the family during that time. It may also be the cause for the move to Ohio in 1836.

Solomon Jennings was married secondly, Aug. 29, 1850, in Brown County, OH to Mrs. Sarah Jane (Ross) Wells (widow of Henry Wells, with two children: Alice and William Wells.) Solomon and Jane had one child: Elizabeth (May 16, 1852) in Brown County. She married Charles E. Griffith (Feb. 25, 1869) Brown County. To this union was born four children: Jennie Lavina Griffith born 1870 married William Prather. Solomon Jennings Griffith born 1872 married Nellie M. Mullen. Orlando Hamilton Griffith born 1875 married Mrs. Luella (Wood) Fenton and Jesse Elwood Griffith born 1878 married Sylvia Dunn.

Charles Griffith died 1901 and Elizabeth (Jennings) Griffith married second George Clinton McFadden in 1908. She died March 7, 1937, and is buried at Rose Hill Cemetery beside her first husband Charles Griffith.

Solomon Jennings owned farms in Washington Township and Lewis Townships until his death April 8, 1878, in Feesburg. Jane died Dec. 16, 1878, and both are buried in Mt. Zion Cemetery, Lewis Township. (See George A. Jennings this volume, eldest son of Solomon Jennings).

Second son of Solomon Jennings was John Andrew Jennings (May 7, 1831) near Smyrna, DE. He was married in Brown County, OH, Dec. 14, 1854, to Sarah A. Carter, daughter of Levi and Rachel Carter in Lewis Township. They raised a family of 10 children: Margaret Ellen born 1855, married Thomas Houser; Martin Carter born 1857, married Lizzie Stayton; Grafton Molen born 1859, unmarried; Levi Douglas born 1861, unmarried; Louella J. born 1863, married Alvin Bolender; George B. born 1865, married Osa Gardner; May Elizabeth born 1867, married James Ware; Sarah Adaline born 1869, married Charlie Shinkle; James Oliver born 1870, married Bessie Hilebroner; and John Andrew born 1874, married Bercha Beckelheimer.

All of this family are buried in Shinkles Ridge Cemetery, except Margaret and Thomas Houser who are buried in Swanie Cemetery, Felicity, OH.

The third son of Solomon Jennings was Martin Creedy Jennings who was born (Oct. 26, 1834) near Smyra, DE. He was married Feb. 25, 1862, in Brown County, OH, to Sarah Emiline Edson, daughter of Rev. Alvin and Margaret (Blackburn) Edson. They raised their family of 14 children on a farm in Lewis Township, Route 221: William, Margaret, Linne (who married a Reeves), Connell (buried Washington, D.C.), Paul, John A., Anna (who married Charles Utter), Sarah Edith (who married Oval Scott), Grover Cleveland (who married Nellie Gillespie), Thurman and four who died young, Minnie, George, Ida May and an infant son. Most of this family are buried in Eden, Higginsport and Confidence Cemeteries. Submitted by L'Vera Jennings Seipelt.

GEORGE A. AND MELVINA (ROSS) JENNINGS-George A. Jennings was born July 24, 1829, near Smyrna, DE, eldest son of Solomon and Margaret (McClare) Jennings. He came to Brown County, OH, with his father and brothers: John Andrew and Martin Creedy, his Aunt Elizabeth (Jennings) Colgan, her daughter, Margaret Ellen, and his grandmother Ellen Romney in 1836 soon after his mother's death. During the Civil War, he was in the Brown County Militia. He was Justice of Peace in Lewis Township for several years after 1872. He purchased a small farm in 1867 near Higginsport, in Lewis Township, on Higgins survey #397, where most of his children were born.

His first marriage in Brown County, Dec. 29, 1853, was to Amanda Frances, daughter of John Overturf. Two children were born: Benjamin Franklin, Oct. 19, 1854, who married 1875 to Nancy Davis; Mary Ellen born Jan. 9, 1857, who married 1880 Alfred Pierce (one son, Elmer, and raised niece Stella Marie).

ROY ALBA AND LELA ALICE (JACOBS) ELLIS-The Ellis Family (Welsh origin) migrated to Southern Ohio from Pennsylvania. The family branch now residing in Sardinia are descendants of Robert Lee Ellis and Alice Ella (Mullen) Ellis.

Roy and Lela Ellis moved to Sardinia, OH in 1939. They had five children, who all reside in Sardinia, except their oldest son, Kenneth R., who lives in Fayetteville, GA.

Roy worked for the Ellis' Feed Mill in Sardinia from 1939 until his retirement. He also served on the Sardinia Village Council and was a volunteer fireman. Lela has been a homemaker.

Roy Alba and Lela Alice (Jacobs) Ellis

The children of Roy and Lela are: (1) Edna Louise, born July 31, 1924, married to Stanley Mignerey; they had four children, Patricia, Sandra, David and Steven. They have ten grandchildren: (2) Kenneth Roy, born Oct. 11, 1927, married Verna Josephine Slone; they had four children: Terry Jo, Michael, Richard and Donald. They have four grandchildren and four great-grandchildren. (3) Melvin Ray, born Oct. 22, 1930, married Mildred Ann Conn; they had one daughter, Kimberly Ann, and they have three grandchildren. (4) Clifford Alvin, born July 6, 1937, married Annis Faye Hopkins and they had six children: Clifford Scott, Tracey Annette, Chrystal Suzanne, Todd, Ruston, and Ronald; they have ten grandchildren. (5) Karen Lee, born Dec. 27, 1940, married Robert Glen Hopkins and they had two sons, Randall and John.

Roy's parents were Robert Lee Ellis (1871-1961) and Alice Ella Mullen (1875-1965). They were parents of four children.

Lela Alice (Jacobs) Ellis, wife of Roy, was one of fourteen children born to Charles Freborn Jacobs (Aug. 13, 1867-July 1, 1961) and Nellie Blanch Watson (June 1, 1878-Sept. 24, 1947). Submitted by Melvin Ellis.

ELLIS-WEBER-SPILLER-Mr. Duncan Ellis's great-great-grandparents came from Wales to Pennsylvania. James, grandfather of Duncan, fought in the French and Indian War. He died in Pennsylvania. Duncan's grandmother and Duncan's father and several brothers came down the Monongahela River to Ohio in 1795 and finally settled in Brown County. Duncan was born in a log cabin on the west corner of what is now Confidence Cemetery between Georgetown and New Hope.

Duncan married Elizabeth Jane (Jacobs) on Christmas Day, 1845. Elizabeth was the daughter of James and Isabel Jacobs and was born in 1824 near Eagle Creek, Ripley, OH. Duncan and Elizabeth had 10 children, Warren, John, William, Jasper, Elizabeth, Beckie, Margaret Maggie (Wells) Hannah, Clark, and two small children who died young. Duncan and Elizabeth were married for 65 years and spent their entire lives in Brown County. Duncan died in 1919, and Elizabeth died April 29, 1919.

Albert Sr. and Naomi (Ellis) Spiller, 60th Wedding Anniversary, 1992.

Jasper Ellis was born near Brownstown on Sept. 30, 1862. He was united in marriage on June 28, 1886, to Anna Weber. Anna was the second child of Joseph and Rachel (Hauck) Weber, who were parents of 15 children. Joseph Weber fought in the Civil War, and his youngest son, Jake, in World War I. Jasper bought a small farm from his father and mother on Hamer Rd., Georgetown, OH.

Jasper and Anna lived their entire married life at this location and celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary. They had two sons, George Lee and Raymond. Raymond married Maud Johnson and had two sons, and both died at birth. George married Edna Lucas and had seven children: Naomi, Lloyd, Roy, Virginia, Gladys, Anna Kathryn, and infant daughter Morella, died in birth. George, Edna, and family moved to Cotulla, TX, in 1923; however, daughter Naomi stayed in Georgetown and lived with her grandparents, Jasper and Anna Ellis. All the other children married and remained in Texas. George and Edna are buried in Cotulla, TX.

Naomi remained in Ohio and graduated from Georgetown High School in 1931. She married Albert Spiller, son of Frank and Teresa (Klinker) Spiller, on Jan. 16, 1932, at St. Mary's Catholic Church, Georgetown, and then moved to a farm near Ripley. They had four children, Albert Jr., George, Joseph, and Patricia. Albert Jr. married Gail Haitz and had three sons, Michael, Jeffrey, and Christopher. George married Doris McElfresh and had a son, Tyrone, and a daughter, Robin; and Joseph married Linda Whitehurst and had one daughter, Jolin. Patricia married Barry Daulton and had two sons, Barry Lee and Bryan, and a daughter, Angela.

Angela died at nine months while undergoing open-heart surgery.

Albert and Naomi Spiller retired from farm to the town of Ripley in 1972. They celebrated their 60th Wedding Anniversary on Jan. 16, 1992. Submitted by Mrs. Naomi Ellis Spiller.

SAMUEL ELLIS, SR.-Samuel Ellis, Sr., was born in 1752, Frederick County, MD, the son of James and Mary Veatch Ellis. James and Mary Ellis came from Wales around 1750 and were the parents of six sons in all: Nathan, Jeremiah, Samuel, Hezekiah, James, and Jesse. Nathan, Jesse, and Samuel served in the American Revolutionary War. Samuel served under Col. William Stevenson's command.

After the Revolutionary War, Samuel married Mary Fry, crossed the Potomac River into Virginia, and became a neighbor of Col. Robert Higgins. When the Virginia Military District became available, Col. Higgins came west and personally selected the site and laid his warrant for one thousand acres on the Ohio, including the mouth of White Oak Creek. Col. Higgins came to owe Samuel Ellis, Sr. twelve hundred dollars and proposed to pay his debt with any two hundred acres that might be selected from his tract. Samuel accepted this offer and the six Ellis brothers, their now widowed mother, and their families gathered their substances into a flatboat at Fort Red Stone, PA. From there, they floated down the Monogahela and the Ohio to Limestone Point (now Maysville) which was reached April 27, 1795.

Samuel Ellis' tract was at White Oak and Straight Creeks and was the first settlement made in Pleasant Township by the white race. The farm was occupied by the same family for 115 years. Besides developing his land into a productive farm, Samuel also engaged in the river ferrying business, and in later life held the office of Justice of the peace. Samuel had ten children, who among them was Abraham F. Ellis.

Abraham was born in Virginia in 1791, and was married to Elizabeth Ellis in 1813. They purchased 100 acres of land in Lewis Township where they lived the rest of their lives. Abraham was, like his father, a farmer and also served as Justice of the Peace. It has been told that when he was seventeen, he encountered and killed the last bear in Pleasant Township.

Among the crops raised by Abraham Ellis was tobacco. The nearby town of Higginsport had by that time become an important tobacco center. The story of Burley tobacco originated in this area. The first light colored plants grew on the farm of Capt. Fred Kautz while he was away serving in the Civil War. The plants were grown by George Webb and Joseph Floor. Burley was first marketed in Higginsport. Abraham Ellis, a neighbor of Capt. Kautz, also had spots of this tobacco appear in his tobacco bed. It is thought that Abraham Ellis may have suggested the name of White Burley for this type of tobacco.

Abraham and his wife had twelve children. Their eighth child, William Poleman Ellis, remained his entire life on the family farm, and with his wife Jane Slack Ellis, raised six sons. Abraham, his wife, and other family members are buried in the family cemetery located on the farm. Submitted by Katherine L. Fichter, 4th great-granddaughter of Samuel Ellis Georgetown, OH.

Charles Freeborn Jacobs s/o John E. and Rhoda Dennis Jacobs was born Aug. 13,1867 in Atchinson Co. Missouri on a farm owned by his great grandfather, James Jacobs. Charles had very little formal education probably to 4th or 5th grade. It is unknown exactly when he returned to Ohio but know that his early manhood was spent working by the day or month for various farmers around Brown County,Ohio.
After marriage he accumulated household goods, live stock and farm tools enough to enable him to start farming. He started as a tenant farmer, renting the farm from the owner on a share crop basis, usually agreeing with the landlord to return half of what he grew, such as corn, wheat, hay and tobacco in exchange for the use of house, barn, vegatable garden and pature land for the live stock. With this arrangement he was able to support his family but it resulted in his moving to a different farm every two to three years in order to have a better income or better land to farm. He was never able to accumulate enough to have a farm of his own. However about 1935 he sold his stock and equipment and was able to buy a small home in Arnheim, Ohio and retire. He almost reached the age of 94. He died after a short illness in Brown County Hospital and was buried in the family plot in Confidence Cemetery, Georgetown, Brown County,Ohio on July 4,1961.

The writer, LeRoy Jacobs was born in Pike Township, Brown County,Ohio. I attended 6 different one room schools scattered over the county and was able to get one years of high school at Mt. Orab,Ohio. I left the farm in the spring of 1926, worked for a short time at the U.S. Boyle Wax Factory in Evanston,Ohio. They were paying me $16.00 per week. I quit cause they wouldn't give me $17.00. In December of 1926 I started work at the U. S. Can Co., Norwood,Ohio at a rate of 35 cents per hour, for a 49 1/2 hour week , 5 days at 9 hours and 4 1/2 hour on Saturday, this resulted in a weekly pay of $17.33.
Continental Can Co. bought out the U.S. Can Co. in 1928 and kept all the employees as a part of Continental Organization. We also got a raise in pay. I think I was making 50 cents per hour and $25.00 a week, when I met Bernice we were married. In 1934 I was made Shipping foreman and Traffic Manager which position I held until retirement in March of 1968.

[illegible]ernice Wardlow d/o of Lafeyette and Mary Collins Wardlow was born on a farm in Warren County,Ohio near Harveysburg and Lebanon,Ohio. She attended Sroufe School, a one room grade school near White Oak,Ohio. She graduated from Mt. Orab High school in 1927. I first met her at a picture show in Mt. Orab, Ohio in 1926. It was a silent film and I don't remember what it was about. Her parents wouldn't let us go steady until 1928 but she couldn't get away from me. We were married on August 22,1929 by Rev. John Quinlan, who was also in charge of the licence bureau at the court house in Georgetown,Ohio.Her mother went along because she was 20 years old.

Dick and Judy were married on November 11,1961. He had enlisted in the U.S. Navy following graduation from Woodward High School and had almost completed his first hitch when they decided to get married while he was home between service assignments. Most of his service was spent aboard the aircraft carrier "Sartoga", as a radar technician. He made several trips to the Medertranian area on the Saratoga. Then transfered to a mine sweeper to get experience in "Sonar". He made one tour of the Medertranian on the ship and then after returning to the states they went to San Juan,Porto Rico and while in port the ship caught fire and in spite of all efforts to save the ship,it sank. Dick lost all his personal effects and he returned to his home port of Charleston, South Carolina on another ship. The Saratoga's home port was Mayport,Florida at Jacksonville. After leaving the navy he took a job with American Liner Supply Co. and is presently plant superentendant of their plant in Indianapolis. He bought a home on Berwyn Street, about 5 miles from the plant.

Eddie was given the first name of "Orange" but he didn't like it so he changed it to "John", which is the name of our grandfather. Eddie worked for the Globle Wernicke Co. until after he married then they moved to California about 1948. They moved back and lived for a year or two at Columbus,Ohio then returned to California. Their home is in Englewood, near Los Angelos. Eddie works for the Automobile Drivers Licence Bureau. Teresa's mother lives in Denver,Colorado.

Known as "Buck" or "Orange". Eddie had one of his legs cut off above the ankle when he was about 12 years of age. His brother Tommy was cutting hay with a horse drawn mower. He sent Eddie to get a whip from a tree branch and coming back he didn't notice he was in the path of the mower blades as the horse passed him, he struck them with the whip, they jumped forward and pulled the blades into him. They hauled him to the house on a sled and Dr. Clemons of New Hope and Dr. Chambers of Sardinia,Ohio finished the amputation and sewed up his leg as he lay on the kitchen table. Those old country doctors did a remarkable job, considering the handicap, the loss of blood, the danger of infection and the length of time it took them to get to the farm, which was about five miles from each of them. The neighbors started a fund and collected enough money so that he was able to buy an artificial leg within a very short time. Dr. Clemons brought him to Cincinnati to be fitted for the leg and while down here he took him to see his first picture show. He rememberede nearly every detail of it and we were very interested listening to him tell about it and about Cincinnati.

Rogers Clark, Daniel Boone, Simon Kenton and other fellow soldiers. Simon Kenton was stricken once with black smallpox and nursed back to health by Mrs. Buckner, who refused to let her slaves wait on him, thus preventing spread of it. Captain Buckner's grandfather, Richard Buckner, was a member of the House of Burgesses. During the Revolution, he gave of his personal fortune in the cause of Virginia and received later, thousands of acres of land in Ohio and Kentucky in recognition of his assistance.

The McTamany sisters' ancestry can be traced as far as Alfred the Great of England. Many of their ancestral lines are the same as those of the present Queen Elizabeth of England, who descends from four American colonists of Royal descent who are also the ancestors of the McTamany sisters. Tirsa McTamany Campbell has a large chart showing their ancestry and that of the Queen's ancestry in this country and where the lines join with their royal ancestry in England, all of which has been verified, published with many references given as to where these records may be found in the eastern states as well as elsewhere, proving this lineage. It is a strange coincidence that they are related to both the Duke of Windsor and his wife, Elizabeth Wallis Warfield, the Duchess of Windsor. She and they are seven generations removed from the same ancestor, John Warfield. The sisters are eligible for membership in the Society of Colonial Dames and the Society of Colonial Wars through seven lines: Colonel John Taliaferro, Sr., Colonel John Taliaferro, Jr., Captain John Battaille, Major Lawrence Smith, Colonel John Catlett, Sr., Colonel John Catlett, Jr., and Colonel William Thornton. Along with the above names of ancestors, they add with pride the ancestral names of Captain Philip Buckner and Colonel Robert Higgins, who in their day and age, did their part to form the United States. - Compiled by: Mrs. George T. (Tirsa McTamany) Campbell, 409 South Main Street, Georgetown, Ohio 45121

THE COURTS FAMILIES OF BROWN COUNTY

This family named is often written as COATS and mispronounced as such. The Courts families of Brown County migrated from the Somersetshire section of England, some of them coming to America as early as 1640. During the Colonial period, several families by this name were living in the Charles and Montgomery Counties area of Maryland. During the period of the Revolutionary War, members of these families are found listed among those who contributed their lives in the struggle for American freedom.

In the decades following the Revolution when many thousands heard 'the call of the Great West' with all its countless dangers, a goodly number of those bearing the name Courts proved their willingness to be partakers of whatever 'weal or woe' awaited them in that unknown wilderness. Many pioneers did come to the West in quest of material gain and while doing so either laid aside or entirely forgot 'the higher purposes of life' in their eagerness to obtain their goals; however, the first of our families, George and Teresa Courts, who made their appearance in the Brown County area in 1805, retained their Christian purposes, and kept them an all important part of their lives while living in this strange wilderness. In 1811, while living in the Ripley neighborhood on the banks of Eagle Creek, where nearby the very first Methodist Congregation of the entire Brown County section was organized, we find among the list of its charter members, the names of George and Teresa Courts along with that of their oldest daughter, Dorcas Courts. This original family most certainly left a worthwhile example for all their posterity in "keeping first things first."

This family consisted of George, his wife Teresa, sons John, George, Jr., Joseph Bennett; and daughters, Dorcas, Allie and Mary. Following the death of his first wife Teresa, about 1816, George Sr., married Polly Davies and with her had William D., born in 1820 and Theresa, born in 1824. George Sr. died in Brown County in 1845, and Polly, his wife, died in 1857.

Dorcas never married and died before 1826; Allie married George Hendrixson and raised a large family. (See the Mershon and Hendrixson family.) Mary married Isaac Holloway, who was of Shaker background, and following her death there are no available records concerning the whereabouts of her several children. Joseph Bennett Courts married Margaret Berry and their children were: Elizabeth, who married Jesse Liming; Martha, who married Jacob Kennedy; Margaret; Nathan, who married Amanda Pitzer; and Reuben, who never married. Nathan and Amanda had children: Electa; Willard, who married Mertie Stansberry; Cora Etta, who married William Fite, and were the parents of Floyd and Lloyd Fite, who yet live in the Mt. Nebo neighborhood.

George Courts, Jr., married Catherine Hiler in Brown County, Ohio, on November 10, 1820. (See the Hiler Family.) Their children were: John Hiler (Courts) twin of Allie; Allie; George W.; Joseph B.; Rebecca; Martin A.; and Catherine. (1) John H. Courts married Nancy Badgley, and their children were: Hamer, Andrew, Catherine, Sarah Jane, James Cary, Mary Ann, Allie and David Newton. Of this group, John A. Courts, son of David Newton and Clara (Smith) Courts, still lives near Sardinia, Ohio. (2) Allie Courts married James Knight and the family moved to Illinois. No other records of them. (3) George W. Courts married Martha Hutchinson and their children were: Theodore, Mary A., Perry Oliver and Samantha. Of this group, the family of Perry Oliver and Maude Tracy Courts, were lifetime residents of the New Hope section of the county. They are: Lulu, who married Howard Lindsay; Esther, who married Frank Owens; George P., who married first, Mabel Neal and secondly, Inez Boothby; Earl, who married Elnora Jacobs; Mabley, who is yet unmarried; Irma and Carl, who died young. (4) Joseph B. Courts married Martha R. Boyd and had children: Charles, Benjamin and Eliza A. No other records are available on this

THE KIMBALL - WARDLOW FAMILY

Robert Wardlow, son of William, son of Robert, was born in Augusta County, Virginia, about 1748, of Scottish ancestors. He was a soldier under General George Washington and was at the surrender of Cornwallis at Yorktown. He married Janet Downey (date unknown), and moved to Kentucky about 1790. His name appears in land transactions for Virginia from 1762 to 1774, and he was listed as a taxpayer in 1782. About 1800, the family moved to Ohio where they settled in 1801, on a tract of land northeast of New Hope, Scott Township, Brown County, Ohio. Seven children were born to Robert and Janet (Downey) Wardlow: William, Samuel, Martha, John, James, Joseph and Hugh. The following history concerns itself with that of the only daughter, Martha and Benjamin Kimball.

Martha Kimball, daughter of Robert and Janet (Downey) Wardlow, was born in 1776, at Rockbridge, Augusta County, Virginia. She was married first to Colonel Henry Zumatt, in Harrison County, Kentucky. Martha and Colonel Zumatt settled on a tract of land one mile south of New Hope, in 1801. The Colonel was one of the early figures in the pioneer life of Brown County. He died in 1814. Martha married secondly, Major Benjamin Kimball in 1816. He was of Scottish descent and was born in Hopkington, New Jersey. All are buried in the family cemetery at Kimball's Ford, this county. Martha died in 1854.

In 1801, Benjamin Kimball came to Ohio and joined a regiment of troops at the opening of the war with Great Britain. He served until the treaty of Ghent. Major Kimball was of Puriteur and Virginia stock, and his ancestors were passengers on the famous Mayflower. His mother's family assisted in the colonization of the area around the James River in Virginia.

One son was born to Benjamin and Martha (Wardlow) Kimball on Janury 7, 1818, named Henry Kimball. On October 29, 1840, Henry married Melinda Jacobs, daughter of James and Isabella (Fiely) Jacobs.

THE KIMBALL - WARDLOW FAMILY

Robert Wardlow, son of William, son of Robert, was born in Augusta County, Virginia, about 1760, of Scottish ancestors. He was a soldier under General George Washington and was at the surrender of Cornwallis at Yorktown. He married about [illegible] and moved to Kentucky about 1790. His name appears in [illegible] for Virginia from 1783 to 1776, and he was listed as a taxpayer in 1782. About 1800, the family moved to Ohio where they settled in 1802, on a tract of land northeast of New Hope, Scott Township, Brown County, Ohio. Seven children were born to Robert and Janet (Downey) Wardlow: William, Samuel, Martha, John, James, Joseph and Hugh. The following history concerns itself with that of the only daughter, Martha and Benjamin Kimball.

Martha Kimball, daughter of Robert and Janet (Downey) Wardlow, was born in 1776, at [illegible], Augusta County, Virginia. She was married first to Colonel Henry Zumalt, in Harrison County, Kentucky. Martha and Colonel Zumalt settled on a tract of land one mile south of New Hope, in 1801. The Colonel was one of the early figures in the pioneer life of Brown County. He died in 1814. Martha married secondly, Major Benjamin Kimball in 1816. He was of English descent and was born at Hackensack, New Jersey. All are buried in the family cemetery at Kimball's Ford, this county. Martha died in 1841.

In 1801, Benjamin Kimball came to Ohio and joined a regiment of troops at the opening of the war with Great Britain. He served until the treaty of Ghent. Major Kimball was of Yankee and Virginia stock, and his ancestors were passengers on the famous Mayflower. His mother's family assisted in the colonization of the area around the James River in Virginia.

One son was born to Benjamin and Martha (Wardlow) Kimball on January 7, 1818, named Henry Kimball. On October 26, 1840, Henry married Melinda Jacobs, daughter of James and Isabella (Fite) Jacobs.

By this union seven children were born, two dying in infancy. The five who reached adulthood were: A.J. Kimball, the oldest and a bachelor, born November 16, 1841; W. F. Kimball, born in 1843; T. H. Kimball, born in 1847; Martha Isabell Kimball, born in 1851; and the youngest, Jane, born in 1853. A.J. and his sister Jane, neither of whom ever married, lived their entire life in the ancestral home at Kimball's Ford, Scott Township. All are buried in the family cemetery at the above location.

Everette Robinson is a great-grandson of Henry Kimball. Mr. Robinson has in his possession, many old records of the family, one of which is the following military commission:

"Samuel Huntington, Governor and Commander in Chief of the State, to Benjamin Kimball, Esquire. Greeting:

"It being certified to me that you are duly elected Major of the First Battalion, Second Regiment, First Brigade and Fourth Division of Militia in this State, now know you, that by virtue of the powers vested in me by the Constitution and laws of said State; and reposing special trust and confidence in your courage, activity, fidelity and good conduct, I do by these presents, commission you as Major of said Battalion, hereby authorizing and requiring you to discharge all and singular, the duties and services appertaining to your said office agreeably to law, and such instructions as you shall from time to time receive from your superior officers.

"In testimony whereof, I have hereunto set my name, and caused the Great Seal of the State of Ohio to be affixed, at Chillicothe, the sixth day of September, in the year of our Lord, one thousand eight hundred ten, and in the thirty-fifth year of the Independence of the United States of America. -- Samuel Huntington. By his Excellency's command, John McLean, Secretary of State."

For half a century or more, Kimball's Ford was widely known as a special picnic ground along the banks of beautiful White Oak Creek. The Ford was equally famous for its delicious ruby-red watermelons which grew profusely on the rich, well-watered bottom land. The production of this fruit was immense and besides the local purchasers, others came from many miles distant, often returning with truckloads of the tasty melons. In a nearby camp, maple syrup was also produced from the many maple trees abounding in that section of the township.

MARTHA ISABELL KIMBALL married Walter Robinson, son of Reverend Henry Robinson, of Scott Township. They established their home on a farm at the edge of New Hope, across the road from Dr. Ellsberry's farm. This union of Walter and Martha (Kimball) Robinson produced three children, namely: Minnie May, Edward and Mary Elizabeth Robinson.

Minnie May Robinson, born November 13, 1872, died December 9, 1923. She married in May, 1889, Doctor Joseph Clemons, who was the son of Joseph L. and Drucilla (Gibson) Clemons. Joseph L. Clemons was born in 1833, in Clermont County,and died in 1921, in Brown County. Drucilla was born in 1837, and died in Brown County, in 1918.

Doctor Joseph Clemons was the grandson of Andrew (1792-1873) and Mary (Pierce) Gibson (1793-1882). The doctor taught school in one or two-room buildings during his early years. Later, he attended the Sterling Medical College at Columbus, Ohio. He began his practice with Doctor Bevins at New Hope, later opening his own office in the same village. His practice extended over a period of fifty years, but he still found time to be a useful member of the Masonic and Oddfellows' Lodges. The marriage of Joseph G. and Minnie M. (Robinson) Clemons produced six children as follows: Guy (1890-1891), Floyd (1891-1965), Karl (1896-1926), Lelage (1894- still living), Mattie (1899-1916) and Dwight (1901-still living). Dwight Clemons recently retired from the Georgetown police force, having been police chief for twenty years.

Lelage Clemons, born at New Hope, attended a two-room school in that village and graduated from Georgetown High School in 1913. On April 13, 1915, she was married to Howard Burnett Mitchell. He was born at Afton, Clermont County, Ohio, in 1894. Howard is the son of George W. and Louetta (Burnett) Mitchell. His father (George W. Mitchell) was born in 1868, in Clermont County and died in 1935, at Crosstown, Ohio. The mother, Louetta, was born April 13, 1867, in Clermont County, and died October 15, 1941. She was the daughter of Reuben and Sarah (Willett) Burnett. George W. Mitchell was the son of Thomas and Josephine (Mayham) Mitchell. Howard Mitchell attended school at Mt. Orab, graduating in 1913. He also taught in a one-room school for a few years. To this union of Howard and Lelage (Clemons) Mitchell, seven children were born: William and Howard, Jr., dying at an early age. The five who attained adulthood were: Guy Gibson, born January 12, 1916; George Clemons, born February 18, 1920; Minetta, born June 9, 1922; Mattie Jean, born March 24, 1925; and Doris Eileen Mitchell, born April 17, 1927.

(1) Guy Gibson Mitchell attended elementary school at New Hope and graduated from the Mt. Orab High School in 1933. On January 29, 1941, he enlisted in the Air Corps, graduating from Radar School at Boca Raton, Florida, in 1942. In 1943, he was moved overseas to England where he was stationed nine months at Saffon and Waldon. He was in the Normandy Beach invasion and was discharged on October 28, 1945. On February 8, 1947, he was married in Norwood, Ohio, to Geraldine Hager by Reverend McClain. Geraldine was born in Williamson, West Virginia, on May 9, 1923. She attended school in North Carolina. To this union five children were born: Paula Kaye, December 30, 1947; Guy Joseph, February 12, 1949; Christie Lee, March 23, 1955; Jeffery Howard, May 9, 1957; and William Jay, January 26, 1961. Paula Kaye and Christie Lee were both killed in a highway accident on August 24, 1964. The father, Guy G. Mitchell, is presently co-owner and operator of "Television, Incorporated," located in Oakley, Cincinnati, Ohio.

(2) George Clemons Mitchell graduated from the Mt. Orab High School in 1937. After graduating, for a time, he was employed by the Allis Chalmers Company of Norwood, Ohio. He entered the U.S. Army, Anti Air Craft Service, in September, 1942, and left California for the South Pacific in 1943. He served on Guadalcanal and the Philippines, being discharged in January, 1946. He returned to Allis Chalmers where he is now a foreman of Quality Control. On November 22, 1942, he was married in Covington, Kentucky, to Lois Mowry, by Reverend E.M. Rose. Lois was born at Mt. Orab, Ohio, in 1923. To this union, two sons were born: George, Jr., and Mark Mitchell. George C. Mitchell, Jr., born April 8, 1944, graduated from Sycamore High School, Blue Ash, Ohio. Furthering his education, he had six years of University Engineering and five years training at the Cincinnati Milling Machine Company where he is presently employed as a Metallurgical Technician. In 1965, he was married to Deborah Stagge and they have one daughter, Denise Renea, who was born November 2, 1966. Mark, the younger child, was born July 15, 1953, at Cincinnati. Presently, he is a Freshman at the Sycamore High School.

(3) Minetta Mitchell graduated from the Mt. Orab High School in 1940 and was married to Carter Lancaster in 1942. He is the son of Walker and Sayde (Carter) Lancaster of Woodford County, Kentucky. Carter was born in the above county and attended Versailles High School. He was drafted into the army in January, 1942, and served three years - one of which was overseas under the command of General Patton's Third Army. He was attached to the Heavy Artillery in England, Austria and Germany, and was discharged in September, 1945. Two daughters were born to this union: Dianna Sue, born in 1943, graduated from the Versailles High School, Woodford County, Kentucky, in 1960, and was married to Charles William Baker in 1960. They have two sons: Charles William, Jr., born in 1961, and Kim Wayne, born in 1963. The father, C. W. Baker, is a farmer. The younger of Mr. and Mrs. Baker, Rita Carlene, was born in 1945, and graduated from Versailles High School. She attended the University of Kentucky and Campbellsville College for two years. Presently, she is Secretary to the Director of Sports Information at the University of Kentucky at Lexington. Carter Lancaster, who lives in Versailles, Kentucky, operates a Texaco Service Station and Bulk Distributing Plant.

(4) Mattie Jean Mitchell attended school at New Hope and graduated from the Mt. Orab High School. On January 30, 1942, she married Alfred P. Cook and they have four children: Alberta Jean, Alfred Guy, Catherine and Bonnie Jo. Alberta Jean Cook married Gary Cox on April 14, 1961. They have two children: Sheri, born August 1, 1963, and Kevin, born July 12, 1964. Alfred Guy Cook was born January 12, 1945,

Grandson of James Thomas Jacobs

W. J. JACOBS.

Mr. W. J. Jacobs, one of the well known citizens of Georgetown, Ohio, where he is engaged in the coal and lumber business, was born near Georgetown, October 8, 1846, his parents being Alfred and Rebecca Ann (Ellis) Jacobs.

Alfred Jacobs was born near Russellville on a farm, January 23, 1820, and passed from this life January 3, 1907, and is laid to rest in the Georgetown Confidence cemetery. During his active life Mr. Jacobs followed the occupation of farming and was an extensive stock trader. He was greatly interested in politics and was elected sheriff of Brown county in 1860, serving in this capacity for a term of four years. He was a member of the Universalist church and was in every way a most honorable gentleman. Mrs. Jacobs was born at Georgetown, Ohio, May 3, 1824, and passed to her eternal reward on the 16th of June, 1853. To her union with Mr. Jacobs six children were born, five of whom grew to maturity. They are:

Malinda J., deceased.
W. J., our subject. (WILLIAM)
I. N., a resident of Georgetown, Ohio (ISAAC)
Noah E., deceased.
Mary Isabel, who became the wife of William A. Thompson, is also deceased.

For his second wife Mr. Jacobs married Miss Mary America Ellsberry and they became the parents of four children:

Minerva M., wife of Van P. Denton, resides near Chicago.
Rebecca married Rev. James R. Conner, of Garrettsville, Ohio.
Charles W. lives near Xenia, Ohio.

(1. James Jacobs, grandfather of W. J. Jacobs, of this mention, was a native of Scotland and he and his family were among the first to settle in Brown county. From him the present generation inherits much of that sturdy character that is a chief characteristic of that race of people.

Mr. W. J. Jacobs acquired his education in the Georgetown schools and later in the normal school at Lebanon, Ohio. At the expiration of the course at Lebanon Mr. Jacobs entered upon his business career at once, entering the woolen mills at Georgetown as bookkeeper, which position he held from 1870 to 1874. He then engaged himself as clerk in the grocery store of Mr. Adams Stevens until 1877, when he was appointed deputy auditor of Brown county, on the Democratic ticket, under County Auditor E. Roney. In 1880 he was elected county auditor and served in this capacity for two terms.

In 1877, Mr. Jacobs formed a partnership with Mr. F. A. Stevens in the grocery business and continued in this association for four years. He was again appointed deputy county auditor, under County Auditor H. L. Jennings, and filled this office for six years. He then served four years as deputy auditor under County Auditor McCall.

The next venture of Mr. Jacobs was made in July, 1892, when he formed a partnership in the coal and lumber business with Mr. Louis Mischler, who is mentioned elsewhere on the pages of these volumes, purchasing the coal and lumber yard of Mr. S. W. Blair. The association formed at this time still continues and the firm is known as the Georgetown Coal and Lumber Company. The reliable dealing of the firm has brought to them an unusual degree of prosperity.

On January 2, 1877, Mr. Jacobs was united in marriage to Miss Lucy M. Waterman, who was born in Georgetown and is a daughter of Wilson and Narcissa (Kendall) Waterman, the former of whom was born near Georgetown, Ohio, in 1818, and died in 1888. The latter was born in Brown county, in 1826, and died October 17, 1889. They were highly esteemed farmers of Pleasant township and were the parents of five children, all born in Brown county. Three are now living:

Wealthy, who married M. D. Ross, of Felicity, Ohio.

Nettie, wife of William M. White, of Portsmouth, Ohio.

Mrs. W. J. Jacobs.

Mr. and Mrs. Jacobs have become the parents of four children, whose births occurred in Brown county. They are:

Anna R., widow of F. M. Thompson, of Georgetown, Ohio, who is the mother of four children, Jasper King, Karl Rees, Nell Conner and Ralph Fagin.

Nell M., who became the wife of Dr. V. A. Dodd, of Columbus, Ohio. They are the parents of two children, Vern A., Jr., and Jane. Mrs. Dodd is a graduate of the Georgetown High School.

Julia B. is a graduate of the Georgetown High School and later of the Protestant Hospital, of Columbus, Ohio. Prior to her course in the hospital she took a course in kindergarten work in Cincinnati, where she taught for some time. She resides at the home of her parents.

Capt. Lute Egbert, an uncle of Mrs. Jacobs, served in Company C, Fifty-ninth regiment, Ohio volunteer infantry, during the Civil war, and Capt. U. S. G. White, of Georgetown, Ohio, is her cousin.

Mr. Jacobs is a man of great ability and is very popular with those who know him. His business standing is of the very best in the community and his energy and integrity is one of the salient factors of his success. Mr. and Mrs. Jacobs have reared a family of whom they are justly proud and their home is one of comfort and hospitality.

EDGAR H. KENNEDY.

Mr. Edgar H. Kennedy is pre-eminently a business man and one who has wielded a wide influence in the commercial circles of Brown county, Ohio, where almost his entire life thus far has been spent. He is well qualified to handle the extensive business of the Georgetown Marble and Granite Works, of which he is secretary, treasurer, general manager and part owner. This industry is located at Georgetown, Ohio, and the company is doing a splendid business. The territory which they supply with their goods covers a radius of fifty miles, which includes the counties of Brown, Clermont, Adams, Highland, Warren, Hamilton and Clinton, in Ohio, and, in addition, a number of counties in Kentucky. Mr. Kennedy is a son of Walter and Lydia M. (Keethler) Kennedy, of Mt. Orab, Ohio, and was born in Pike township, Brown county, Ohio, in 1868.

The ancestors of the Kennedy family were originally from Pennsylvania, and, in 1811, John Kennedy, great-grandfather of our subject, and James Kennedy, grandfather, came down the Ohio river on logboats and settled in Brown county, where they cleared the timber and erected homes for their families. They became prominent farmers of Clark township, Brown county.

Walter Kennedy, a son of James Kennedy, was born in 1845, while his wife was born in 1848. They followed the occupation of farming for many years and are now enjoying a well earned rest at their pleasant home at Mt. Orab, Ohio. Mr. Kennedy responded to his country's call for volunteers

Husband: William Jasper JACOBS

Notes

Was born near Georgetown, Ohio. He was engaged in a coal and lumber business. James Jacobs, grandfather of W. J. Jacobs, was a native of Scotland and he and his family were the first to settle in Brown County. Acquired his education in the Georgetown schools and later in the school at Lebanon, [illegible]o. At the expiration of the course at Lebanon, Mr. Jacobs entered upon his business career at once, entering the woolen mills at Georgetown as a [illegible]kkeeper, which position he held from 1870 to 1874. He then engaged himself as a grocery clerk at Mr. Adam Stevens until 1877, when he was appointed deputy auditor of Brown County, on the Democratic ticket, under county Auditor E. Roney. In 1880 was elected county auditor and served this capacity for two terms. In 1877 Mr. Jacobs formed a partnership with Mr. F. A. Stevens in the grocery business and continued in this association for four years. He was again appointed deputy county auditor, under County Auditor H. L. Jennings, and filled this office for six years. He then served four years as a deputy auditor under County Auditor McCall. The next venture of Mr. Jacobs was made July 1892, when he formed a partnership in the coal and lumber business with Louis Mischler, purchasing the coal and lumber yard of S. W. Blair. The association formed at this time still continues and the firm in known as the Georgetown Coal and Lumber Company. January 2,1877 he was united with Lucy M. Waterman, who was born in Georgetown, d/o Wilson and Narcissa (Kendall) Waterman.
HISTORY OF CLERMONT AND BROWN COUNTY,OHIO VOLUME II page 591-592,724

He attended the National Normal University at Lebanon, Ohio,where he took a 6 month course in business. He was a book-keeper in a woolen mill in Clermont County during 1869 and in the Georgetown Woolen Mills for three years. From May of 1874, to January of 1878, he was employed as clerk in the grocery of Adam Stephens. He was a member of Confidence Lodge, No. 307,I.O.O.F..

field. He served three years and one month in this position; was in command of the Regiment in East Tennessee, and the Atlanta campaign, and was honorably discharged November 1, 1864. He engaged in mercantile pursuits, and in 1866 was again elected Clerk of Common Pleas Court; re-elected successively in 1869 and 1872, and subsequently served as a clerk in the Adjutant General's office, of Ohio, assisting in compiling the list of volunteer soldiers from Ohio to the late war, for publication. In 1881–82, he was book-keeper for a large firm in Cincinnati. Capt. Higgins is a member of the Odd Fellow and Masonic fraternities, and connected with Cincinnati Commandery, Knights Templars. He was married September 14, 1858, to M. B. M. Buckner, a native of Georgetown, and daughter of Philip J. Buckner, a prominent physician of Brown County. Mrs. Higgins' mother was Sophia Hewitt, a native of Uniontown, Penn., born at the foot of the "Laurel Hills." Eight children have been given Captain and Mrs. Higgins, six of whom survive—Henry B., Robert H., Laura B., M. Bessie, Beatrice and Sophia. Willie T. and Blanche are deceased. Mrs. Higgins is a member of the Presbyterian Church. She was educated at the Ohio Female College, of College Hill, and finished her studies at the Wesleyan Female College of Cincinnati, under the tuition of the eminent Prof. E. B. Wilbur.

Henry B. Higgins, oldest child and son of Capt. Robert H. Higgins, was born in Georgetown August 30, 1859. He grew to manhood in his native village, and received a good education in its public schools. In 1875, he was appointed Deputy Clerk of the Court of Common Pleas by his father, and the latter's successor, John Lafabre, retained him. In the spring of 1882, he was re-appointed by C. C. Blair, the present Clerk. Mr. Higgins is a promising young man, and an active member of the Democratic party. In April, 1882, he was elected Village Clerk, which position he also holds. He is a member of the Masonic fraternity.

SIMON HUEY, farmer and blacksmith, P. O. Georgetown, born in Fayette County, Penn., August 27, 1810, the son of George and Margaret Huey. They were natives of the Keystone State, of Irish and German descent. He learned the blacksmith trade, and has followed it all his life. In 1838, he moved to Brown County. In connection with his trade, he has carried on farming for a few years, and owns 104 acres of good land. Mr. Huey has twice entered the connubial state, but both his consorts are deceased. He has three children—George, Margaret (wife of Perry Dye, of this township), and James A. Mr. Huey is a member of the Christian Union Church. His politics are Democratic, but he does not hesitate to vote for the man he regards best, irrespective of his party affiliations. He is a man of strong will-power, and boldly advocates what he deems right. To his family he is kind and indulgent, to his fellow-man generous, and to the needy liberal. During his long residence in Brown County he has made many warm friends and few enemies, and none of his neighbors can say aught against him.

WILLIAM W. J. JACOBS, Auditor of Brown County, Georgetown, was born in Pleasant Township, this county, October 8, 1846. His father was Alfred Jacobs, a life resident of Brown County, and a farmer by occupation. He married Rebecca Ellis, who departed this life January 16, 1853, aged twenty-eight years and eight months. He was subsequently joined in marriage to America Ellsberry, who is also deceased. His present wife was Amanda Wrastler. Three sons and three daughters were born to the first union, two sons and two daughters to the second one, and five children to the present union. Of these, eleven are now living. The subject of this notice was reared on the home farm, attending the National Normal University at Lebanon, Ohio, where he took a six months' business course. He was book-keeper in a woolen mill in Clermont County during 1869, and in the Georgetown Woolen Mills for three years. From May, 1874, to January, 1878, he was employed as clerk in the grocery of Adam Stephen. In the latter month, he was appointed Deputy to E. E. Roney, Auditor of Brown County, which position he acceptably filled till October, 1880, when he was elected Auditor on the Democratic ticket. Mr. Jacobs is a member of Confidence Lodge, No. 307, I. O. O. F. He was married, January 2, 1877, to Lucy, daughter of N. A. Watterman, of Pleasant Township. They have two children—Anna and Nellie. Mrs. Jacobs is a member of the New Light Church.

has been an industrious farmer thus far in life, and his record has been such that his children can point to it with pride.

PERRY HOSS, farmer, P. O. White Oak, was born in Brown County, Ohio, August 21, 1826. He acquired a common school education in the common schools of Brown County, where he has lived for over fifty-five years. He has taught school in both Brown and Highland Counties. He has been Township Trustee of Pike Township. He never aspired for office, but devoted his time to the management of his farm. When sixteen years of age, he began farming, as a renter; thus he continued for three years, when he purchased property in Highland County, Ohio, which he afterward traded for twenty-five acres of land; sold that and went West, where he remained two years. He then returned to Brown County, Ohio, and in the fall of 1858 he bought seventy acres, where he now resides. He was united in marriage with Nancy Vance May 28, 1846. To this union eleven children have been born, of whom nine are living—Lizzie, ✓ W. H., T. J., J. H., George R., Mollie, Therssa E., Ira A. and Lawrence. Mr. Hoss is the agent of the C. & E. R. R., also filling the position of Postmaster at White Oak Station.

ISAAC I. N. JACOBS, farmer, P. O. New Harmony, was born in Brown County, Ohio, October 8, 1846, and is a son of Alfred Jacobs, who is a native of Brown County. I. N. Jacobs was united in marriage with Marinda Wilson August 4, 1867; soon after their marriage, he began farming for himself; thus he has continued for fourteen years. He acquired a common school education. Mr. and Mrs. Jacobs are the parents of two children—Lillie R., born May 25, 1870, and Nellie M., born August 3, 1881. He and his wife are a worthy young couple, and highly respected by every one who knows them.

W. H. JONES, merchant, Locust Ridge. Among the business industries of the village of Locust Ridge, we mention that of Jones & Vaughan's dry goods and grocery store, which was established about 1880. W. H. Jones, one of the members of the firm, was born in Pike Township, Brown Co., Ohio, September 27, 1853, and is a son of H. H. and Elizabeth Jones, who were married January 6, 1844. They were both natives of Ohio. W. H. Jones, our subject, was the third son and sixth child of the family, and was united in marriage with Mary Belle Chatterton January 6, 1881. He acquired a common school education, and is a member of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows. He is an enterprising young business man, and has the confidence of the community in which he does business. Their home is a pleasant one, and a more genial host and hostess will be hard to find.

GEORGE W. MARTIN, farmer P. O. Mt. Orab, was born July 31, 1853, in Hamilton County, Ohio, and is a son of Gano and Elizabeth (Nash) Martin. Gano was born about 1812, in Hamilton County, Ohio, and was married three times. The first wife that blessed his home was Anna Curry; second, Elizabeth Nash, the mother of our subject, and the third Rachael Merritt. To these unions were born eight children, of whom five are now living. George is the third son and fifth child. He was married, January 14, 1875, to Ella Heltman. Soon after his marriage, he began farming as a renter, thus he continued for three years, when he engaged in the mercantile business and keeping the post office. He acquired a common school education in the common schools. He and his family in March, 1882, moved from Hamilton County, Ohio, into Brown County, Ohio, where he purchased a farm of 113 acres in Pike Township, where they now reside. Mr. and Mrs. Martin are the parents of two children, both living.

E. McGOHAN, farmer, P. O. Locust Ridge, was born in Clermont County, Ohio, September 30, 1830, and is a son of Daniel and Lida (Dunn) McGohan, who were both natives of Pennsylvania. They emigrated to Ohio, and settled in Clermont County in 1829, where he remained until his death, which occured April 9, 1872. He was united in marriage with Phebe Insco; she was born and reared in Kentucky. E. McGohan began farming for himself as a renter at the age of twenty-one; thus he continued for four years, when he bought 112 acres of land, and not being pleased with the location he sold and purchased 131 acres where he resides in Pike

I. N. JACOBS

With the fullness of years Isaac Newton Jacobs passed on to his eternal home on Wednesday evening, July 2, 1930. He was the son of Alfred and Rebecca Ann (Ellis) Jacobs and was born October 8, 1846. Most of his nearly 84 years of life were spent in this county.

On August 4, 1867 he was united in marriage with Merida Wilson and to this union were born two daughters, Miss Nellie Maud Jacobs of revered memory, and Mrs. Wall Applegate who survives her father and who has so carefully, faithfully and tenderly cared for him during the last months of his life. His faithful wife preceded him in death in 1903 and his loved daughter Nellie in 1929.

For several years Mr. Jacobs served as Superintendent of the Brown County Home and there as elsewhere discharged his duties with high fidelity and efficiency. He was quiet of disposition, industrious, peace loving and gentle. Such a one is always greatly missed when he is gone.

Mr. Jacobs leaves beside his daughter, Mrs. Applegate and her husband Mr. Wall Applegate, who has always been as tender and kind as any son could be, one full brother and twin, Mr. Jasper Jacobs, of Columbus, Ohio, and a half brother and four half sisters, many other relatives and a host of friends and neighbors to mourn his going.

Card of Thanks

We wish to express our sincere and heartfelt thanks to all our relatives, neighbors and friends for the kindness and sympathy shown to us in our great bereavement. Especially do we wish to thank Rev. Martin for his consoling words and Mr. Frank Spencer for his efficient service, and donors of the beautiful flowers.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Applegate.

OBITUARY

ELIZA JACOBS

Eliza Jacobs, widow of the late James William Jacobs, daughter of Frank and Anna Clickner, was born Fec) 2, 1857 and departed this life Nov. 24, 1947, at the home of her son in Toledo, Ohio.

Her early life was spent at West Fork, Ohio, where she attended school and was a member of the church there.

She was always ready and willing to render her services wherever needed; was a good neighbor, a wonderful mother, and a lover of flowers.

In 1915 she moved to Toledo, Ohio. After the death of her husband, she lived among her children. The past thirteen years she made her home with her son, Charles. During her last illness, she was tenderly cared for by her daughter-in-law, Bessie Jacobs, daughter Eva Richter, and granddaughter Mildred Crossman.

She was the mother of seven children, Mrs. Eva Richter and Charles Jacobs, of Toledo, Ohio; Lee Jacobs, of Newport, Ky.; Mrs. Emma Prickett and William Fiscus, both of Georgetown, O.

Two other daughters, Mrs. Anna Bier and Mrs. Edna Ashmore, preceeded her in death several years ago. She also leaves 13 grandchildren and 31 great-grandchildren.

A precious one from us has gone,
A voice we loved is stilled.
A place is vacant in our home
That never can be filled.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our thanks and appreciation for all the kindness shown us by our relatives, neighbors and friends, at the time of the death of our mother.

Especially do we wish to thank the donors of the beautiful flowers, Mr. Robert Tucker for his kind and efficient way in which he conducted the funeral service; to Rev. E. U. Dodson for his comforting message, and the singers for their beautiful songs.

IN MEMORY OF MRS. I. N. JACOBS.

The funeral services of Mrs. I. N. Jacobs were held at her home, near New Boston, Clermont county, last Wednesday morning, conducted by Dr. T. W. Salt, after which her remains were brought to Georgetown for burial in Confidence Cemetery. The following biographical sketch of Mrs. Jacobs was read by Dr. Salt:

Miranda Wilson Jacobs, daughter of David and Lucinda Wilson, was born near New Harmony, Brown county, Ohio, and died at her home near New Boston, Monday evening, February 3, 1908, aged 58 years, 1 month and 20 days. She was the eldest of a family of twelve children, two of whom have preceded her to the eternal home. She is survived by six brothers, namely: John, George, Reuben, William, Charles and Ora, also by three sisters, namely: Emma Abbott, Nettie Conover, Luella Frame. While several of the above were yet children the mother died and Miranda became as a mother to the motherless children and manifested such devotion to them as they will always cherish in loving remembrance.

In early life Miranda sought and found Christ as her only Savior and united with the Methodist Church in New Harmony in which communion she remained until 1896, when she was transferred to the membership of the First Methodist Episcopal Church, Georgetown. She was married to Isaac N. Jacobs August 4, 1867. To this union two children were born, L. Bertie (wife of G. W. Applegate) and Miss Nellie. In all the relations of life Mrs. Jacobs proved herself to be a true Christian woman. She was richly endowed with the gifts and graces, which combine to make the ideal wife. As a mother she was devoted and affectionate, exerting her utmost endeavor for the welfare of her children. As a neighbor she was kind, sympathetic and obliging, and to her it was a delightful service to minister to the sick, to comfort the afflicted and relieve the distressed and many realize that in the death of Miranda Jacobs they have lost a sincere friend. Her kindly disposition was very manifest during the years of her husband's superintendency of the Brown County Infirmary. The inmates loved her, for they instinctively knew her to be their friend and those who knew her will fondly cherish the recollections of her many kindly deeds. About one year ago she with her husband and children moved to their present beautiful home near New Boston. In arranging and planning the improvements of the home as an abode of comfort for her loved ones she took the keenest delight, and she looked forward to many happy years in this delightful home. Last Monday she appeared to be in her usual health, cheerfully engaged in her daily household duties until about 8 o'clock in the evening, when she suddenly became indisposed, complaining first of dizziness, then of slight misery in the head and within a few minutes she fell into a state of unconsciousness from which she never recovered. At 11 o'clock, surrounded by husband and children doing their utmost for her relief, she calmly passed away without the least sign of suffering. Her physicians attribute her death to paralysis and they are of the opinion that she experienced very little, if any, suffering whatever. Besides her immediate relatives, Mrs. Jacobs leaves many friends who are deeply grieved at her death and who sincerely sympathize with the bereaved family. While her death brings unspeakable sorrow to her loved ones, yet they sorrow not as them that have no hope. She lived a true Christian life; she left a good testimony and we find sweetest comfort in the assurance that she is safe with the redeemed in Heaven.

"Dear one, thou hast left us,
Here thy loss we deeply feel,
But 'tis God that hath bereft us,
He can all our sorrows heal."

CARD OF THANKS

We desire to exress our sincere gratitude to our neighbors and friends for their kindness and sympathy in our great sorrow We also extend our thanks to Rev. Dr. Salt and the choir; also to funeral director, Mr. Daily, for their kind services.

I. N. JACOBS, MRS. G. W. APPLEGATE, MISS NELL JACOBS.

Captain C. W. Boyd was born in Lewis County, Kentucky, on May 28, 1834. He moved to Levanna, at the age of fifteen years, and engaged in the saw mill business. He was married at Winchester, Ohio, in 1857, to Miss Margate McMeekin. In 1861, he volunteered in the army and received a commission as Lieutenant in Company "B", 34th Ohio Infantry. He was afterwards promoted to Captain of his company. He is the founder of the village of Levanna, and is President of the Boyd Manufacturing Company doing business at that place and Ripley, with a capital stock of $300,000. He is the father of seven children, six of whom are living. He is a self-made man, and is held in the highest esteem by all classes of people. He is generous, kind-hearted, and ever ready to lend a helping hand to the needy, and to assist in building up all laudable enterprises in our community. --Brown County News, April 30, 1884

MRS. DUNCAN ELLIS

The advent of death into the home of Mr. & Mrs. Duncan Ellis severed two lives that journeyed through life for almost sixty-five years. Both were born in Brown County, and both have spent their entire lives within its borders. Mrs. Ellis was born on Eagle Creek, and Mr. Ellis was born in the large log house which used to stand at the northeast corner of Confidence Cemetery, between Georgetown and New Hope and the C. G. & P. Railroad. Together they witnessed and assisted in the clearing of the forest from much of the now fertile farm lands of Brown County. Both beginning life before the advent of the railroad and the telegraph, they witnessed the marvelous development from an almost primitive state into its present advanced state of progress. They have helped to produce by untiring industry and thrift, the present splendid heritage possessed by the younger generations. In the early life of both, heavy virgin forest covered the region north of Georgetown. Areas of cleared land with the dwellings of those who lived on them, were surrounded by dense timber. Now almost all of it is gone. Only isolated patches of culled woodland remain.

Throughout their married life they have subscribed for and read a county paper. The last public gathering Mr. & Mrs. Ellis attended together, was the Equity rally in Georgetown last Fourth of July. They received the prize awarded to the oldest couple on the grounds and Mrs. Ellis received the prize awarded to the oldest woman. For the past year Mrs. Ellis has been in declining health and for eight months has not been out of the house. At ten o'clock Thursday morning, April 29th, she yielded the struggle, and her long useful life closed.

Eliza Jane Ellis, daughter of James and Isabel Jacobs, was born on Eagle Creek, August 13, 1824, and died April 29, 1909. Hers was a life that passed far beyond the allotted three score and ten, advancing to the ripe age of 84 years, 8 months and 16 days. On Christmas Day, 1845, she was united in marriage with Duncan Ellis. This union proved to be a very happy one. For nearly sixty-five years together they shared

The death of Nelse Ellis at this time has a much deeper significance to me and to us all than appears on the surface, just at a glance.

Nelse was born March 4, 1838. I was born December 4, 1838, just nine months after he was. You and he were married December 2, 1862. My wife and I were married December 31, 1862. I became a member of the Christian Church, November 7, 1863. He became a member on January 30, 1878. Doubtless you and he and your family were looking forward to the time when you could and would celebrate your 50th anniversary or Golden Wedding, but alas, the good Lord decreed otherwise, and you and he were not allowed to live to see that glad day by only a few months. "Hist. Coll. of Br. Co., OH"

Captain C.W. Boyd was born in Lewis County, Kentucky, on May 28, 1834. He moved to Levanna, at the age of fifteen years, and engaged in the saw mill business. He was married at Winchester, Ohio, in 1857, to Miss Margate McMeekin. In 1861, he volunteered in the army and received a commission as Lieutenant in Company "B", 34th Ohio Infantry. He was afterwards promoted to Captain of his company. He is the founder of the village of Levanna, and is President of the Boyd Manufacturing Company doing business at that place and Ripley, with a capital stock of $300,000. He is the father of seven children, six of whom are living. He is a self-made man, and is held in the highest esteem by all classes of people. He is generous, kind-hearted, and ever ready to lend a helping hand to the needy, and to assist in building up all laudable enterprises in our community. --Brown County News, April 30, 1884

The advent of death into the home of Mr. & Mrs. Duncan Ellis severed two lives that journeyed through life for almost sixty-five years. Both were born in Brown County, and both have spent their entire lives within its borders. Mrs. Ellis was born on Eagle Creek, and Mr. Ellis was born in the large log house which used to stand at the northeast corner of Confidence Cemetery, between Georgetown and New Hope and the C.G. & P. Railroad. Together they witnessed and assisted in the clearing of the forest from much of the now fertile farm lands of Brown County. Both beginning life before the advent of the railroad and the telegraph, they witnessed the marvelous development from an almost primitive state into its present advanced state of progress. They have helped to produce by untiring industry and thrift, the present splendid heritage possessed by the younger generations. In the early life of both, heavy virgin forest covered the region north of Georgetown. Areas of cleared land with the dwellings of those who lived on them, were surrounded by dense timber. Now almost all of it is gone. Only isolated patches of culled woodland remain.

Throughout their married life they have subscribed for and read a county paper. The last public gathering Mr. & Mrs. Ellis attended together, was the Equity rally in Georgetown last Fourth of July. Prickett had three children: Louella, Idella M., and Eleanor. Louella Prickett was born May 28, 1907, and never married. Idella Prickett, born April 7, 1909, married, on July 22, 1939, Fred Andrews. They had three children: Charles, Myrna Sue and Gary. No other information is available. Eleanor Prickett, the third child, was born July 17, 1916, married on February 4, 1938, to Alfred Andrews. Three children were born to this union: Douglas, Rhonda and Charles Z. No other information is given.

Joseph Prickett, son of Jesse T. and Mary A. (Conkwright) Prickett, was born on January 7, 1859, and died May 10, 1935. On December 13, 1879, he was married to Sarah L. Ramsey, born December 9, 1861, and who died July 8, 1936. Both are buried in the Linwood Cemetery. Six children were born to this union, namely: Newton, Hattie, John, Roy, Nellie and Mabel Elizabeth. Their records are as follows:

Newton Prickett (1880-1962) is buried in the Confidence Cemetery. He married, on November 26, 1901, Eva Smith. They had five children: Floyd, Vernon, Pearl, Dorothy and Vera. No other information is available.

Hattie Prickett (1882-1964), was married on April 8, 1914, to James Newman. They had one child, Sarah Helen Newman, born in 1915. Hattie is buried in the Woodland Cemetery, Dayton, Ohio.

John Prickett (1885-1965), is buried in the Confidence Cemetery, Georgetown, Ohio. He was married on February 5, 1911, to Edna Shaw, born in 1889. They had three children: Lena, born in 1911, married on June 6, 1931, Eli Hanselman; Helen Beatrice, born in 1916, married on June 5, 1937, Herbert Wardlow; and Gladys, born in 1920, who is unmarried.

Roy Prickett was born in 1888, married on March 5, 1911, to Emma Sue Jacobs, born in 1892. They had four children, one dying as a baby. The three reaching adulthood were: Ralph, Howard and Donald. Ralph, born in 1912, is unmarried. Howard, born in 1916, married July 3, 1937, Elizabeth Purdy. Donald, born in 1921, married Yvonne Rossman on July 20, 1942.

Nellie Prickett was born in 1892, and died in 1952, being buried in the Mt. Washington Cemetery, Kansas City, Kansas. She was married in 1917 to Charles Lynch (1889-1952). They removed to Kansas where three children were born: Viola, Charles Jr., and Herbert. Viola, born in 1918, married on May 15, 1950, Frank Pierce; Charles Jr., born in 1920, married on November 20, 1943, Jessie Henley; and Herbert, born in 1922, married on June 21, 1947, Eloise Mills.

Mabel Elizabeth Prickett, youngest child of Joseph and Sarah (Ramsey) Prickett, was born in 1895, married on December 24, 1913, Joseph Watson (1884-1965), who is buried in the Confidence Cemetery. They lived near Russellville, and had four children as follows: Mildred, Jessie Ruth, Joseph Robert and George Russell Watson. Mildred, born x Abigail, b. 12 Sept. 1833; d. 13 Jan. 1855.

339 xi William Henry, b. 26 Nov. 1837.

191 Abraham⁶ Higby (Jacob,⁵ Nathaniel,⁴ Nathaniel,³ Nathaniel,² Edward¹), born probably in Westchester Co., N. Y., about 1792, settling and married with his parents in the Ohio River Valley, settling near Cincinnati, Ohio. His brother William lived, it is believed, near Rising Sun, Ohio Co., Ind., and Abraham may have dwelt in that section. I have not found his wife's name. Members of his family give his children as follows, but no dates of birth.

Children:

i Garrett.⁷
ii James.
iii Nathaniel.
iv Ezra.
v Rebecca.

192 Jacob⁶ Higby (Jacob,⁵ Nathaniel,⁴ Nathaniel,³ Nathaniel,² Edward¹), born probably in the Ohio River Valley, near Cincinnati, Ohio, 19 May 1802. He married there 24 May 1828 Sarah [illegible], born in Kentucky 22 Sept. 1807, and in 1836 removed to Central Indiana, settling about two miles north of Brookville, Franklin Co., Indiana. He was a prosperous farmer and stockman; his old homestead [illegible] still standing. He lived to a ripe old age.

1859; Angelo, born March 21, 1860; Agnes, born August 14, 1863 (deceased); Edith, born August 2, 1864; Cora, born August 21, 1869. He is a Master Mason, and member of Aurora Lodge No. 51. Also a member of the Methodist Episcopal Church.

CAPT. JOHN C. HIBBITS, insurance agent, Lawrenceburgh, is a native of Dearborn County, born on the homestead farm in Lawrenceburgh Township, July 18, 1834. His parents were John and Susan (Ridinger) Hibbits, of Welsh and Scotch-German extraction. James Hibbits was born in Delaware, and in 1804 came as far West as Cincinnati on a trading expedition from Pittsburgh, then a single man. He subsequently married Susan Ridinger who was a native of Ohio. In 1814 or 1815, James and family located in Dearborn County, stopping for a year or two near the hamlet of Hardinsburgh (often called Hardintown), then settled on a tract of land in Section 8, of the Rees purchase, where he resided the rest of his life, occupied principally as a farmer, though by trade he was a cooper. He was a man of intelligence, and a respected and esteemed citizen. His death occurred on the homestead in 1863. His widow survived him a number of years and died in Cincinnati, Ohio, in 1879. John C. grew up on the farm, received such schooling as the country schools of his neighborhood afforded; then he was sent to Moore's Hill College where he completed his education, and was for a number of years engaged in teaching in the counties of Jefferson and Dearborn. August, 1861, he enlisted as a private soldier in Company F, Thirty-fifth Regiment Indiana Volunteer Infantry, and served throughout the entire struggle, having been with the army in the Department of the Cumberland, and participating in all of the engagements of his regiment, beginning with Stone River and closing with the fall of Atlanta, and also taking part in the battles of Franklin and Nashville, Tenn., in all of which he bore an honorable part, and rose to the rank of captain. He was promoted to second lieutenant and captain, commanding Companies A., F. and D. of his regiment, and led the assault at Lookout Mountain, being in command of the three companies. He received several slight wounds. On his return from the United States service, Capt. Hibbits accepted the agency at Lawrenceburgh of the Merchant Union Express, and later of the American and Adams Express Companies, the business of which he conducted until 1879. Since which time he has been engaged in a general insurance business. May 23, 1878, he was united in marriage with Mrs. A. G. Broadwell. Capt. Hibbits is a member of the Episcopal Church, is identified with the G. A. R., and with the Masonic order. In politics he is a Republican.

EPHRAIM J. HIGBEE, Randolph Township, one of the representative farmers of Ohio County, was born here in 1824. He is a son of William and Rebecca (Jacobs) Higbee, natives of New York and Ohio respectively. His father came West from New York, married in Ohio, and in 1823 located in Union Township, Ohio County, where he purchased land and resided until his death, about 1875. Ephraim Higbee, the subject of this sketch, grew up on the farm, and has always engaged in agricultural pursuits. He was married in 1850 to Ann Kemp, daughter of John Kemp, and by this union two children were born, Mary and Charley. The mother died in 1878, and in 1880 Mr. Higbee was married to Susan Lotton nee Kemp, sister of his first wife. After his marriage Mr. H. began business on his own responsibility. He obtained some property from his father's estate and this he has gradually increased by dint of hard labor, industry and economy, till he now owns 290 acres of valuable land. Mr. and Mrs. Higbee are members of the Christian Church, and are held in high esteem by the people of their community.

ADAM K. HILL, farmer and wharf boatman, Aurora, was born in Manchester Township, December 27, 1848, and completed his education at Moore's Hill College. His father, Abram Hill, was born in Lawrenceburgh Township, November 10, 1821, where he received a common school education, and farmed for a livelihood. He was married, February 26, 1846, to Miss Manerva Kerr. She was born in Hogan Township, September 3, 1824, and to them were born nine children: Amanda, October 13, 1847; Adam K., December 27, 1848; Milton V., December 22, 1850; Harry B., September 30, 1852; Alice, February 25, 1856; Altha, November 20, 1858; Mary E., December 27, 1860; Lewis W., August 16, 1862; Jennie, July 8, 1867. In 1861 Mr. Hill enlisted in Company K, Twenty-sixth Indiana Volunteer Infantry, and served one year as first lieutenant; after which he re-enlisted in 1862, in the Seventh Cavalry, and served nineteen months as first Lieutenant, and was promoted to captain, and served eleven months in that capacity. In 1864 he received a slight flesh wound in the wrist, but participated in nineteen severe fights with his regiment, without another scratch. In 1874 he took charge of the wharf-boat in Aurora. The business increased so, that in 1877 he was compelled to move to the city, which would enable him to handle the business more successfully. He is a member of Wilmington Lodge No. 158, F. & A. M., and the G. A. R. His estimable wife is a faithful member of the Methodist Episcopal Church. Our subject was raised a farmer, and was married February, 1872, to Miss Ella S. Worley, daughter of Francis Worley. She was born September 27, 1851, in Center Township, and to them has been born one child, Gracie G. (July 15, 1874). Mr. Hill is a member of Dearborn Lodge No. 442, F. & A. M. He has been in the stock trade for many years with his father, and is connected with the wharf-boat interests, buying hay
